

These three clowns will be part of an evening of entertainment presented at Hawkins Elementary School Gym on Tuesday, Oct. 16, when the Original Fun-Time Circus, sponsored by Mariam Boyd Elementary School, comes to town. The show, which begins at 7:30 p. m., will include jugglers, animal tricks and a magic show. Cost is $3 for adults. Children will be admitted for half-price. The circus, founded in 1942, has appeared in 32 states and was recently featured on CBS television. Proceeds from the show will go toward purchase of supplies needed by the school.

Agent Orange Victims Sought

Warren County Veterans Service Officer Russell Currin is urging any veteran who believes he may have adverse health effects related to Agent Orange exposure to contact his office.

Currin reports that he has the latest form, which should be completed not later than Oct. 26 and returned to Agent Orange Computer Center in Smithtown, N. Y.

The Veterans Service office is located in the Warren County Courthouse on the second floor. Currin may be contacted by telephone at 257-3385.

Going Up

College prices are expected to rise 6 percent, says the College Board, a not-for-profit New York association.

Worshippers May Call Time On Minister This Sunday

Worshippers at historic St. John's Episcopal Church in Williamsboro on Sunday, Oct. 14, will have their first opportunity to "call time" on the minister by using a large sermon hour-glass which was hand made in England as an authentic fitting for Anglican church of the colonial period.

The Rev. Harrison T. Simons, a member of the St. John's Committee, has indicated that the hour-glass will be in use at the homecoming service for the oldest frame church in the state. The sermon will be given by the Rev. Leland Smith of Holy Innocents Church in Henderson.

Harvey-Wheeler Vows Said

Shane Martin of Norlina was ring bearer.

David Robertson of Kentucky served as his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Rick Robertson of Norlina and Rusty Robertson of Roanoke Rapids, both brothers of the groom, Tommy Wheeler of Henderson, brother of the bride and Todd Meadows of Norlina.

Reception

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church fellowship hall hosted by the bride's parents and catered by Edna Wright.

Also assisting with the reception were Mrs. Gwen Tunstall, Mrs. Dorsie Green, Mrs. Mattie Boyd and Mrs. Mamie Green.

The bride's table was covered with satin cloths with lace trimmed silk illusion overlay. A five-branch candelabra was filled with pink and white pixie carnations, lilies, daisies and gypsophila.

Mrs. Elnore Whitmore of Norlina and Mrs. Jackie Sparks of Portsmouth, Va. poured punch and Mrs. Jean Smith of Radford, Va. and Mrs. Sara Wheeler of Vienna, Va. served the traditional four-tier wedding cake.

After a wedding trip to the mountains, the couple will make their home on Division Street in Norlina.

Courtesies

On Sept. 4, the bride-elect was entertained at a miscellaneous shower by the Baptist Young Women after their monthly meeting.

On Sept. 9, the prospective bride was given a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. Elnore Whitmore, Mrs. Jean Frazier, Mrs. Diane Currin, Mrs. Lucy Williams, Miss Gwen Allen, Mrs. Nannie Mae Edmonds, and Mrs. Verlene Stainback. The centerpiece for the refreshment table was arranged by Mrs. Mamie Weaver.

The bride-elect was entertained on Sept. 16 at a floating lingerie shower hosted by Mrs. Sherry Shearin and Mrs.

Henderson.

Those attending the service can look forward to a memorable service taken from the old Prayer Book, to be followed by a picnic on the grounds. The public is invited to experience a bit of their religious heritage in one of the few church buildings surviving from the colonial period.

St. John's, built in 1772, has no active congregation today. It is maintained by volunteers of the St. John's Committee and Guild. The church is located just to the west of N. C. Highway 39 at Williamsboro, seven miles north of Henderson.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids were entertained at Golden Corral on Sept. 22 with a salad bar lunch and dessert. Guests were Mrs. Sherry Shearin, Miss Lori Barker, Miss Donna Wheeler, Mrs. Lynn Paschall, Mrs. Donna Shields, Miss Killi Currin and Miss Stephanie Wheeler.

The groom's mother hosted an after-rehearsal dinner for the wedding party and special friends at The Rafter's Steak House in Warrenton.

On Sept. 30, relatives of the bride's family were given a luncheon at the home of the bride hosted by the bride's sister and father. Guests attended from Henderson, Durham and several points in Virginia.

Nursing Center News

Warren Nursing Center
The third of October was a day filled with fun as employees and their families enjoyed a pig picking hosted in their honor. Also present were Sen. James Speed, a former senator of this district before redistricting, Mayor B. G. White of Warrenton and WNC owners, Joe Lennon and Red Williams. To add to the fun, adults as well as children participated in various games and door prizes were awarded to registered guests.

We have had two admissions since last week. These are Bertha Bishop and her mother, Mattie Bishop. Both are from Norlina.

On Sunday, the Rev. Roy Smithwick and members of Bethlehem Baptist Church in Wise were in the facility singing and offering prayer for our residents. We appreciate their visit so much.

This week we would like to thank Doris Perkinson of Wise, Edna Mustian and family of Warren County and the Norlina Woman's Club for their contributions to our clothing closet.

We would also like to thank local merchants as well as supportive, corporations for their donations to our employee pig picking.
