Gooch-Currin Vows Are Said In Oxford

Miss Gail Carolyn Currin and Lewis Dudley Gooch, Jr. were married in a double-ring ceremony on Saturday, July 21, at 4 p. m. at Enon Baptist Church in Oxford.

The Rev. Preston A. Creech, Jr. officiated. A program of music was presented by Mrs. Ann Daniel, pianist and Mrs. Becky Dickerson, vocalist. The church was decorated with palms, candles, fern and clusters of mixed pink and white summer flowers. The family area was roped off with ferns and white satin ribbons.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Currin of Rt. 1, Oxford, is a graduate of J. F. Webb High School and Vance-Granville Community College, where she earned an associate degree in early childhood education. She is employed as a teacher aide at West Oxford School.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gooch of Norlina, is a graduate of Norlina High School and Atlantic Christian College, from which he received a bachelor of science degree in business administration. He is manager of City Tire

Recappers in Oxford.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal-length gown of white sheer silk and Venice lace, featuring a high neckline, sheer yoke and fitted bodice with a Venice overlay. The A-line skirt was enhanced by a double hem, lace overlay and double ruffle around the skirt. A Venice lace chapel length train complemented the gown. The custom-made, cathedral-length mantilla was enhanced with Venice lace motifs attached to an open crown lace Camelot cap. She carried a semi-cascade of white sweetheart roses with white miniature carnations, snowdrift and sprengin fern. A white cymbidium orchid, set in the center, was removed for the wedding trip.

The matrons of honor were Mrs. Nancy Kerns and Mrs. Marilyn Howard, both of Oxford, sisters of the bride. Mrs. Nancy Auth of Wichita Falls, Tex., sister of the bridegroom, attended as bridesmaid and Julie Currin of Oxford, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

The flower girl was Arly Auth, niece of the bridegroom. Ring bearer was Matthew Kerns, nephew of the bride.

The father of the bridegroom served as best man. Groomsmen were William Auth of Wichita Falls, Tex., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Rod Kerns of Oxford, brother-in-law of the bride; Charles Currin of Oxford, brother of the bride; and Ronnie Moore of Henderson.

The couple will make their home at 313 Pine Tree Road, Oxford.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception, given by Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Dickerson and Mr. and Mrs. Costi Kuttek, was held at the community house at Enon Church.

The community house was decorated with summer flowers and greenery. The bride's table was covered with lace.

After the bridal couple cut the first slice, the four-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Nell Wiggins, Mrs. Pat Finch and Mrs. Mary McGhee, aunts of the bridegroom.

The refreshment table was covered with a white lace-trimmed cloth with a net overlay. Guests were served ham biscuits, chicken salad sandwiches, finger sandwiches, shrimp stuffed eggs, Swedish meatballs, fruit, cheese and crackers and fruit punch.

Assisting in the serving of the punch were Mrs. W. H. Etheridge and Mrs. Wilson Day, aunts of the bride.

Mrs. R. E. Laugham, Mrs. Delia Owens, Mrs. Mike Averett and Mrs. Margaret Satterwhite, aunts of the bride, served the refreshments.

Wedding Brunch
A wedding brunch was given Saturday morning by Mrs. Wilson Day, Mrs. W. H. Etheridge, Mrs. Josephine Currin, Mrs. Madison Currin, and Mrs. Gilbert Dickerson for the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

Rehearsal Dinner
The parents of the bridegroom entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests with a pig picking Friday night. Some 50 persons enjoyed the outdoor meal.

Visit Locally

Mr. and Mrs. W. Eugene Huffman and daughter, Carol, of Barrington, Ill. visited her grandmother, Mrs. Edith Holtzman, near Drewry and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Bender near Licksillet this past weekend.

THOUGHT FOR FOOD

Stir Fry Vegetables and Chicken
4 cups shredded cabbage
1 small onion, thinly sliced
1 green pepper, thinly sliced in strips
1 large, firm tomato, cut into thin wedges
2 cups broccoli flowerets, in small pieces
3 tablespoons oil
2 teaspoons sugar
1 cup cooked cubed chicken
Salt and pepper to taste

Prepare vegetables. Sprinkle cabbage with sugar, salt and pepper and toss lightly. Heat oil in skillet; add vegetables in this order: saute onions, add green pepper, cabbage and broccoli. Toss together. Add tomatoes and toss. Add chicken. Cover and cook 2 to 3 minutes over medium heat. Yields 6 servings.

Norlina Class Of 1954 Has Reunion

The thirtieth reunion of the class of 1954 of Norlina High School was held on July 28 at 6:30 p. m. at the Rafter's Steak and Seafood House near Warrenton. There were 23 members of the original 33-member class in attendance.

Peggy Carroll Allen, Shirley Carroll Lynch, Doris Williams, and Jimmy Sammons were in charge of planning the dinner meeting and making the arrangements. A social hour was held from 7-8 p. m. following which a steak dinner was enjoyed by all. The dessert course consisted of ice cream and cake, made and decorated with the class colors of blue and white by Doris Williams.

Howard Mustian presided over the meeting. Malcolm Hutton gave the invocation and closing prayer.

During the evening, the class members were entertained by personal comments from each member and the reading of "Do You Know the Seniors?" by Thelma K. Coleman, "Class Superlatives" by James "Bo" Stegall, and the "Class History" by Johnny Clarke.

It was agreed that the class would meet again in five years for a formal dinner meeting. Also, an informal picnic dinner was planned for 1986 at Peggy and Bobby Allen's lake house.

The class member traveling the longest distance to attend the reunion was James "Bo" Stegall from Springfield, Mo.
