MRS. FRANCIS WILMOT AYCOCK, III

Miss Robinson Weds Francis Aycock, III

Miss Lisa Rachelle Robinson and Francis Wilmont Aycock, III were united in marriage Saturday at 3 p. m. at Warrenton Baptist Church.

Dr. Gary E. Parker officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie T. Robinson of Warrenton. She is a graduate of Warren County High School and is currently attending Vance-Granville Community College where she is majoring in legal secretarial science. She is employed part-time at Leggett in Henderson.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Joyce O. Aycock of Warrenton and the late Francis W. Aycock, Jr. He is a graduate of John Graham High School and also attended the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and Halifax Community College. He is employed by Welcome Finance of Henderson.

The church was decorated with brass candelabra and floral arrangements of white gladiola, mums, daisies and gypsophila. Oregon fern enhanced the scene and pews were decorated with bouquets of matching flowers.

Mrs. Monroe Gardner of Warrenton, organist, and Mrs. Melody Parker of Warrenton, vocalist, presented wedding music.

Mrs. Janis P. Meek of Norlina was mistress of ceremonies. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Queen Anne silhouette gown of knit organza. The basque bodice and Juliet sleeves were trimmed with schiffli motifs and pearl-beaded Alencon lace. The flounced skirt and full attached train were bordered with lace medallions and a crystal pleated ruffle.

The bride's headpiece was a floral wreath with a fingertip veil and blusher.

Miss Tracy Robinson of Warrenton was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sheryl A. Bauer of Greensboro, sister of the groom, Mrs. Karen Riley of Henderson, Miss Lorie Hundley of Norlina and Miss Joy Williams of Macon.

Miss Raegan Coleman of Warrenton, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and Master Ryan Coleman of Warrenton, also a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. The groom's brother, Gregory Aycock, of

MRS. DENNIS DALE PEGRAM

Miss Robertson Weds Dennis Dale Pegram

On September 9 at 3 p. m., Macon Baptist Church was the setting for the double ring ceremony uniting Rhonda Kay Robertson and Dennis Dale Pegram in marriage.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Robertson of Warrenton and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Asa Pegram of Henderson.

The Rev. Robert P. McCrary, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony.

A seven-branch candelabrum arch with white mums, yellow daisies and gypsophila was centered in the church with a pair of Oregon fern palms flanking the arch. A pair of colonial candelabra with white mums, yellow daisies and gyp-sophila flanked the palms. A kneeling bench with the unity candle was centered in front of the arch.

Pianist for the ceremony was Mrs. Margaret Byrd, aunt of the bride and Jack Byrd, uncle of the bride, was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown with a chapel train of organza and beaded Chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a sweetheart neckline, outlined with scalloped Chantilly lace, organza Juliet pouf sleeves, and a natural waistline. Scalloped Chantilly lace etched with seed pearls lavishly applied the bodice and trimmed the sleeves. The flared,

DRUGS COST-EFFECTIVE

The results of 9 new research studies, conducted over the past 2 1/2 years, reveal that drugs "generally are the least expensive form of medical therapy and that they substantially reduce health-care costs." Cost-effective drugs save the patient money in the long run because they lessen the need for alternative, more expensive therapies, such as hospital treatment and surgery. A bit of welcome news in this price-conscious age!
