Local Volunteer

Among Honorees

Mrs. Alice Marie Robertson was among the 52 Red Cross volunteers receiving the 1984 Governor's Award for outstanding citizen involvement and volunteer service during a luncheon at the McKimmon Center of N. C. State University in Raleigh on Nov. 30.

Attending the luncheon with Mrs. Robertson was Mrs. Katie C. Davis of Norlina. She received a certificate of appreciation for outstanding cooperation in helping to meet the blood needs of patients. Not attending, but also receiving the Governor's Award, was Mrs. Lois Williams, teacher in the Warren County Schools.

Annual Decorations

Contest Is Planned

The Warrenton Lions Club will once again sponsor its annual Christmas Decoration Contest this year. Decorations will be judged in two categories: outside decorations and inside decorations as seen from the outside.

The Warrenton Lioness Club received a certificate for outstanding work in volunteer service.

Two prizes will be awarded in each category.

Approximately 300 volunteers, from board members to bloodmobile workers, attended the luncheon, sponsored by the Triangle Area Chapter of the American Red Cross. The keynote address was given by Mrs. Lewis Lunsford, Jr., chairman of the Red Cross Eastern Operations Headquarters.

First prize in each category wins $15; second prize, $10.

Anyone wishing to ensure that house is judged should contact the Warrenton Lions Club, 429 West Ridgeway Street, Warrenton.
