MRS. CHARLES PERRY ELLINGTON, III

Miss Curtis Marries Charles Ellington, III

Miss Wendy Anne Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Churchwell Brown Curtis, Jr. of Manson and Charles Perry Ellington, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry Ellington, Jr., also of Manson were united in marriage Saturday in a double-ring ceremony at Mount Auburn United Church of Christ in Manson.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Washington Tucker of Palmer Springs, Va. and Mrs. Churchwell Brown Curtis of Manson. The groom is the grandson of Mrs. Richard Duke Buchan of Henderson and Charles Perry Ellington of Manson.

The Rev. Lowell Smoot, pastor of the church, officiated.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Charles Gaston Currin of Chapel Hill, organist, and Martha Faith McLellan of Winston-Salem, soloist.

Mrs. Aubrey Newton Blanks, aunt of the groom, of Raleigh and Mrs. Joseph Duke Mabry, Jr., of Henderson served as directors. Mrs. Palmer Wood King, Jr., of Norlina presided at the guest register.

The bride, escorted by her father, was given in marriage by her parents. She wore a formal gown of silk organza in ivory enhanced with Alencon and Venice lace. The sheer yoke was English net with a motif of matching lace below the neckline and covering the bodice in front and back. The Watteau train of English net flowed into a chapel-length train. The shoulder-length veil had a Juliet cap covered with Brussels lace with a design of matching lace below the cap. Wide borders of Brussels lace bordered the hem.

Miss Edith Rose Curtis of Raleigh was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Glenn Coleman, III, sister of the bride, of Inez, Mrs. Clifton Randall Curtis, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Allison Stuart White of Chapel Hill.

Miss Mary Randall Curtis, niece of the bride, was the flower girl.

The groom's father served as best man. Groomsman were Richard Mark Ellington of Chapel Hill and Alan Nicholas Ellington, brothers of the groom, Clifton Randall Curtis, brother of the bride, Marshall Alton Fleming of Chapel Hill and Scott Reavis Phillips of Winston-Salem.

Master Trenton Grissom, cousin of the groom, was the ring bearer.

The bride graduated from Norlina High School, Peace College and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is employed with Arista Information Systems, Inc. in Winston-Salem.

The groom graduated from Norlina High School and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is currently attending Bowman Gray School of Medicine at Wake Forest University.

After a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple will reside in Winston-Salem.

Reception

A reception was hosted by the bride's parents at their home.

Mrs. Bobby Link Melton, aunt of the bride, poured punch. After the cutting of the traditional first slice, Mrs. Richard Duke Buchan, Jr., aunt of the groom, served the wedding cake.

Upon the departure of the couple, guests were presented rice from a basket designed by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Churchwell Brown Curtis.

By SADIE YANCEY
Norlina High School graduates of the Class of 1933 met in the home of Mrs. Martha Huff, May 25 at 6 p. m. for reunion marking the 51st anniversary of their graduation.

The class was served a delicious buffet meal. The table was lovely with a handsome white linen cutwork tablecloth with a centerpiece of roses grown by the husband of one of the class members.

program closed with all praying in unison.

Mrs. Parham served cold drinks, cake and other party dainties to the 10 members and one visitor.

The group will meet with Mrs. Mae Shearin on June 25.

Before the meal, a member of the class who now lives in Georgia called and talked with each member present.

Many were absent due to illness or other conflicts.

After the meal, bingo was enjoyed with Mrs. Edith Rooker winning the prize for the most games won and Jake Tanner the runner-up.

The group enjoyed a pleasant social hour and plans to meet again next year at the same place and time barring obstacles.
