—Approved five-mile response districts for Warren County volunteer fire departments. The county Fire Commission sought the approval of the response districts, which will in some cases mean lower homeowners' insurance rates for residents.

—Appointed the following members to the Kerr-Tar Regional Council of Governments Nursing Home Community Advisory Committee: Howard F. Jones, Charles Somerville, Walter J. Harris, Francis Alston and Mrs. Johnnie Johnson.

—Heard a request from Cathy Wilson with the Haliwa-Saponi Indian Tribe for a deputy sheriff to cover the Hollister area. Miss Wilson was asked by the board to put her request in writing to Sheriff Theo Williams for inclusion in his 1984-85 budget request. Miss Wilson also requested consideration in the 1984-85 budget of a contribution toward the construction of the tribe's proposed library in Hollister.

—Approved a resolution of intent to participate in the Kerr Area Rural Transit System for 1984-85 in the amount of $3,778. Kathy Childress, program director, told commissioners that the program was ahead of schedule with 34 agencies already participating in the four-county area of Person, Granville, Vance and Warren. Program officials had anticipated participation by 28 agencies at this point, she said. KARTS provides transportation in Warren County for clients of several government agencies, including the Social Services Department, Health Department, and Area Mental Health program.

—Approved the forwarding to N. C. Department of Transportation requests for road paving from residents of Satterwhite Road (SR 1100) and John Edwards Road (SR 1123).

—Appropriated $1,000 to assist in the start-up of Little League Baseball and T-Ball in the county. Roy Pat Robertson, a volunteer with the program, requested the funds in order to offer Dickie Williams, who in the past has directed the program free of charge, a salary of $1,000 for his time and expenses. Around 165 boys and girls participated in the program last year, Robertson reported.

—Voted to grant $1,323 to help with the cost of a 4-H Day Camp in Warrenton July 2-13 at Hawkins Elementary School contingent on its adoption in the 1984-85 budget. The action was requested by Betsy Frazier, vice-chairman of the Warren County Task Force on Delinquency Prevention.

Youth Turned Over To Mom

Tony Rollison, 17-year-old teenager of Norlina was arrested on Wednesday of last week by Chief Deputy Bobby Dean Bolton and charged with miscellaneous larceny. He was released into the custody of his mother, while waiting a hearing in Warren County District Court this morning (Wednesday).

Rollison is charged with larceny of a little more than $100 worth of goods during business hours from Community Motor Service of Norlina on Tuesday, April 10. He is charged with the theft of a radio equalizer, valued at $75, and one-half drive socket set, valued at $35.

Economy Light

Fluorescent lights are more economical than incandescent ones because much more of the energy goes to lighting rather than being lost as heat.

Auto Chase Covers Two Counties

By KAMMIE MICHAEL
In The Durham Morning Herald

HENDERSON — Police officers chased a car driver they believed was armed and holding a hostage for more than 35 miles early Tuesday morning before stopping him at a roadblock in Warren County. The woman in the car, whose name was not released, was not hurt, said Officer S. M. Parnell of the Henderson Police Department.

Parnell said the incident apparently stemmed from a domestic argument. The man was not charged with kidnapping.

No one was injured during the chase.

Parnell said officers were told to watch for a 1982 brown Mazda, which had been reported stolen Monday night.

They also were told that the driver of the car may have forced a woman into the car with him after an argument, Parnell said. "We didn't know if she had gotten into the car of her own free will or if she had been forced."

"I saw the car on East Andrews Avenue about 12:15 a. m.," Parnell said. "I was going east and he was going west. I turned around and got behind him. When I tried to stop him, he took off."

Parnell chased the car into Vance County, then north into Warren County through the towns of Manson and Norlina.

"We were on 15 or 20 different rural roads during the chase," Parnell said. "The top speed I registered during the chase was 85 miles per hour."

"The driver was trying to wreck patrol cars," he said. "He'd go into the left lane beside the patrol car, get in front of us and then slam on his brakes."

Officers set up a roadblock in Warren County, but the car went around it.

The car slowed down in Warren County. "On the back roads, he was lost," Parnell said. "He was driving around in circles."

"He was going real slow, but due to her (the passenger) being in the car we couldn't take the car off the road. We just tried to trail along behind him," he said.

After an hour-long chase, officers finally stopped the car at a roadblock on U. S. 1, one mile north of Soul City in Warren County.

"He couldn't have gone much further. His gas gauge was on empty when we stopped him," Parnell said.

Officers arrested Gary Bernard Williams, 24, of Rt. 8, Henderson and charged him with driving with his license permanently revoked, speeding 85 mph in a 55 mph zone, driving left of center, failure to stop for blue lights and siren, driving at least 15 mph above the speed limit to elude arrest, resisting arrest, running a stop sign and unlawful use of a conveyance. Williams also was arrested on an old warrant and charged with strong arm robbery.

He was placed in the Vance County jail in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Officers from the Henderson Police Department, Vance County and Warren County Sheriff's departments, Norlina Police Department and the State Highway Patrol participated in the chase.
