WIC Program Features Outlined For Readers

WIC is a supplemental food program for Women, Infants and Children sponsored by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and administered locally by the Warren County Health Department.

Participants in this program must be income-eligible and must be certified by one of the WIC staff members. Approximately 750 people are now participating in the program, which enables them to have nutritious and iron-building foods which normally they would not be able to have. Such foods as cereals, juice, milk, eggs, cheese and dried beans may be given. If you are interested in WIC, please make an appointment or have your doctor refer you to the WIC Office at Warren County Health Department, 540 W. Ridgeway Street, Warrenton, N. C. 27589. You may call 257-2116 for more information.

This is an Equal Opportunity Program. If you believe you have been discriminated against because of race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, religious or political belief, write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. 20250.

MRS. FLEMING

Requirements Met By Mrs. Fleming

Dolores A. Fleming of Littleton has completed the requirements for the Graduate Realtor Institute (GRI).

She attended the Realtors Institute in Chapel Hill and the University of North Carolina at Charlotte with courses in real estate law, real estate investment, real estate management, appraisal and tax planning.

In October, Mrs. Fleming plans to attend the Realtors Institute in Pinehurst in a program to complete the requirements for the Certified Residential Specialist (CRS) designation.

Mrs. Fleming is the owner of South Shore Realty on Lake Gaston.

Homecoming Service Plans Announced

The Chapel Hill Baptist Church will observe the annual homecoming service on Sunday, July 15, at 11:30 a. m. Following the worship service, there will be a fellowship lunch.

According to the pastor, the Rev. John E. Hall, revival services will begin on Tuesday, July 17, and continue through Friday, July 20. The Rev. S. E. Blalock of Raleigh will be the evangelist. Prayer services will begin nightly at 7:30 p. m.

Several visiting choirs will present special music during the week. They are: Tuesday, Spring Street Baptist Church, Henderson; Wednesday, Burchett Chapel United Church of Christ, Manson; Thursday, First Baptist Church, Norlina; and Friday, Greenwood Baptist Church, Warrenton.

While the vacuum is out, use the round brush attachment on baseboards, sills, moldings and picture frames. It's quicker than dust cloths and doesn't scatter the dust.

Miss Frazier Is Given Honor

Robin Lynn Frazier, a senior at Warren County High School, has been accepted into the Society of Distinguished American High School Students.

Miss Frazier, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Frazier of Warrenton, was nominated by the Rev. Clayton J. Shook, pastor of Warren Plains Baptist Church where she is a member.

This year marks the second time Miss Frazier has been nominated and accepted for membership in the society, an honor accorded only one in five members, according to a society spokesman.

Miss Frazier is co-captain of the Varsity cheerleaders at Warren County High School and is a member of the Eagle Chorus.

She is an honor roll student and received recognition for her scholastic achievement in Accounting I.

She is also active in her church youth group and serves as its vice president.

Miss Frazier is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Meadow and the late Mildred Meadow and the late Mr. and Mrs. Herrin Frazier.

Miss Howerton Made All A's

Vanessa R. Howerton, a music education major and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Howerton of Rt. 1, Manson, is one of 275 undergraduates at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro who made all A's on courses completed during the spring semester.

Altogether, two other students from Warren County attained the dean's list during the spring semester. The other students are: Dorine Henderson, a nursing major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Henderson of Manson; and Robin A. Scott, a sociology major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. French W. Scott of Rt. 2, Norlina.
