High school graduates from Warren County High School to be honored are: Lisa Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Robinson; Robin Soper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Pinnell and Sherry Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wilson.

Two graduates from Atlantic Christian College, Pam Currie and George Currie of Norlina, will also be honored. The Curries are the children of the Rev. and Mrs. Tom Currie of Norlina.

The graduates will receive books on Christian living as a token of the church's appreciation for their accomplishments in education, according to the Rev. Dr. Gary E. Parker, pastor of the church.

Over 6 Inches Of Rain Falls

More than six inches of rain fell in Warren County during the last week in May capping off a total rainfall for the month of 9.23 inches, according to Clarence R. Skillman, cooperative observer with the U. S. Weather Service at Arcola.

Almost 4 inches of that rainfall occurred on May 30 and nine days during the month saw rainfall of .01 inch or above.

Temperatures for the month were above normal for this time of the year, Skillman reported, with a high of 88 on May 21. Temperatures soared to 80 degrees or above on 12 days.

Models were Michelle Alston, Tony Davis, Heather and Jasmine Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Paylor, Erica Silver, Derrick Townes, Angela Townes, Beverly Tunstall, Anna Williams, Wilhemina Kearney, Gayle Newsome, and Andrea Noel Richardson.

A drawing for the door prize, a $25 gift certificate with an area merchant, was made by little Jamie Wilkerson and the winner was Angenette Green.
