4-H'ers, Leaders Find Dream Comes True

A dream came true for 40 4-H'ers, leaders, parents and friends of the Best Better 4-H Club as they made their last stop at the World's Fair on a seven-day tour.

The group left Warrenton on July 2, arriving in Buffalo, N. Y. on Saturday at 3 p. m. The evening was spent resting, relaxing, shopping and visiting relatives. Sunday, the club toured Niagara Falls. With the aid of a tour guide on the bus, the group visited the falls in America and Canada, the islands and a new experience of going through U. S. and Canadian customs. After a day of touring and a banquet dinner, 4-H members enjoyed the evening roller skating.

Monday was an enjoyable day of traveling to Cincinnati, Ohio and sharing ideas, enjoying each other's fellowship and finding time for a little rest.

With the temperature in the mid 90's the group had a fun-filled Tuesday at King's Island. King's Island is known as the original King's Dominion with fun and rides for all ages.

Wednesday was another exciting day as 4-H members visited the American Museum of Science and Energy at Oak Ridge, Tenn. Special classes and activities were planned by the museum staff and several 4-H'ers participated in exhibits and workshops.

The 4-H Club was fortunate to have Paul Krockman again as tour driver with Trailways. The Best Better Club can always depend on having a safe and enjoyable trip and looks forward to good food at each stop selected by Mr. Krockman. Mr. Krockman has been tour driver for the club for four years and each year club members look forward to having him the next year.

4-H'ers, parents and friends making the trip were Lynnette Barnes, Gayle Newsome, Cheryl Bell, Fatima Crawford,

Also, Delois Rose, Marc Rose, Monica Rose, Myra Perry, Yvonne Perry, Jay Perry, Pamela Alston, Kwane Alston, Brenda Goode, Demetria Goode, Martina Goode. 4-H leaders were Christine Arrington and Portia Barnes, who also served as tour escort.

Mrs. Barnes said she was very pleased with how well all plans were met on time and feels that the tour was educational as well as enjoyable. She said many 4-H'ers and parents are already asking "Where are we going next year?"

Profit Sharing Benefits Roses Store Employees

N. M. Hilliard, manager of the local P. H. Rose Store, announced this week that more than 6,000 Roses employees in seven southern states shared in the 1981 company contribution to the employees' profit sharing trust.

Hilliard handed statements of their personal account to six local participants, showing how each shared in the company's 1981 profits and what each had accumulated.
