Three Warrants Drawn Following Lake Break-In

Warrants have been sent to Durham for the arrest of a young man and two female teenagers charged with breaking, entering and larceny at a trailer on Kerr Lake during the past weekend.

The trailer, the property of William E. Poole of Durham, was located at Roseland Hill (Drewry) and the entry was reported to the Sheriff's Department at 12:05 a. m. Saturday.

Deputies R. D. Bolton

and L. E. Harrison were sent to the scene where they found that entry to the trailer had been made by cutting a screen and removing a storm window. Stolen were one-half gallon of Early Times whiskey and one-half gallon of vodka, valued at $12.50 each, and a sixpack of Coors beer, valued at $3.50, and two dozen eggs, valued at $1.50.

Also taken were soft drinks in the amount of $10.00 and 12 gallons of gas, valued at $17.

In addition to removing the above listed items, the thieves went through the medicine cabinet, and through all dresser drawers, tampered with a dune buggy and pulled a spark plug wire off. The deputies reported that tools had been thrown all over the yard, and a water hose had been cut. They also found a dill pickle in the nearby woods and some whiskey bottles.

As a result of continued investigation by the deputies, warrants were issued to Durham Police for the arrests of Angela Beasley, 19, of Rt. 1, Box 231A, Durham; Kristian Lou Anne Poole, 18, 2307 Southern Drive, Durham; and Allen Wade Neilly, 21, of 613 Craven Street, Durham.

The address of Kristian Lou Anne Poole, 2307 Southern Drive, was the same as William E. Poole, owner of the trailer.

No arrests had been reported by Durham police to the office of the Warren County Sheriff Tuesday afternoon.

In a related incident, a house next door to Poole's trailer belonging to J. E. Caddell of Durham was broken into. Two boys, age 14 and 15, from Durham were charged with breaking and entering. Their names were not disclosed because they are juveniles.
