Attend District Meet

Thirteen students and two coordinators represented the Distributive Education Clubs of America Chapter (DECA) of Warren County High School recently at the District 3-B Leadership Conference which was held at Southern Nash High School.

Approximately 400 students from 15 Eastern North Carolina high schools attended this leadership conference.

The workshops which students attended included Food Marketing, Restaurant Marketing, General Merchandising, Apparel and Accessories, attitude, Drinking and Driving, Cosmetics, Shoplifting, and Modeling. Each student attended workshops of his own individual interests.

Warren Is Represented

GREENSBORO — The University of North Carolina at Greensboro has an enrollment of 9,924 this fall, including seven students from Warren County.

Warren County is among 96 counties in the state that are represented by students at UNC-G during the current academic year.

The students from Warren are Barbara M. Allen, Dorine Henderson and Vanessa R. Howerton, all of Manson; Jacqueline D. Hargrove, Robin A. Scott, and Allen R. Walker, all of Norlina; and Eleanor G. Rodwell of Warrenton.

At Norlina School

Team Is Honored

Members of the Norlina Blue Waves football team and coaches were treated to a steak supper on Monday night by concerned parents and patrons. This was in celebration of the Blue Waves' victorious season. Each player was presented with miniature helmets bearing their number.

A cake baked by Betsy Clark was decorated to depict the ball field with goal lines and miniature players, again these bore each player's number. The cake complemented the supper.

Monday afternoon Norlina Blue Wave cheerleaders and sponsors were entertained with a refreshment hour by Mrs. Rosamond West. The girls want to publicly thank Mrs. West for her support of our school and its programs and for the delightful refreshments.

On Friday those students who participated in our magazine sales and sold three or more subscriptions were allowed to view the movie "Snowbound." This is an excellent movie and the students seemed to enjoy it. To those students who participated in the fund raising, we say, "thank you, well done."

A foul shooting contest with a $10.00 grand prize was held on Friday for students selling three or more subscriptions, in the fund raising event. Anthony Hawkins, seventh grader, was the winner. He scored eight of ten shots. Congratulations, Anthony!

The money made from the magazine fundraiser will go to purchase dictionaries and other articles for the school. We appreciate the public's help in this effort.

We are happy to report that Sylvia Hunt, eighth grader who was injured while riding her bicycle in September, is improving at Lennox Baker Hospital in Durham. Sylvia spends each weekend at home. We all wish her a speedy and complete recovery.

Grid Season Ends

By GAREY BALLANCE
Last Wednesday the Yellow Jackets football team was defeated by Gold Sand, 38-0. This loss ends a very disappointing season for John Graham. The Jackets were 1-6, getting their only win in a non-conference game against Norlina. Anyway, we'd like to thank Coach Reynolds and Coach Goolsby for their fine efforts.

Basketball practice for students began Monday. Girls coach Allen Reynolds and boys coach James Goolsby have begun to build teams. Hopefully the '83-'84 season will be a successful one.

Next Tuesday and Thursday some of our seventh grade students will be taking the Pre-SAT test. We wish them good luck.

Friday, Nov. 11, is Veterans Day. There will be no school for students or teachers.
