

Harrington-Torras

Vows Are Exchanged

The marriage of Miss Fernanda Maria Torras of Shelburne, Mass. to John Ray Harrington of New York City took place Sunday, Sept. 2, in St. James Episcopal Church in Greenfield, Mass.

The Rev. Richard Holloway of the Church of the Advent in Boston, Mass., and the Rev. Canon Peter Chase of St. James Episcopal Church officiated at the 5 p. m. double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hill Torras of Shelburne, Mass. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Robert J. Torras of Charleston, S. C. and Flat Rock and Mrs. Fernando J. Torras of St. Simon's Island, Ga. She was graduated from MacDuffie School for Girls in Springfield, Mass., attended L'Universita Per Stranieri in Perugia, Italy and was graduated from Bennington College in Bennington, Vt. with an A. B. degree. Until recently, she taught English in Tokyo, Japan.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sidney Harrington of Eden. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Harrington of Warrenton. He was graduated summa cum laude from Dartmouth College in Hanover, N. H. before graduating from Harvard University School of Law in Cambridge, Mass., where he received the Doctor of Jurisprudence degree. He is an attorney in the New York firm of Winthrop, Stimson, Putnam and Rogers.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of antique ivory satin worn by the groom's mother at her own wedding. The bodice was fashioned with a bertha of Brussels lace and a basque waist and the full gored skirt swept to a cathedral length train. Her full length veil of Brussel rosepoint lace, lined with silk illusion, also worn by the groom's mother, was attached to a queen's circlet of lace.

Miss Mary Torras of New York was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lucy Bowditch and Mrs. John N. Irwin of New York, Miss Carolina Smythe of Charleston, S. C., Mrs. James Porter of Bethesda, Md. and Mrs. Daniel Petit of Madison, Conn.

Thomas Sidney Harrington was his son's best man. Groomsman were the groom's brother, Thomas Pritchard Harrington of Wilson, and his cousins, Scott Mayfield Harrington of New Orleans, La., and David Merle Harrington of Raleigh, the bride's brother, Joseph Hill Torras, Jr. of Shelburne, Mass., John Patton Hance of Eden, William Daniel Hicks, Jr. of Atlanta, Ga., Dr. Timothy Flanagan of Philadelphia, Pa., and James Hardigg of New York.

Music was presented by Bruce Glenn, organist.

Reception

A reception after the wedding was held at the home of the bride's parents. Beneath tents on the lawn, a seated dinner was served to approximately 250 guests and an orchestra played for dancing during the evening.

Rehearsal Dinner

The groom's parents entertained 90 guests at a seated dinner at the Deerfield Inn in Deerfield, Mass. on the eve of the wedding. Guests included the bridal party, relatives and friends from California, Texas, Louisiana, Maryland, Connecticut, Georgia and North and South Carolina.

CORRECTION

The announcement in last week's issue of The Warren Record of the marriage of Sheila Ann West of Warrenton and David Anthony Bullock of Roanoke Rapids should have stated that the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Tommy West.

The Warren Record regrets the error.

Miss Robertson Weds

(Continued from page 4)

floor-length skirt extended into a chapel train. Tiered scalloped Chantilly lace encircled the skirt and train. A deep border of Chantilly lace edged the flounce hemline of the gown. Her veil was custom made by Mrs. Estelle Hedgepeth. It featured a trailing veil of silk organza with embroidered lace attached to a seed pearl wide band.

Marsha Robertson, sister of the bride, served as her matron of honor.

Frances Ann Harris Paul of Harriman, Tenn. served as her matron of honor.

Melissa Larson, cousin of the bride, of Winston-Salem, served as a bridesmaid and Denise Cheek of Warrenton and Kelly Stevenson of Henderson served as honorary bridesmaids.

Asa Pegram served as his son's best man. Billy Stevenson of Henderson, Roy P. Robertson, Jr., brother of the bride, Randy Pegram, brother of the groom, and Mike Pegram, brother of the groom, served as ushers. D. J. Pegram, son of the groom, served as ring bearer.

The bride graduated from Warren Academy and is currently attending Vance-Granville Community College. While attending the academy she worked at Golden Corral.

The groom graduated from Vance High School and is employed with Asa Pegram Contractor.

They will make their home at 1442 Perry Ave., Henderson after a trip to Atlantic City.

Linda Stevenson directed the wedding and Edith Branch served at the register.

Cake Cutting

A cake cutting was given by Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Asa Pegram following the rehearsal on September 8. Donna Robertson served at the register and Mr. and Mrs. Macon Robertson received the guests. Mrs. Debbie Pegram, sister-in-law of the groom, poured punch and Mrs. Gayle McCrary, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Serving for the occasion were Mrs. Margaret Robertson, Mrs. Joyce Benson, Mrs. Lorine Lloyd, Mrs. Doris Alston, Miss Gail Alston and Mrs. Margaret Cheek.

The three-tiered wedding cake was made by Mrs. Estelle Robertson, grandmother of the bride.

Courtesies

On August 24, the bridesmaids honored bride-elect Rhonda Robertson at a dinner at Tail of the Whale in Louisburg.

On August 26, Rhonda Robertson, bride-elect, was honored at a shower at Macon Fire House. The hostesses were Mrs. Margaret Robertson, Mrs. Vonnete Robertson, Mrs. Debbie Formyduval, Mrs. Margaret Cheek, Mrs. Margaret Aycock and Miss Donna Robertson.

Hostesses for a pantry shower on September 5 were Mrs. Linda Stevenson of Henderson and Mrs. Debbie Pegram. The shower was held at the home of Mrs. Stevenson. Approximately twenty-five guests attended.

A bridesmaid luncheon was given by Mrs. Roy P. Robertson at The Rafter's in Warrenton on Sept. 8 honoring the bride-elect and her attendants. Those present were Rhonda Robertson, Marsha Robertson, Frances Paul, Melissa Larson, Mrs. Ruth McCrary, Mrs. Vance Robertson, Mrs. Roy P. Robertson, Mrs. Asa Pegram, Miss Kelly Stevenson, Miss Denise Cheek, Mrs. Linda Stevenson, Mrs. Edith Branch and Mrs. Margaret Byrd.

Aycock-Robinson

(Continued from page 4)

Edmonds of Richmond, Va., aunt of the bride.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Margaret Edmonds of Richmond, Va., aunt of the bride, Mrs. Sherry Carroll of Warrenton, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ed Riggan of Warrenton, aunt of the groom.

Birdseed bags were distributed by Miss Jessica Rodwell of Warrenton.

Goodbyes were spoken by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Faulkner of Warrenton.

After the reception, the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C. Upon their return, they will reside at 124 S. Cooper St. in Henderson.

Rehearsal Dinner

A dinner party was given in honor of the bridal couple by the groom's mother, on Sept. 14 after the wedding rehearsal. The dinner, which was held at The Rafter's in Warrenton, was for members of the wedding party and immediate family members.

Shower

On July 28, Mrs. Betty C. Coleman, Mrs. Joyce Edmonds, Mrs. Margaret Edmonds, and Mrs. Sherry Carroll hosted a floating bridal shower for Miss Robinson in the fellowship hall of Warrenton Baptist Church.

Marriage Poll

Nearly 80 percent of all married people polled nationally say their marriage is warm and loving. Thirteen percent claim peaceful coexistence.

People with lower income and the unemployed are more likely to report serious marital problems.

Louisburg Concert

Series Is Outlined

The Louisburg College Concert Series opens its 1984-85 season on Friday, Sept. 21, at 8 p. m. in the College Auditorium with one of the greatest choral groups in the world — the 40-voice Romanian National Choir.

Other attractions in the series include the AMAN: International Dance Company from Los Angeles, on Monday, Oct. 15; Stars of the Lawrence Welk Show from Los Angeles, on Friday, Jan. 25; the dynamic Mac Frampton Musical Show from Atlanta on Wednesday, Feb. 13; and the National Opera Company with a Rossini comedy on Monday, March 18. Admission is by series tickets only.

The Romanian National Choir is hailed with unparalleled praise, an unquestionably magnificent choir. From Cologne, Germany, a critic writes that it had "the utmost perfection, breathtaking brilliance." The choir is renowned for its lavish tonal colors, crystal-clear intonation and unforgettable costuming.

Much of the success of the Choir is due to the genius and dedication of its founder/director, Marin Constantin. He founded the Choir in 1963 and with the best from the Bucharest Conservatory he has toured the group internationally since.

The program consists of three parts: the first, a Renaissance music section with Elizabethan costumes, the second part of classical and contemporary music in formal attire, and the third section in glorious native costumes with all the excitement of Romanian folk music.

For more information, contact the Office of Public Affairs at Louisburg College, telephone 496-2521.

THOUGHT FOR FOOD

by GOULD CROOK

Easy Shrimp Sauté

- 1 can (8 oz.) Dole Chunk Pineapple in Juice
- 6 tbsp. butter
- 1 clove garlic, pressed
- 2 tbsp. chopped green onion
- 2 tbsp. dry white wine
- ¼ tsp. tarragon, crumbled
- 1½ lbs. cooked shrimp, medium-size
- 2 tbsp. chopped parsley

Hot cooked rice

Drain pineapple, reserving 2 tbsp. juice. Melt butter in wok. Sauté garlic and onion in one minute. Add wine, reserved 2 tbsp. pineapple juice and tarragon. Cook one minute. Add shrimp, pineapple and parsley. Heat through. Serve over rice. Makes 4 servings.

Macon Club Has Meeting

The Macon Woman's Club met Monday, Sept. 10, in the Gardner Room of the Macon United Methodist Church.

Following the call to order by the club president, Mrs. Anna Thompson, members were presented an inspiring devotion and led in prayer by chaplain, Mrs. Mary Copley.

Mrs. Thompson welcomed everyone back after a summer break and urged everyone to be enthusiastic in their work, bring interesting programs to the club while keeping them concise. Everyone was reminded to keep reports up to date throughout the year in order to meet the deadline in February. The club's theme will be "Working for a Better Community" and the district theme will be "A Call to Action." We were urged to make the club outstanding.

After a brief business session and department reports, the group discussed changes in the club book and prospective new members. Everyone was reminded of the Fall District XIV Meeting on Saturday, Oct. 27, in Roanoke Rapids.

With the reading of the Collect, the meeting was adjourned and delicious refreshments were served.

The next club meeting will be held Monday, Oct. 1, at the home of Mrs. Estelle Robertson in Macon. The program topic will be under the heading of public affairs.

VISITS MOTHER

Dr. M. K. Aycock, Jr. of Greenbelt, Md., spent Wednesday night of last week with his mother, Mrs. Marvin Aycock, of Elberon.

WARREN COUNTY HOME HEALTH AGENCY

has a position opening for a LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSE I

Must be licensed to practice as a Practical Nurse by the North Carolina Board of Nursing. A motor vehicle operator's license and the availability of an automobile for travel within Warren County are required. Experience in a Hospital, Health Department, or Nursing Home desired. Applications are available at the offices on 108 South Bragg Street in Warrenton. Equal Opportunity Employer.

Contact: Mrs. Judy W. Wilson, RN
Telephone: 257-4081

Residents Of Person Vance Granville Warren Counties

Get Ready For Fall

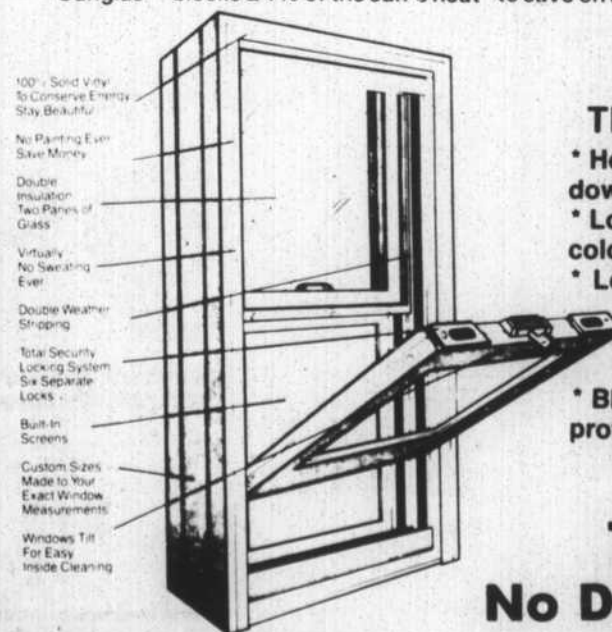

A New Replacement Window — Made In North Carolina

THE FISHER "SONTRONIC"® REPLACEMENT WINDOW

Now With A 25% Savings On

Sunglas At No Extra Charge

Sunglas® blocks 24% of the sun's heat to save on air conditioning costs by at least 25%.*

Why Sunglass ?

The Energy Saving Glass:

- * Heat that doesn't enter through the window doesn't have to be removed.
- * Looks like clear glass ... provides a true color view.
- * Lets the daylight in.
- * Provides passive solar heat gain in the winter.
- * Blocks fade causing ultra-violet rays to protect fabrics.

Free Estimate
100% Financing
No Down Payment

The Fisher Sontronic Is Much More Than Just A Storm Window.

It eliminates the need for storm windows. It is a double insulated custom made-to-measure thermal frame window that keeps your home cooler in the summer and warmer in the winter. It never needs painting or puttying and it tilts inside the house for easy cleaning. Plus installation, in most cases, takes only one day with no mess or inconvenience.

Look At These Benefits!

- * 50 Year transferable warranty.
- * 100% financing available or a plan to fit your budget.
- * Guaranteed energy savings of at least 25% or the factory pays you the difference.
- * $300 tax credit.
- * A complete security system can be built directly into the "Sontronic" to protect your family against fire, theft or medical emergency.

Available Only At

Member Of The
Granville County
Chamber Of Commerce

For further information and a FREE brochure, write
THE WINDOW MAN
107 West St. Oxford N.C. 27565

Name _____
Address _____
City/State/Zip _____ Phone _____

"We are the largest replacement window dealer in the state."
JAY CANNON

Hearing Clinic

Scheduled For

Sat., Sept. 22

10 A.M. to 4 P.M.

Rite Aid Pharmacy

315 E. Macon St.

Hall Springs Service Center
Warrenton, N. C.

FREE: Hearing Test and Evaluation conducted by hearing aid specialist.

If words run together, you hear but do not understand, people seem to mumble, you ask people to repeat.....

You May Have NERVE DEAFNESS.

Also available at no cost to you hearing aids serviced to insure maximum performance.

Call for appointment to avoid waiting. 257-2922. Bring a friend or relative.