

Coach Charlie Christian, basketball coach at Norfolk State University for the past eight years, was the main speaker last Wednesday night at the third annual athletic banquet held at Warren County High School. Shown with Coach Christian are three local educators who had roles on the program. From left to right are John Hudgins, assistant WCHS principal who introduced the speaker; Christian; WCHS Principal James T. Wilkerson; and Warren School Supt. Mike Williams. (Staff Photos)

Varsity football awards handed out last Wednesday night at the Eagles banquet were, from left to right, kneeling, Andrew Bishop, team before self award; Kenneth Yancey, award for selection to play in East-West football game this summer; and Montellus Williams, best defensive player. Standing are Franklin Hargrove, winner of the head-hunter award; Derrick Davenport, best offensive player; Davis Capps, winner of the special award; Michael Tuck, most valuable player; Chris Williams, most improved player; and Joel Valentine, best blocker. Not pictured is Coach Bill Frazier, who was given a plaque in recognition of his selection as a coach in the East-West football game.

Receiving awards for jayvee football Wednesday night were Donnell Kearney, left, best defensive player and Alan Ellington, best offensive player. Not shown is Steve Williams, most valuable player.

Jayvee basketball players receiving top honors at the WCHS sports banquet last week were Stanley Jefferson, left, best offensive player, and Bobby Kearney, best defensive player. Not shown is Mark Taylor, most valuable player.

A Wish At Graduation

Congratulations to you all graduating from Warren County High; I know it'll be sad when you have to say goodbye, There is a bright life waiting out there for you. So set your goals high and make your dreams come true. You've finally made it through all these years, With your share of doubts and your share of fears. When you're walking down the aisle feel happy and proud; Because you're getting recognized by that huge crowd. Receiving congratulation cards from near and far You've reached your goal, you're a winning star. So start now, reach for the sky My wishes for the class of Warren County High.

By Regina Cooke

Baseball award winners were Davis Capps, left, most valuable player; Franklin Hargrove, center, winner of the big stick award; and Troy Neal, golden glove award winner.

Baseball Activity To Start

T-Ball and Junior Baseball leagues will begin play Saturday, June 2, at the National Guard Armory field in Warrenton.

T-Ball league for ages 6-8, will have five teams this season and will play its games at Norlina Athletic Field on Friday nights.

Junior baseball league, for ages 9-12, will have six teams this season and will play its games at the Armory field.

The schedule for this Saturday, June 2, is: 9 a. m. — Warrenton Railroad vs. Henderson Insulation (Jr. Baseball);

11 a. m.—High Dollar vs. Lions (T-Ball);

Noon — Citizens Insurance vs. Peoples Bank (T-Ball);

1 p. m. — Jr. Woman's Club vs. High Dollar (T-Ball);

2 p. m. — Tar Heel Tire vs. BB&T (Jr. Baseball);

4 p. m. —Jayvees vs. Capps Pulpwood (Jr. Baseball).

On Monday, June 4 the schedule calls for Jaycees vs. BB&T; on Tuesday, June 5, it's Henderson Insulation vs. Tar Heel Tire; and on Wed., June 6, Warrenton Railroad will play Capps Pulpwood.

The Public Record

Deed Transfers

Joseph E. Stansbury, Jr. and wife to Fred G. Majors, certain lots, Judkins Township.

Sallie P. Alston to Clinton G. Alston, certain lot, Warren County.

Kevin C. Dailey and wife to Eva M. Dailey, certain lots, Warren County.

Aliene Roberson Short to Johnnie Robert Allen Short, 2 acres, Sandy Creek Township.

Mildred M. Steed to Emanuel Kearney and others, trustees of Coley Springs Baptist Church, 1.585 acres, Shocco Township.

William B. Strickland and wife to Haywood H. Harrell and wife, certain lot, River Township.

Jeffreys' Rentals Company to James D. Barr and wife, certain lot, River Township.

Emma Person and others to Mamie Lee Solomon, 4 acres, Warren County.

Mary J. Williams and others to Ronald E. Stainback and others, certain lots, Warrenton Township.

Warrenton Insurance Agency, Inc. to Michael J. Theiler and wife, .548 acre, Warrenton Township.

W. B. Rodwell and wife to Fleming Bobbitt Rodwell and wife, .50 acre, River Township.

Lucy T. King to Clyde Ray King, 3.77 acres, Warren County.

Kenneth D. Schler, Jr. and wife to William R. Dollar and wife, certain lot, Roanoke Township.

Stephn W. Parrish and wife to James O. Lewis, Jr. and wife, certain lot, Roanoke Township.

Marriage License

David Shepard Small of Norlina to Mary Jane Williams of Norlina.

Winners of the prestigious Robert Price athlete of the year awards to the top male and female players were, Davis Capps, left, and Shirley Debnam. Making the presentations were Joe Greene, center, now a N. C. State football player who was the first recipient of the award at the end of the 1981-82 sports season at Warren County High School.

Receiving recognition for their contribution to the 1983-84 boys varsity basketball team which went undefeated in regular season play were, left to right, Coach James Howell, recipient of the coach of the year award in the Roanoke River Conference; Monte Stevenson, best all around player; Kenneth Shaw, best offensive player; and Jeffrey Hayes, best defensive player.

Top girls basketball players given recognition Wednesday night of last week were, Brenda Turner, left, most dedicated player; Gloria Kearney, center, most valuable player; and Fatima Crawford, right, most improved player.

Taking top awards for softball play during the past season were these three members of Coach McCoin Brown's Club. They are, Nicole Tunstall, left, most valuable player; Shirley Debnam, center, best defensive player; and Lola Rowlett, winner of the big stick award.

Top track athlete winning recognition last Wednesday night at the Warren County High School athletic awards program was Andrew Bishop, named most valuable member of the track team. He is flanked by Athletic Director Bob Ross, left, who was master of ceremonies for the event; and James Howell, coach of the track team.