MRS. DAVID K. LYNCH

Miss Harris Marries David Kelly Lynch

Miss Jennifer Laine Harris of Warrenton and David Kelly Lynch of Troy were united in marriage at 3 o'clock Sunday at Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church in Warrenton.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson Harris of Warrenton, the bride attended Meredith College in Raleigh where she majored in psychology.

The groom, who currently serves as manager of Montgomery FCX in Troy, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Revis Lynch of Macon and the grandson of Mrs. Alma Lynch of Warrenton.

The altar was decorated with an arrangement of mixed white flowers and springeri. Eucharistic candles and five-branch candelabra holding cathedral tapers flanked the center arrangement.

The windows of the nave held burning white tapers in hurricane globes banked with magnolia, trailing ively, white daisies and freesia. White flowers and ribbons marked the family pews and an arrangement of flowers decorated the narthex.

William Hilderbrandt, organist of First United Methodist Church in Henderson, presented a program of wedding music.

Terry Lightfoot, trumpeter, of Raleigh accompanied Hilderbrandt on the processional and recessional.

Mrs. Dorothy Roberts, soprano, of Warrenton, James Powers, tenor soloist and member of the music faculty of Meredith College, and the Chancel Choir of Wesley Memorial Church presented several musical selections.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin. The elongated bodice, featuring a portrait neckline, was accented with pearl-covered appliques of Alencon lace. The traditional sleeves ended in scalloped cutwork lace appliques. A pyramid of pearl and lace motifs highlighted the full skirt, which had a scalloped ace hemline and extended into a cathedral train.

The chapel-length veil of illusion sprinkled with pearls fell from a profile spray of silk flowers and pearls. Forming the background of the bride's bouquet were handkerchiefs that belonged to the maternal great-grandmothers of the bride and groom.

Miss Lisa King of Norlina was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Rebecca Harris and Miss Katherine Harris of Warrenton, sisters of the bride, Miss Stephanie Brown of Garner, cousin of the bride, and Miss Mary Beth Boggan of Winston-Salem.

Miss Amber Lynch of Wilson, niece of the groom, was flower girl.

Revis Lynch served as his son's best man. Groomsmen were Carl Lynch of Macon, Coy Lynch of Wilson, Ricky Lynch of Vaughan, brothers of the groom, and Lance Dillard of Warrenton. Ushers were Morris Aycock of Norlina, Karl Daeke of Kingsport, Tenn., Richard Gupton of Louisburg, and Tim White of Raleigh.

Master Joey Harris, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Acolyte was Greg Shearin of Warrenton.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Eugene Munn of Afton.

Reception Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at Warrenton Country Club.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. William Connell, III and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Gardner. Mrs. Harry St. Sing of Warren Plains, sister of the groom, presided at the registry. The entrance to the club featured the bride's portrait and a mixed arrangement of flowers.

The bride's table held a white three-tiered cake decorated with clusters of sugar bells. Mrs. John Britt of New Bern, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Edward Hunter of Warrenton served the cake.

Punch was poured by Mrs. Lance Dillard of Warrenton.

Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shearin of Warrenton and Mr. and Mrs. Travis White, also of Warrenton.

After a wedding trip to Tennessee, the couple will make their home in Troy.

Nuptial Courtesies The bride was honored at a kitchen shower on Oct. 12 at the home of Mrs. William Connell, III. Hostesses were Mrs. Connell and Mrs. Gary Floyd of Florence, S.C.

On Nov. 10, the bride was honored at a miscellaneous shower held in the educational building of Gardner's

Baptist Church in Macon. Hostesses were Mrs. Carl Lynch, Mrs. Coy Lynch, Mrs. Larry Lynch, Mrs. Ricky Lynch, and Mrs. Harry St. Sing.

A dinner party honoring the bride and groom and their families was given by Mrs. Pearl Endecott in her home on Nov. 18.

The bride was honored at a linen shower on Dec. 2 at the home of Mrs. Carroll Harris. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Willoughby Harris and Mrs. Eugene Munn.

The bride and groom were honored at a dinner on January 5 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lance Dillard. Also hosting the dinner were Miss Wanda Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hilliard and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Maynard.

Bridesmaids Luncheon A bridesmaids luncheon honoring Miss Harris was held on Jan. 19 in the home of Mrs. William King. Co-hostess was Miss Lisa King.

Woman's Club Meet Is Held Thursday

The Warrenton Woman's Club met on Thursday night with Mrs. Perry Twitty, president, calling the meeting to order and returning thanks for the meal.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Marion Hull, followed by the reading of the minutes by Mrs. Ida Davis. Mrs. Hy Diamond was recognized for the treasurer's report.

Various committee reports were called for with Mrs. Howard Daniel reporting for education on plans for the Special Olympics.

Mrs. Peggy Allen reported for Home Life, giving a list of Christmas goodies and meals taken to Mrs. Lucy Pope. She also reported that a telephone had been installed at the bedside of Mrs. Bessie Morris, who is a wheelchair patient.

Mrs. Hull reported a smoke detector had been installed for Mrs. Morris by the Public Affairs Committee which also collected paperback books and playing cards for veterans.

Mrs. Janet Harris reported for Arts in the absence of the chairman and also announced the winners in the arts and crafts contest held recently. Blue ribbon winners are: Margie Watson, Anna Ayscue, Alease Mustian, Grace Miles, Margo Lennon, and Louise Twitty. Judges were Janet Harris and Carolyn Steele.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Steele gave an interesting program on Washing clothes in cold water takes only 7 percent of the electrical energy required for clothes washed in hot water.

art. She began by saying that her career was begun for the Warrenton Woman's Club when at about age eight or nine she drew posters for the club.

She explained various types of paint, colors, and equipment and discussed the technique for building shadows, and doing landscapes. She also stated that her specialty was architecture and displayed some of her notes and cards of homes in Warrenton.

Mrs. Twitty closed the meeting by thanking the Telephone Committee and the hostesses, Mrs. Maebelle Hueber and Alease Mustian, for the successful meeting.

The hostesses also provided a cake to celebrate the club's birthday.

A door prize drawing was won by Mrs. Howard Daniel and was provided by Mrs. Twitty.

In Hospital

Future Pioneers

Tomorrow's space pioneers will display the same gumption common to yesterday's settlers of the Polynesian islands and the American West.

But instead of traveling in outrigger canoes or covered wagons, they may someday ride into the unknown or microwave-powered rockets and hitch their fortunes to passing comets, predicts Eric M. Jones, an astrophysicist at the Los Alamos National Laboratory.

FRAGILE BONES

Osteoporosis (thinning of the bones) affects mostly women over age 65. Menopause increases the rate of calcium leaving the body. Adequate calcium intake by younger women becomes inadequate after menopause. Older adults should take extra calcium daily in tablet form; also, Vitamin D for better calcium retention. Your doctor can best advise quantities.
