

Assessment Referendum Test Comes On April 25

By CHET MAXEY
Assistant Agricultural Extension Agent
The North Carolina Cattlemen, Pork, and Egg Associations are holding an assessment referendum on Wednesday, April 25.
The question to be Conservation
Tour Is Held
By Local Body

voted on is: Do cattlemen wish an assessment of 30 cents per head on all cattle sold during the next six years?
Do pork producers favor an assessment of 10 cents per head on feeder pigs, and 20 cents per head on market hogs sold for slaughter?
Do poultry farmers favor an assessment of four cents per case on eggs produced, packaged or processed in the State of North Carolina?
Each of the associations is producer financed and operated. The objectives of the associations are to promote their product and industry. These associations provide educational material, marketing opportunities and guard against unfavorable legislation.

Anyone who sells or receives income from one of these commodities will be eligible to vote on that particular commodity. Please vote.
Polling places are: Spragins' Grocery, Vaughan; Agricultural Extension Office, Warrenton; Joe Riggan's Store, Wise; Traylor's Hardware, Norlina; Buchanan's Store, Drewry; Pernell's Grocery, Afton; Country Store, Inez; and Davis Store, Arcola.

Home Of Mrs. Rowlett Scene Of Gathering By Les Gemmes

The Warrenton Chapter of Les Gemmes, Inc. held its April meeting at the home of Mrs. Barbara Rowlett, president. Highlighting the meeting were making plans for the Tea and Fashion Party which will take place on Sunday, May 20 at Warren County High School. It will feature a parade of spring fashions and a sampling of delicacies from countries around the world.
Other items discussed during the business session included reports from the membership and scrapbook committees. The scrapbook was displayed at the Conclave which was held in Alexandria, Va. April 13-15. The club flower, the yellow tea rose was embroidered for the cover by Mrs. Lillian Davis of the Liberia community.

Mrs. Mary H. Powell, a member, submitted photographs of club activities as well as news articles collected from The Warren Record concerning the chapter for the scrapbook.
Attending the Conclave from the chapter were Mrs. Barbara Rowlett, Mrs. Doris Davis, Mrs. Connie Kenney, Mrs. Christine Arrington, Mrs. Mildred Townes and Miss Magnolia Williams.
Following the meeting, Mrs. Rowlett served a delicious spread of ham biscuits, cheese twists, rum balls, cake and punch. The cake and punch were in the same colors as the club colors.
Members present were Mrs. Ruby D. Amos, Mrs. Christine N. Arrington, Mrs. Doris D. Daniels, Mrs. Connie Kenney, Mrs. Carolyn

Alston, Mrs. Shelia Johnson, Miss Ruth H. Wilson, Mrs. Mildred Townes, Mrs. Wanda G. Hunt and Miss Magnolia Williams.

Local Ladies

Attend Session

Ada Waller, Mabel Williams and Annie Mae Alston were delegates to the North Carolina Retired School Personnel Convention held at the Holiday Inn-Four Seasons in Greensboro April 11-12.

Phebe H. Emmons, state president, presided over all meetings. Francis Cummings, NCAE president, brought greetings from NCAE. The annual banquet was the high light of the convention.

Suzanne L. Newton, poet-author was the principal speaker. Musical selections were rendered by the Bennett College Choir.

John Denning, National Vice president of AARP spoke at a joint breakfast of NCR-SP-AARP.

Emily Alston, Viola Alston, Lucy Branch, Christine Davis, Irene Hinton and Ada Johnson of the Warren County Unit attended the delegate Assembly and Memorial Service, Thursday, April 12.

Warren Residents Attend Institute

Emma Baskett, food service supervisor at Warren General Hospital, and Jean Williams of Norlina, a food service supervisor at Maria Parham Hospital in Henderson, attended the North Carolina Health Care Food Service Institute in Raleigh, April 3-5.

The institute is an annual meeting which brings together hospital and nursing home dietary supervisory personnel from across the state. They attend workshops on various phases of health care food services and receive updates on developments in the health care field which affect their institutions.

Among the topics covered in this institute were the new Medicare payment procedures based on diagnosis related groups, a workshop on improving communication skills for managers, and one on the increased use of computers in health care institutions. These workshops were presented in addition to ones dealing specifically with diets, nutrition and food service topics.

In conjunction with the institute, there was a state business meeting held April 4 of the Hospital, Institution, and Educational Food Service Society. Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Baskett, and Mrs. Bessie Shearin of Norlina, another food service supervisor at Maria Parham, attended this meeting. All three Warren County residents are members of this society.

Zion Homemakers Club Has Meeting

By FRIEDA HOLTZMANN

The Zion Extension Homemaker's club held its April meeting on Thursday at the home of Eva Holtzmann.
The meeting was called to order by the president, Eleanor Hayes. The group sang "Come, Thou Almighty King." The hostess used the Easter scripture for devotion. She also used an interesting article called "What We Should Promise Ourselves."

National Homemaker's Week was discussed.

Miss Margaret Woods, assistant home economics agent, gave the program on "How To Manage Your Decorating Dollar." She stressed that we should stay within our budget when we decorate our home. She showed slides on low cost decorating. The slides illustrated many attractive and economical ways to decorate to make a comfortable home for our families.

Miss Woods also showed different crafts that can be made at a home economics workshop that we can take advantage of later.

The meeting was closed with the collect.

The hostess served chicken salad, decorated Easter cake and Coke.

Mrs. Hood Is Speaker

By CALANDRA JONES

And DANIEL COLBERT

Mrs. Emily Hood spoke to the Hecks Grove 4-H Club at their meeting concerning home improvements and ways to keep your home clean and fresh.

Fund-raising was also a topic of discussion at the meeting. It was decided that we would pay dues each month as a fund-raising project. Dues were set at 25 cents per member.

Officers for the coming year will be: Ivory Foster, president; Sidney Perry, vice president; Yolanda Alston, secretary-treasurer; Calendra Jones and Daniel Colbert, reporters.

The leaders will be Mrs. Sandra Alston, Mrs. Anne B. Henderson, Mrs. Mary L. Davis, Mrs. Hilda Baskerville, Mrs. Shirley

Foster, Mrs. Ernestine Jones and Mrs. Emily Hood.

Sidney Perry, vice president, presided over the meeting and minutes were read by the secretary and the roll was called.

Nine new members joined. They are: Cassandra Hayes, Annice Hood, Katina Davis, Catherine Johnson, Rodrick Davis, Herman Johnson, Keith Fitts, John F. Williams, and Marvin Harrison.

The next scheduled meeting will be May 14 at 7:30.

Cool Spring

Club Gathers

By REBBIE PERRY

The recent monthly meeting of the Cool Spring 4-H Club was called to order by Mark Royster.

The pledge of allegiance followed and then a song was sung by Shornika Royster.

Roll was called by Jerome Sessoms and the minutes were read.

The treasurer's report was given by Charnika Anderson.

The group decided to host a Parent Day and selected a menu to be served.

The club members saw two films on school bus safety and bicycle safety before adjourning.

Refreshments were then served.
