Lola Sue Group Has Gathering Monday

The Lola Sue Mission Action Group met at 10 a. m. Monday at the fellowship hall of the Norlina Baptist Church.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Sadie Mustian, director, with scripture from John's Gospel, Chapter 5.

Mrs. Lottie Nance became a member of this group as it was best for her to attend a day-time circle.

During the business, a report was presented on the needs of the home in Henderson. All kinds of household items are needed. The group took this as a mission action project for October.

A good report was given by Miss Bertha Bishop, the "Sick and Cheer" chairman.

Mattie Pridgen Circle Has Meet

The Mattie Pridgen Circle of the Norlina Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. M. V. Taylor, Monday, Oct. 24, with five members present.

Mrs. Jeanette Shearin, vice chairman, gave the devotions from Romans 10. Mrs. Taylor offered prayer.

The program, presented by Mrs. Shearin, assisted by Mrs. W. O. Reed, was from articles titled "Family Missions Night at Home," "Meet the Third World Woman," "Prayer Alert," and "How Your Child Learns."

Silent prayers were offered for the men over seas.

The hostess served delicious refreshments and Mrs. Kate Smiley invited the circle to her home for the November meeting.

Mrs. Nance invited the group to her home for the November meeting.

The program for the day was given by Mrs. Gracie Floyd. The topic was "My World — I Am Ministering In It."

The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. Nita Fuller for missionaries who had birthdays on Monday.

Homemakers Have Gathering

The Zion Extension Homemakers Club met Thursday, Oct. 20, at the home of Mrs. Lena Holtzmann.

Mrs. Eleanor Hayes, president, presided. The meeting was opened with the group singing "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

The hostess gave the devotions from Matthew 5. She recited a prayer, "Blessed Are The Peace Makers, For They Shall Inherit the Earth."

Mrs. Holtzmann reported that the club won a blue ribbon on its county fair booth. She also displayed the 12 ribbons the club has won since 1961. She told the theme of each booth and gave a short history of each.

Mrs. Frieda Holtzmann displayed the engraved silver tray she received at the State Council meeting on Oct. 13. She was one of the 11 "A & P Leadership Award" winners.

The hostess was in charge of the program on crafts. She showed how to make key rings and tissue box covers using plastic grits and wool. These were very attractive.

The meeting was closed with the collect.

The hostess served apple cobbler with whipped topping, potato chips and coffee.

Birth

The infant weighed 8 pounds, 8 ounces.

Mrs. Pullen is the former Miss Janet Mabe of Greensboro.

The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pullen of Norlina.

Holtzmann Given Promotion By Charlotte Unit

CHARLOTTE — William C. Holtzmann, a Warren County native, and the first navigator in the North Carolina Air National Guard, has been promoted to the rank of colonel.

Holtzmann, Director of Operations, NCANG State headquarters, joined the Air Guard in June 1962, after completing three years of active duty in the Air Force. Since entering the military, he has achieved the master navigator rating with more than 7,600 flying hours, 7,000 coming in the Air Guard.

To make these hours even more impressive, he has accomplished this while flying in a part-time status. Holtzmann also continues some duties of a navigator flight examiner.

In his civilian job, he works as the Davidson County extension chairman of the N. C. Agricultural Extension Service. To help qualify for his position, Holtzmann completed a bachelor's degree in agronomy in 1956 and a master's degree in adult education in 1971.

Holtzmann, a native of Norlina, now lives in Lexington. He has received many awards while in the Air Guard. Several of these awards include the Air Force Commendation Medal, the North Carolina Meritorious Service Medal and the Vietnam Service Medal.

He is married to the former Marie Cobb of Norlina. They have three daughters Terri, Tammie and Traci. He is the son of John D. and Lena Holtzmann of Norlina.

Youngsters Baptized

Goldie Ann Brauer, three months old, and Jonathan Gray Vaughan, seven years old, children of Lester and Debbie Brauer, were baptized Sunday morning at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Ridgeway.

Sponsors for Goldie were Bruce and Lisa Stoen of Sterling Heights, Mich.

Lester Brauer was the sponsor for Jonathan.

The Rev. Frank Koehler of Hopewell, Va. officiated.

A special hymn, "Gentle Jesus," was sung by the choir and the organist was Mrs. Lynn Stone of Ridgeway.

There was a luncheon at the home of the children's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brauer for all the family and many of their friends following the baptism.

Friends stopped by during the afternoon and evening hours.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Conner of Eaton's Ferry.

For the occasion, Goldie wore a special baptism gown made 72 years ago by her great-grandmother, Mrs. Johannah Brauer. The gown has been worn by each of Mrs. Brauer's seven children and has been mailed to many states for the use of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren at their baptisms.

Mrs. Brauer, 95, resides at Pine Haven Convalescent Center in Henderson.
