Weather Effects

Coffee prices are expected to go up in coming months because of last summer's weather conditions during the growing season in Brazil. The prices on peppers, tomatoes, cucumbers and salad items are up and they are in light supply. Orange juice prices are up about 20 percent, all due to the January freeze.

MRS. DANIEL H. CHEEK

Miss Smith Marries Daniel H. Cheek

Dr. And Mrs. Selby Give Talk On Wales To Local Clubwomen

Dr. and Mrs. Ray Selby spoke to members of the Warrenton Woman's Club Thursday evening. They related facts of interest about Wales and showed a number of articles from Wales as well.

Dr. and Mrs. Selby have been in Warrenton for three years during this, their second stay here. Dr. Selby is rector of Emanuel Episcopal Church and he and his wife will return to England in June.

During the presentation, the Selbys compared Wales to North Carolina, noting that Wales is about one-seventh the size of our state. Dr. Selby noted that the population of Wales is about two million, with almost as many sheep. Mrs. Selby displayed dolls in the usual attire of the Welsh people. They related interesting facts about their marriage and travels and showed pictures of their 300-year-old cottage in Wales. The couple ended their program with the singing of the National Anthem in Welsh.

Mrs. Louise Twitty presided over the meeting following a meal arranged by the hostesses, Mrs. Ersie Neal and Mrs. Marion Hull.

Mrs. Thomas Gaskill led in the Pledge of Allegiance. Mrs. Richard Davis read the minutes, followed by the treasurer's report by Mrs. Hy Diamond.

During the committee reports, Mrs. Roger Limer commented for the International Affairs Department. Mrs. Howard Daniel gave a report on a book entitled "Lady Washington," by Dorothy Clark for the Education Department. Mrs. Robert Allen reported on Home Life projects for March, and Mrs. G. B. Hull presented a vial of life to each member, with instructions for use and purpose.

Following various items of business, the meeting was adjourned by the president.

Annual Egg Hunt Set

The Cherry Hill Historical Foundation will hold its annual Easter Egg Hunt on the lawn at Cherry Hill on Monday, April 8. Activities will begin at 11 a. m. and are open to children of all ages. Four hunts will take place simultaneously, and participation will be determined by age: two years and under; three to six years; seven and eight years; and nine years and over. A prize will be awarded in each category.

Cherry Hill, the plantation home of George W. Alston, was built in 1858 and is now operated by the Cherry Hill Historical Foundation.

It is included on the U. S. Department of the Interior's National Register of Historic Places. Cherry Hill is located on N. C. Highway 58 at Inez in southern Warren County within easy driving distance from Raleigh and the Research Triangle Park (one hour), Rocky Mount (45 minutes) and Henderson (30 minutes).

The Easter Egg Hunt is free and open to the general public. It is one of many annual activities sponsored by the Association in its policy of easy access to Cherry Hill for all ages. All children should be accompanied by an adult.
