Miss Coleman is also president of the Psychology Honor Society.

She is a sophomore at the Raleigh college.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Short and Anna of Hertford proudly announce the birth of Adam Tucker Short, on April 11 at Albemarle Hospital in Elizabeth City.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Short of Norlina. Maternal grandparents are Lou T. Tucker and Harry R. Tucker, both of Swansboro.

MRS. CHARLES H. MORRIS

Morris-Newsome Vows Are Spoken

Miss Shelia Sue Newsome and Charles H. Morris of Virginia Beach, Va. were united in marriage April 7 at 3 p. m. in Norlina United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hundley of Norlina. A graduate of Norlina High School and Hardbarger Business College, she is currently employed at Old Dominion University. She is also a real estate sales person.

The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clare Morris of Pennsylvania. A graduate of Temple University in Philadelphia, Pa., and Ursinus College in Pennsylvania, he is currently employed at Batchelder and Collins, Inc. of Norfolk, Va.

The Rev. Jimmy Williams and the Rev. Wayne Newsome, brother of the bride officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The altar was graced with brass candelabra and floral arrangements of white gladioli, mums, daisies, and yellow lilies. Oregon fern was used throughout the decorations and pews were decorated with bouquets of spring flowers.

Mrs. Wayne Newsome of Williamston and Miss Jessica Dillard of Chattanooga, Tenn. presented a program of wedding music before the ceremony. During the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Newsome sang a duet.

Presented in marriage by her parents and escorted by her stepfather, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin with sheer organza flowing over the satin skirt. Peau de ange lace appliques adorned the skirt and bodice of the gown. The fitted bodice was adorned with seed pearls. A pleated insert bordered the hem of venetian lace on the cathedral train. The sleeves had matching venetian lace motifs under sheer organza and button cuffs etched with seed pearls.

The bride's cathedral-length veil was edged with tiny seed pearls and was attached to a tiara beaded with pearls flowerettes.

Miss Alex Romero of Virginia Beach, Va. was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Glenwood Newsome of Roxboro, Miss Valerie Gaither of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Charles Atkins of Littleton, and Mrs. Joy Perkins of California.

Jerry McDermott was best man. Ushers were W. Eugene Hundley and Walter J. Hundley of Norlina, Glenwood Newsome, brother of the bride, of Roxboro and Bill Gaither of Littleton.

Master Jonathan Newsome and Master Glen Newsome, nephews of the bride, were ring bearers. Miss Jennifer Newsome dropped flower petals before the bride.

Mrs. Walter Hundley was mistress of ceremonies.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Virginia Beach, Va.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Miss Loren Hundley presided at the guest register. The bride's portrait was displayed at the register. Mrs. Floyd Dillard presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Horace Newsome and Mrs. Carey Dillard cut the cake.

Rehearsal Dinner

On the eve of the wedding, Miss Newsome and Mr. Morris were guests of honor at a dinner at the Holiday Inn in Henderson. Members of the wedding party and their guests and relatives were among the 40 guests.

Bridal Shower

On March 18, the bride-elect was honored at a shower at Norlina Woman's Clubhouse. Hostesses were Mrs. Cary Dillard of Inez, Mrs. Elsie Gaither, Mrs. Doris Dillard and Mrs. Loyd Newsome of Littleton, Miss Donna Dillard of Inez, and Miss Valerie Gaither of Chapel Hill.

Among the decorations for the event was a bridal doll, made and designed by Mrs. Lillian Kilian, which graced the refreshment table.

Luncheon

Miss Newsome was entertained March 23 at the Oar House Restaurant by her co-workers.

Lingerie Shower

The bride-elect was entertained on March 24 with a lingerie shower at Virginia Beach, Va. Miss Alex Romero hosted the affair. Eight guests attended, including Mrs. Jim Hundley of Norlina, mother of the bride.

L&M Club Gathers

Eleven members of the Norlina Literature and Music Club met on April 12 at the home of Mrs. Viola Taylor, hostess. Mrs. Alma Mayfield and Mrs. Lillian Kilian were co-hostesses and Mrs. Minnie Foster, formerly of Norlina, was the special guest.

Mrs. Mayfield opened the meeting with a devotional after which the following officers were elected: Mrs. Alma Mayfield, president; Mrs. Anne Reed, vice president; and Mrs. Mae Shearin, secretary-treasurer.

Two books, "Outer Banks" by Charles Harry Whedbee and "A Time for Poetry," an anthology of the N. C. Poetry Society, were approved to be presented to the Norlina Public Library in memory of Mrs. Mabel Dempt and Mrs. Lela Delbridge, respectively.

Mrs. Bessie Hicks presented an enjoyable literature program. She reviewed the life of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, who exemplified 19th-century poetry, after which Mrs. Lillian Kilian read "The Children's Hour," by Longfellow.

Mrs. Hicks selected Helen Steiner Rice as an example of a 20th century poet, telling of her life and reading a number of her poems from her "Thoughts to Live By."

Mrs. Viola Taylor read "The Golden Years of Our Life;" Mrs. Loyce Blaylock read "Climb 'Til Your Dreams Come True;" Mrs. Nita Fuller read "Blessings Come in Many Guises;" Mrs. Alma Mayfield read "It's a Wonderful World;" and Mrs. Bessie Hicks read "There's Sunshine in a Smile."

Mrs. Hicks ended the program with a brief summarization of Helen Steiner Rice's philosophy of life.

Refreshments were served by the three hostesses and Mrs. Mayfield announced that the next meeting would be May 10 at the Rafters at 11:30 a. m.

Lola Sue Action

Group Has Meeting

The Lola Sue Mission Action Group of Norlina Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Sadie Mustian Monday morning, April 16, for its monthly meeting.

Mrs. Mustian, director, opened the meeting by giving a devotional message followed by prayer led by Mrs. Gracie Floyd.

The first matter of business was to welcome Mrs. Floyd, who spent the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla., back to the group. Mrs. Jeanette Shearin, a new member, was also welcomed.

Twelve members were in attendance, with only two members absent.

During the business session, the sick and cheer report was given by Mrs. Bertha Bishop. Thanks were expressed by those who had been remembered with cards and notes from members.

Plans were made to remember two church families that are shut in or ill at Easter.

Mrs. Lottie Nance invited the group to meet in her home for the May meeting.

Mrs. Fuller presented the program on "Ministering in My World—Annie Armstrong's Church." At the close of the program, the missionary prayer calendar was read and missionaries with birthdays this month were remembered in prayer by Mrs. Collier.

During the social hour, Mrs. Mustian served refreshments to those present and an hour of fellowship was enjoyed by all.
