Ant Colonies

Ant colonies are female societies, and all worker ants are female, says National Geographic. The only job of the drone males, when they mature, is to mate briefly with a young queen ant.

Weekly Health Tip

INDIGESTION OR HEART ATTACK?

Often brushed aside as just 'indigestion', the warning signs of a heart attack are something everyone should know. Usual symptoms are:

• Uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of chest for more than two minutes;

•Pain that spreads to the shoulders, neck, or arms;

•Severe pain, dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea, or shortness of breath.

Recommended action, call your doctor or emergency rescue service.

MRS. ANTHONY NEAL FAULKNER

Miss Newell Marries Anthony N. Faulkner

West End Baptist Church in Henderson was the setting Sunday afternoon for the uniting in marriage of Miss Angela Kaye Newell and Anthony Neal Faulkner. The Rev. Robert Yates performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Jackie Glover Newell of Henderson and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Glover of Warrenton. She is a graduate of Vance Senior High School and attended East Carolina University where she studied accounting.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Cox Faulkner of Henderson. A graduate of Hargrave Military Academy, he is serving with the United States Marine Corps. Following further training, he will be stationed in a Presidential Support Unit in Washington, D.C.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Lawrence Harris, a Henderson musician, Mrs. Sandra Wood of Castalia, vocalist, and Miss Merri Amos of Henderson, handbell ringer.

For the occasion, the church was decorated with a large all-white starburst arrangement of late summer flowers and a 15-branch arch candelabrum flanked by twin 15-branch spiral candelbra. Two palm trees further enhanced the area and family pews were marked with summer flowers and greens.

Escorted by her grandfather, Jack Glover, the bride wore a sleeveless gown of white silk taffeta with a sweetheart neckline accented by double bows at the shoulders. Re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls trimmed the bodice and re-embroidered lace encircled the full skirt at the hemline which extended to a cathedral length train. Her cathedral veil of illusion, edged with Alencon lace, was attached to a Juliet cap of lace, sequins and pearls.

Miss Kristye Lynne Newell, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Kelly Thompson Reaves of Wilson, Mrs. Mary Susan Foster and Miss Betsy Ann Faulkner, both of Henderson.

Miss Brook Hobgood of Henderson was flower girl.

The groom's father served as best man. Groomsmen were Jeff Hale, Scott Currin and Gene Raynor, all of Henderson. Straughan H. W. Dixon, Jr. of Henderson was ring bearer.

Miss Mary Cole presided at the guest registry and Mrs. Robert Yates directed the wedding.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple was entertained at a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Hosting the function was the bride's mother.

An easel, placed at the entrance, held a portrait of the bride. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Early Wilder.

The refreshment table, covered in white linen, held an arrangement of mixed summer flowers provided by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peoples. Punch was served by Kay Wade.

Assisting in serving were Rosalind Wilkerson, Karen Wilkerson and Janet Stevenson.

After the bride and groom cut the first slice of the three-tiered wedding cake, serving was continued by Mrs. Betty Lou Peoples.

The couple will reside in Washington, D. C.

After-Rehearsal

Following the wedding rehearsal Saturday evening, members of the wedding party and guests were entertained at an after-rehearsal party in the fellowship hall of the church. The groom's parents hosted the affair.

Assisting in serving were Ethel Briggs, Irene Currin, Martha Currin, Betty Collier, Pamela Blanks, and Frances Ellington.

Courtesies

A bridal brunch honoring Miss Newell was given Sept. 8 by Faye Davis and Ann Tate at the home of the latter in Henderson.

The bride-elect was entertained at a floating miscellaneous shower Sept. 2 in the home of Mrs. Irene Currin of Henderson. Hostesses in addition to Mrs. Currin, were Martha Currin and Sarah Currin.

Miss Newell was honored at a kitchen shower on Aug. 27 in the home of Joy Mangum. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Mangum, Sharon Dixon and Mary Susan Foster.

MEMORIALS: "Dropping Your Guard," Swindoll for Bobbie J. Cook from Patricia S. Pinnell, "The Book Class," Auchincloss, for Mrs. Gladys Powell, from Belle Bright; "The Wheels of Fortune," Howatch, for Bobbie J. Cook, from Ersie Stewart. "Arts of China" and "History of China," Time-Life, for Bobbie J. Cook, from Jimmie Boyce. "Natalie," Wood, for Bobbie J. Cook, from Hattie B. Scott. "Paradise Preserved," Powell, for Bobbie J. Cook, from Mary Hinton Kerr. "The New American Wonderlands," National Geographic, and "James Michener's U.S.A.," both for Roger Limer, from Larry and Joyce Lubbers. "—And Ladies of the Club," Santmyer, for Lottie Frazier Newsome and Ella Frazier White, from Maybelle Hueber. "Living Through Personal Crisis," for Whitmel S. Peoples, from Janie J. Williams. Monetary contributions received for Gladys Powell, Bobbie J. Cook and Roy Benton Lloyd.

We wish to thank the following people for volunteering their time and talent to the Summer Program; Cassie Jones, Joanne D. Evans, Alice Jones, Angie White, Betty Rollinson, and Dr. Ray Selby.

WANTED: All overdue books, please. This is a very serious situation.

It is hoped that more citizens of Warren County will use the facilities of the library. We found it quite disturbing this summer that not one parent came in to ask for books that might help their children with their reading. Also, very few high school students were into summer reading. We did have several parents in to get books to help their pre-schoolers.

Bullock-West Vows Are Spoken

Sheila Ann West of Warrenton and David Anthony Bullock of Roanoke Rapids were united in marriage August 26 at 3 p. m. at Rosemary Baptist Church in Roanoke Rapids.

The Rev. C. Thomas Badkin officiated.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theroy West of Warrenton. She is a graduate of Warren County High School.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Betty C. Westberry of Brunswick, Ga. He is a graduate of Roanoke Rapids High School.

Music for the occasion was rendered by Carl Dale Hines, soloist, and Marsha A. Hayes, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown with a Queen Anne neckline and baby ruffles of sheer polyester accented with sequins and ribbon bow trim. The lace bodice featured a slightly raised waistline with a full skirt enhanced with lace motifs and bishop sleeves with lace inset and deep lace cuffs. The baby ruffle hem of the skirt extended into a chapel-length train. The bride's fingertip veil and blusher of nylon netting was attached to a bandeau-style headpiece of Chantilly lace accented with simulated pearl trim.

The bride's sister, Tina Lee West of Roanoke Rapids, was maid of honor. Mrs. Angie V. Devine of Norlina was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Dee Cox, Susan Renee Clements, Robin Lynn Jones, Cathy Renee Rogers, Beth Jones and Lori C. Denning all of Roanoke Rapids; Debbie B. Boone of Hillsborough; and Billie Jo West, Lisa Ann Salmon, and Teresa Ann Fleming, all of Warrenton.
