During Routine Session

Commissioners Handle Business

Warren County commissioners disposed of the following items of business in their meeting last Wednesday night:

At the suggestion of Warren County Community Developer Willie Griffin, the commissioners voted to hire L. Steve Whitacre of Carroll-Phelps Co. in Winston-Salem to appraise four parcels of property in the Red Hill area in connection with the Community Development Program. Whitacre, whose firm is currently involved in field surveys for the county tax supervisor's office, agreed to do each appraisal for $100. Of the eight local real estate firms contacted about the appraisal work, two responded with letters of interest. Charles J. Worth Associates, Inc. submitted an appraisal fee of $475 for each house and Charles A. Hayes, vice president of Realty World/Warrenton Insurance & Real Estate, submitted a fee of $425 for each house.

The chairperson was instructed by the commissioners to execute an agreement with the Town of Warrenton in which the town would assume maintenance of water and sewer lines to the Red Hill community. The town has already approved the agreement in which the county installs the lines and the town maintains them, leasing them from the county, assuming liability for the lines, and receiving revenue from the use of the lines.

A request by Mrs. Mary Lang Hunter, director of the Community Schools Program, for $3,751 for a Supervised Weekend Recreation Program serving an average of 450 to 550 children, was tabled until the November 1 meeting.

Permission was granted for Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Adams and Crichton Adams to enter their property over land owned by Warren County for the purpose of removing timber. The county land is adjacent to the PCB landfill.

The commissioners instructed the county manager to send a letter of appreciation to Dickie Williams of Norlina who for the past four years has voluntarily headed a recreation program in the county. Williams, who recently resigned, requested the county to become responsible for an organized sports program. The commissioners referred Williams' request to a Citizens United for Progress committee headed by Dr. L. B. Henderson, Jr., which is addressing recreational needs in the county.

The commissioners took note of a letter of appreciation to Mrs. Janice W. Haynes, tax supervisor, from a Raleigh real estate firm commending her office for its efficiency in gathering information needed on property listed in the county.

They also met in executive session after items on the agenda had been disposed of. The session was requested by Commissioner George Shearin in regard to a personnel matter.

Sunday School Training Clinic Is Planned Here

The Cullom Baptist Association will hold a Sunday School Training Clinic for all Sunday School teachers in associational churches.

The clinic will be held at Warrenton Baptist Church on Tuesday, Nov. 1, from 7-9 p. m. The clinic is being led by the Sunday School Assist Team of the association.

Special clinic will be offered for nursery and preschool workers, younger and older children's workers, youth workers, adult workers, and general officers.

During the clinic workers will be exposed to new Southern Baptist literature, will learn ways of understanding the learners they teach, and be given practical helps in preparing and leading Sunday School lessons.

Two From Warren Are Given Posts

Stella Rideout of Warrenton, a secretary at Vance-Granville Community College, and Brenda Bobbitt of Littleton, secretary at John Graham Middle School, were among new officers for District 10 of the N. C. Association of Educational Office Personnel elected recently.

Mrs. Rideout was elected president-elect and Mrs. Bobbitt was elected secretary for the 1984-85 year at the group's fall meeting in Garner.

Attending were approximately 75 members, representing each of the five counties comprising the district: Franklin, Vance, Wake and Warren. Mary Blackley of Granville County, 1983-84 president, presided over the day-long meeting.

Other officers elected were: Patricia Graham of Vance County, president; June Short of Vance County, vice president; and Atha Lee Weathers of Wake County, treasurer.

Ms. Weathers of Wake County, membership chairman, announced that District 10's membership now stands at 126.

Discussing the district-wide project to increase the Helen Dowdy Scholarship fund, Mrs. Graham, ways and means chairman, announced nearly $1,000 was received during recent fundraising efforts conducted by associations throughout the district.

The scholarship is given each year to a deserving high school senior in the district who plans to further his or her education in the area of business.

Mrs. Bobbitt, scholarship chairman, announced that applications for that scholarship, as well as for three state scholarships that are given annually, will be distributed this month to high schools in the district. Interested applicants should complete and return these forms to her by Nov. 30.

The next meeting of the district organization will be the annual bosses' banquet in February.

Some Of The Best Things About BB&T Have No Limits, Penalties Or Federal Regulations.

A handshake may seem like the simplest of pleasures these days, but at BB&T, we regard it as quite a bit more than that. We think of it as a commitment on our part. And, one without limits. It's a commitment, most importantly, to make every effort to understand your long-term financial needs, not just your immediate ones. It's this kind of overview that assures our ability to provide meaningful financial counsel over time, and to help you make the best informed decisions to reach your objectives.

We're also resolved to become your total financial planning resource. Which means we want to assist you, not only with your day-to-day banking, but with cash management, credit, trust, insurance and retirement planning. Because at BB&T, we think the only way to help you get the most from your resources is to place ours at your disposal. Come see the difference the BB&T attitude can make. Between the two of us, there's no limit to what we can accomplish.
