

Miss Williams, Mr. Bynum Wed

Miss Valarie Ann Williams of Warrenton and CE-2 Lloyd Bynum, Jr., of Washington, D. C. were married on Saturday, Oct. 6, at 3 p. m. at Jerusalem Baptist Church.

The Rev. Clevester Harris officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anell Williams of Warrenton. A graduate of John Graham Senior High School, she attended Vance-Granville Community College in Henderson and is a former employee of Family Dollar of Warrenton.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bynum, Sr. of Rocky Mount. He is a graduate of Rocky Mount Senior High School. He spent five years overseas working as a construction electrician and is now stationed at the Washington Navy Yard, Washington, D. C., where he is employed as an Armed Forces Police Officer.

For the occasion the church was decorated with candles and greenery. Palm leaves, decorated with pink ribbons and gold wedding bands, were placed on special pews. A brass spiral candelabrum garnished with white bells and a piano centerpiece were on the altar.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Glendora T. Powell and Steve Hymon, vocalist, of Warrenton.

The wedding was directed by the bride's sisters and brothers-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson of Louisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Williams of Inez and Mr. and Mrs. Ricky S. Richardson of Raleigh.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and natural waist, featuring a bustle-back with attached back ruffle. The high neckline featured a stand-up lace collar and topped twin yokes of illusion enhanced with a delicate face ruffle and white satin ribbon. Long sleeves of illusion tapered to a dainty point at the wrist. The two-tiered, floor-length veil of illusion trimmed in lace was attached to a lace headpiece adorned with seed pearls. The design was a fashion by Hal of New York. The bride wore a sterling silver cross, presented by her mother as a keepsake, and white pearl earrings.

Miss Sharon Eaton of Littleton, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Angie Alston, Miss Janet Falcon and Miss Brenda Brown all of Warrenton, Miss Angela Bynum of Rocky Mount and Miss Gina Williams of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Arre Kennedy of Washington, D. C., was best man.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD BYNUM, JR.

Groomsmen were Gregory Williams, brother of the bride, Timothy Bynum, and Jody Baker, all of Rocky Mount, Morris McKnight of Washington, D. C. and Aaron Dunlap of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Flower girls were Mamie Williams and Zaareneta Williams of Inez and Gevonda Bynum of Rocky Mount.

Ring bearers were Jonathan Williams of Inez, Norris Steed of Henderson and Ricky Richardson of Raleigh.

Reception
A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church fellowship hall. It was hosted by the bride's parents and catered by the bride's mother and sisters.

On the bride's table were a white cloth, trimmed with burgundy and pink bridal colors and crystal candle holders. The two-tiered wedding cake and three-layered groom's cake were the centerpieces of the table. The cakes were made and served by the bride's sister, Devergia Richardson.

After a wedding trip, the couple will make their home in the Washington, D. C.—Maryland area.

Courtesies
On Sept. 16, the bride-

elect was entertained at a miscellaneous shower by the mother of the groom, Mrs. Jean Bynum, and the sister of the groom, Miss Angela Bynum at the Y.M.C.A. in Rocky Mount.

On Sept. 30, the prospective bride was given a miscellaneous shower by the Jerusalem Young Adult Choir and Usherboard.

After Rehearsal Dinner

The groom's parents hosted an after-rehearsal dinner for the wedding party on Oct. 5 in the fellowship hall of the church. The menu was barbeque, fried chicken, cole slaw, potato salad, hush puppies and soft drinks. Strawberry and chocolate sheet cakes were made by Timothy Bynum, brother of the groom.

Guests attended from Warrenton, Norlina, Henderson, Louisburg, Rocky Mount, Nash County, Raleigh, Charlotte, Virginia, Washington, D. C., Maryland, New York, and Hilton Head Island, S. C.
