Arts Festivals Aired At Women's Meeting

By LILLIAN KILIAN
The Norlina Woman's Club met March 7 at 8 p. m. at the clubhouse with Mrs. Margaret Brame and Mrs. Alice Stultz as hostesses.

Mrs. Lillian Kilian, president, presided and welcomed two guests, Mrs. W. S. Hicks, Jr. and E. L. Perry, mayor of Norlina.

The devotion was led by Mrs. Mildred Grissom, who paraphrased the sixth part of the Woman's Club Collect, "Teach us to put into action our better impulses." Mrs. Margaret Anne Brame led the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

Mrs. Brame then reported that at the Arts Festival which had been held in Oxford, Feb. 25, she had received a red ribbon in the Crafts Division for her covered cheese box, and that Mrs. Lillian Kilian had received a red ribbon for a sonnet entitled, "Mary Speaks."

The president noted that the North Carolina States Arts Festival will be held in Winston-Salem on March 24, and that the North Carolina State Meeting will be held in Raleigh, April 30-May 3 at which time Mrs. Betty Weathers of the Youngsville Woman's Club, District 14, will be installed as state president. Members were urged to attend.

Mrs. Ree Robertson, chairperson of the Conservation Department - Beautification Division, presented Mayor Perry who commented on a project in his administration to improve the appearance of Norlina. He then pointed out several areas which could be greatly enhanced by landscaping and planting of shrubs and flowers, particularly the section from which the old Seaboard Airline Roadroad Airline Railroad station is now being removed.

He also stated that he hoped civic clubs and various businesses, as well as individuals, will also become interested and will volunteer their resources and time to this project.

The members and guests then enjoyed a fellowship hour as the hostesses served refreshments.

The next monthly meeting will be April 3. The program will be given by the Home Life Department and the hostesses will be Mrs. Mae Shearin and Mrs. Mamie Weaver.
