

BISHOP ELAM

Drewry Native To Be Speaker

Bishop Isaiah Elam of St. Louis, Mo., son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Elam of Drewry, will be the guest speaker at homecoming services Saturday at 7 p. m. at Guiding Star Holy Church in Drewry.

Bishop Elam is pastor of St. John Holy Church, St. Louis, and also vice president of Central Western District Convocation and bishop of the youth department.

On Sunday, Oct. 23, homecoming festivities will continue with the Rev. Irvin Evans of London, N. J., pastor of Morning Star Holy Church in London, bringing the message.

Col. † Slated By Trumpeter

Trumpeter Ned Gardner, visiting artist at Vance-Granville Community College, will present an informal concert of cornet music at the First Baptist Church in Henderson at 8 p. m. on Monday, Oct. 24. Assisting Gardner will be pianists Mary Lou Young and Leslie Paynter.

A native of Eden and a graduate of the North Carolina School of the Arts and Catholic University, Gardner was the first brass player to be a N. C. visiting artist. Before coming to Vance-Granville Community College, he was visiting artist at Martin and Wayne Community Colleges. He also has been a member of the U. S. Army Band (Pershing's Own) and was a visiting artist-in-residence at Western Carolina University as a member of the Piedmont Brass Quintet. He records for Crystal Records and is a clinician for the Bach trumpet division of the Selmer Company.

A native of South Carolina, Mary Lou Young is a graduate of Furman University, where she studied piano with Wendell Keeney and organ with W. Lindsey Smith. She is currently organist and associate minister of music at the First Baptist Church in Henderson.

Pianist Leslie Paynter is an Oxford native and studied locally with Laura Garlick. She graduated from the University of N. C. at Greensboro, studying piano with Robert Darnell, and currently teaches piano privately in Oxford.

Monday's performance is sponsored by the First Baptist Church and Vance-Granville Community College, and is free and open to the public.
