A CORRECTION

An article in last week's issue of The Warren Record about the birthday celebration of Mrs. Myrtle Fleming incorrectly listed her age. Mrs. Fleming is 83.

The Warren Record regrets the error.

Starfish Arms

Arms on some starfish divide and subdivide until they have more than a hundred branches and the starfish looks like a walking bush. Other starfish can shed trapped limbs and crawl away. Still others reproduce by dropping an arm, which eventually becomes another complete starfish, National Geographic points out.

Local Residents Visit Whitakers Chapel

Thirty-two people from Norlina, Oine and Warrenton traveled to Whitaker's Chapel near Enfield on Sept. 25 in a trip sponsored by Norlina United Methodist Church in conjunction with the Bicentennial of Methodism being celebrated this year.

Whitaker's Chapel

was chartered in 1740 as a meeting place of the Church of England. In 1776, the small chapel became the Methodist meeting house.

It was in the chapel, in 1828, that the First Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church was held. The Methodist Protestant Church was formed from the Methodist Episcopal Church over the issue of lay rights, the Methodist Protestants favoring the rights of lay people to participate in the affairs and decisions of the church.

According to the Rev. Gene Cobb, pastor of the Norlina Church, "Lay rights can be contributed to the presence of the Methodist Protestant Church" and have had "a great influence on the church today."

Another division in the Methodist Episcopal Church occurred in 1844 when the Methodist Episcopal Church-South was formed from the Methodist Episcopal Church in a split over slavery.

In 1939, the three churches, the Methodist Episcopal Church, Methodist Protestant Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church-South, joined to form the Methodist Church.

Senior Social Club Members Conduct September Meeting

By SADIE YANCEY Reporter

The Norlina Senior Social Club held the September meeting with the Norlina Baptist group in the church social hall with 52 members present.

The Rev. Gene Cobb, pastor of the Norlina Methodist Church, gave a most impressive devotion using the theme, "Blessed Assurance."

Mrs. Anna Fuller gave the treasurer's report and Mrs. Zora King read the minutes of the August meeting.

Mrs. Hazel Norwood, president, appointed a committee to present a slate of officers at the October meeting. Mr. Clyde Edwards and Mrs. Pauline Robinson were the recipients of the door prizes.

The entertainment committee presented several skits depicting Mr. Dennis Harris by Ola King and Mr. Oscar Baker by Marjorie Harmon. Mrs. Lucille Comma read several poems of interest to senior citizens and conducted several contests which were enjoyed by the group.

The meeting closed with the group's singing "Love Lifted Me," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Gladys Perkinson. Mr. Oscar Baker requested that the group sing "I'll Fly Away," so Mrs. Ola King played for the group to sing.

The Baptist members served delicious refreshments, for which the Rev. Jack Little, pastor of the Norlina Baptist Church, gave thanks.

The next meeting will be at the Norlina Methodist Church on October 25 at 2 p. m. This will be the annual Halloween party, so everyone is invited to come dressed in Halloween costumes.

On Saturday night, September 15, the Rhythm Band gave their first fall concert at Zion United Methodist Church with the Rev. Vern Wormack directing. The band played to a full house, after which everyone was served delicious homemade ice

CREAM

On Saturday night, Sept. 22, the band traveled by church bus to Bethlehem Christian Church, with the Rev. Gene Cobb as driver. The Rev. Jon Strother directed the band, which played to another full house. After the program, everyone enjoyed punch and cookies and the good fellowship.

The band will start practicing for the State Fair on Monday, Oct. 1, at 11 a. m. in the Norlina Methodist Church. Other practice dates will be announced at that time.

The band feels fortunate to have the services of three capable directors this year. We feel that we will be able to give the best performances yet. The Rev. Gene Cobb, the Rev. Vern Wormack and the Rev. Jon Strother are all good bus drivers as well as good directors.
