

Littleton Senior Citizens Club Meets Recently

By OLLIE ROYSTER
The Littleton Senior Citizens Club met recently at Lakeland Arts

Center with James R. Johnson, vice president, presiding.

The meeting was called to order and members and guests were welcomed by Vice President Johnson.

The devotion was conducted by Miss Gladys Williams. She opened the program with the group singing the hymn, "Come to Jesus," followed by Scripture reading from Romans 12:1-21 on the mercies of God.

Arnett Manley gave the prayer, followed with the singing of the hymn, "Blessed Assurance."

Those on the sick and shut-in list who were remembered were Mrs.

Vergie Alston, Mrs. Emma Lynch, Tom Lee, John (Rock) Newell, David Williams, Moses Alston, and Ben Somerville.

Mrs. Ollie B. Lynch of the hospitality committee extended a welcome to the members and guests.

Mrs. Gladys Williams announced that a fund-raising bazaar on the Community Center would be held on Saturday, May 25, at Becker Village Mall in Roanoke Rapids from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Lelia Meade reported that the quilting committee was busy making quilts to sell to help raise funds for the center.

A discussion on future tours and dinner dates was led by Williams, Chairwoman Mrs. Grady Watts, and Mrs. Elberton Snow.

Mrs. Louise Silver presented the secretary's report and Ben Silver, treasurer, presented the financial report.

H. P. Richardson praised the members and others for sending in their donations and pledges for the Community Center. He suggested that the club's secretary send a letter or thank you card to all those who made a contribution to this worthy cause.

H. P. Richardson closed the meeting with prayer.

The group held its birthday party and sang "Happy Birthday" to all those having birthdays in April.

They included Mrs. Mabel Smith, Mrs. Nellie Bobbitt, Mrs. Hattie Brown, Mrs. Eva A. Wheeler, Mrs. Mary F. Williams, H. P. Richardson, and Israel Powell.

Refreshments were furnished by James Solomon, Lillian Solomon, Leolia Nicholson, Nellie Bobbitt, Maria Alston and Geneva Williams.

Annual Egg Hunt Held

By MARTHA PAGE
We had our annual Easter Egg Hunt on Easter Sunday and everyone really did enjoy it.

The aides hid the eggs while we tried to keep everyone from peeking out the windows to see where they were hidden, and then we let everyone outside and all the eggs were found.

We had several visitors and they cheered them on.

After the egg hunt we had a party for everyone in the dining room with refreshments being served. Mrs. Henry Fuller and the Home Life Department of Macon Woman's Club furnished goodie bags for everyone and punch was served by the rest home staff.

The residents always look forward to Easter and several went home for the holidays.

The Davis Allen Gardner Circle of Warrenton Baptist Church came out and brought us a big box of toiletries to use in the barber shop and for the residents.

We appreciate those things and they will be put to good use.

We have several people on the sick list this week: Mollie Dye, Fletcher Harrison, Walter Rivers, Blanche Stewart, Eugene Taylor and Pete Hudgins.

We want to extend our sympathy to Pete Hudgins and all of his family on the loss of their mother, and also to Clyde Hicks of Henderson on the death of his wife. Mr. Hicks has been our electrician here at the rest home for several years, and we know all of his family.

We have had a group from the South Henderson Church of God come on several Sunday afternoons and play gospel music for us and the residents really do enjoy them. They were here for services yesterday afternoon and everyone who was able came down to the living room to hear them.

The residents enjoy music so much, and we really appreciate their taking time to come out and share their talents with us.

We have been very lucky to have groups from all over our area come out and entertain us two and three times a month.

Some of these groups visit seven or eight other homes regularly and give so much of themselves to make the residents' days a little brighter.

'Til next week, God bless.
