Cynthia Lynn Rieke and Robert deFoe Scott, Jr. were married on Friday, December 30, at Belmont United Methodist Church in Nashville, Tenn.

The Rev. Dr. Joe E. Pennel, Jr., senior minister, performed the ceremony.

The bride, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas C. Rieke of Nashville, is the granddaughter of Mrs. Myrna C. Rieke and the late Maurice H. Rieke of Minneapolis, Minn. and of Mrs. Catherine M. Kallestad and the late Dr. Linus O. Kallestad of Minneapolis.

She attended Bethel College in St. Paul, Minn. and is a graduate of Emory University School of Business Administration in Atlanta, Ga.

Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Scott of Richmond, Va. and the grandson of Mrs. Estelle W. Scott and the late Robert D. Scott of Warrenton. He is also the grandson of Mrs. Ethel P. Waltrip and the late Gurley L. Waltrip of Williamsburg, Va.

He is a graduate of the University of Tennessee School of Architecture at Knoxville.

Mrs. Elizabeth Holst of Minneapolis, cousin of the bride, was the matron of honor and Mr. Scott was his son's best man.

Bridal attendants were Miss Ann Scott of Richmond, sister of the groom; Mrs. Kristen Runge of Dickinson, North Dakota; and Ms. Shari Mason of Columbus, Ohio.

Groomsmen were Philip Rieke of Nashville, brother of the bride; Linwood Waltrip of Richmond, cousin of the groom; Sam Tate of Knoxville, Tenn., and Marion Adamson of Nashville.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents.

She wore a gown of white taffeta and Alencon lace with a yoke of English net and lace. The gown was designed with a bodice of lace and seed pearls, a dropped waistline, and taffeta bishop sleeves with wide cuffs of Alencon lace. The full taffeta shirt featured a scalloped hemline with each scallop caught with an applique of lace and dainty English net rosettes. The skirt fell into a full length chapel train.

The bride's waist-length veil carried scallops and rosettes identical to those on the gown.

A program of wedding music was provided by Albin Whitworth of Wilmore, Ky., organist and uncle of the bride; Mrs. Jane Winberg of Big Lake, Minn., pianist and aunt of the bride; Keith Winberg of Big Lake, trumpeter and cousin of the bride; Miss Catherine Johnson of Philadelphia, Pa., flutist and cousin of the bride; and Mrs. Sandra Johnson of Philadelphia, Pa., vocalist and aunt of the bride.

Reception

A reception was given at the church by the Jesse Rustin Sunday School class. Mrs. Jack Rogers, Mrs. James Barrick, and Mrs. Pratt Burroughs served as hostesses.

Following their wedding trip to Warm Springs, Va., the couple will reside in Richmond.

After-Rehearsal Dinner

An after-rehearsal dinner at Miss Daisy's Restaurant in Nashville was hosted by the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, at 7:30 p.m. on December 29. Guests included the wedding party and immediate family members and out-of-town relatives and guests.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Groves.

During the fellowship period, Mrs. White served pineapple cake, spiced tea and cheese wafers to the eight members present.

We have made it through another week in spite of the ice and the cold weather. It has kept us all inside and several of the residents have the sniffles, but most of us have tolerated it well.

Tempers get a little bit on edge when everyone has to stay inside all the time, but playing some games and putting the record player out in the hall and having a dance helped to make everyone feel better. Our residents really do enjoy music of any kind. It makes everyone feel better when we play records for them.

A group from South Henderson Church of God brought a guitar player and singers with them Sunday when they came to hold our church service and everyone enjoyed them so much. We are very thankful for this group. They have been coming each Sunday afternoon for almost two years and the residents really do look forward to their visit each week.

Several of our residents have had visitors this week. They are: Ernest Pauley, Grant Scarborough, Edgar Bullock, Dora Collier, Mina Reid, Pearl Bobbitt, Norman Reed, Mollie Dye, Louise Kearney, Joe and Maude Radford, Tillman Mathes, Burnice Roberson, James Brodie, Joseph Ayscue, Francis Green, Otis Shearin and Walter Rich.

I wish it were possible for all of our residents to have visitors on a regular basis, but some of them do not have families or have families that simply can't be bothered. We now have a lot of young people living with us and these people, especially, need some family contact. It's sad enough that they would need to be in a rest home, but even sadder when they are put here and their families don't even come to visit. Some of them don't even get mail from home.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Edmonds of Zebulon announce the birth of a baby girl, Amy Nicole, on Jan. 4 in Rex Hospital in Raleigh.

The infant weighed 6 pounds, 13 ounces.

The maternal grandmother is Mrs. Gracie Tuck and the paternal grandmother is Mrs. Olive Edmonds.

Mrs. Edmonds is the former Patricia Munn of Warrenton.

The Edmonds have another daughter, Sharon Lynn, who is three years old.

We have a new supervisor on our administrative staff, Mrs. Ruby Clary, who will now be handling the medicine and all of the contact with local medical personnel. Ruby has been with us for more than three years and we are glad to welcome her to the administrative staff. Mrs. Hortense Long took over as assistant manager when Mrs. Callie Terry left to go to Chocowinity to manage another home for our company, so we have a complete new staff of administrative personnel. These ladies are both very capable and can handle any situation when I am not here. Till next week, God bless.

Principal: "Why did you mark this student's paper 101 percent?"
Teacher: "He answered one question we didn't ask."
