

Rachel Knight, shown above on her horse, Johnny Bench, won two blue ribbons in the Rocky Mount Horse Show held Sunday. Miss Knight placed first in the Five-Gaited Pleasure Class in which she rode Johnny Bench. She will show Johnny Bench in the World Championship Show in Louisville, Ky. She also won a first place ribbon with her horse, Mr. Rux. Rachel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Knight of Rocky Mount and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Knight of Norlina and Mrs. Blanche Pittard of Warrenton.

Shearin Promoted By Planters Bank

Planters Bank has promoted W. Wilson Shearin, Jr., to assistant vice president and transferred him to the bank's Manteo office.

Wilson began his banking career in 1974. He joined Planters' Raleigh office in 1980 as assistant cashier and manager of the bank's Cameron Village office. In his new position, Shearin will serve as commercial loan officer in Manteo's Commercial Loan Department.

A native of Norlina, Wilson is a 1973 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a Bachelor of Arts in American Studies. Wilson has been a member of the Raleigh Civitan Club, serving on various committees. He was a Wake County United Way volunteer

Straight Tunnels

Older tunnels, like those that serve railroads, can have several inches of misalignment. But tunnels drilled by laser-guided machines are straight to within a centimeter or two, says National Geographic.
