Warren County resident Mrs. Loree S. Harris has been elected to represent District 11 on the North Carolina Association of Educators Board of Directors. Announcement of the results of recent elections within the association was made on April 30 following a meeting of the NCAE State Elections Committee.

Mrs. Harris formerly taught in the Warren County school system and has recently accepted a position with Vance County Schools. Karen Garr, a Wake County teacher, was elected vice president-elect of the association. Currently the president of the Wake County Association of Classroom Teachers, she is the second Wake County teacher to hold NCAE's top position in the last four years. Garr becomes NCAE president-elect on July 1 and will automatically succeed to the presidency on July 1, 1986.

MRS. TIMOTHY WAYNE HOLMES

Miss Harris Weds Timothy W. Holmes

On Saturday, May 4, Miss Sallie Elizabeth Harris, formerly of Macon, became the bride of Timothy Wayne Holmes of Louisburg. The Rev. Jon Strother performed the double ring ceremony at the Macon United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Harris, Jr. of Macon. She is a graduate of Louisburg College and is employed in Raleigh at the North Carolina Museum of Art.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Holmes of Louisburg. He is a graduate of Louisburg High School and is self-employed in Louisburg with Northstate Erectors.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

After a trip to the coast, the couple will reside in Raleigh.

The groom's father was best man. Groomsmen were Rodney A. Holmes of Raleigh, brother of the groom, and J. Wesley Harris of Reidsville, brother of the bride.

Raymond Allen Harris, II, brother of the bride, presented a program of wedding music at the organ.

Miss Kerry Harris of Afton, niece of the bride, served as maid of honor.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents.

Centuries Of Songs Set

Concert Plans Set At Inez Plantation

A concert of American songs will be presented by Donna Dease, mezzo-contralto, and Frederick Moses, bass-baritone, at Cherry Hill in Inez on Sunday, May 26, at 3:30 p.m.

The program will include songs from the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries. Among the eight composers whose works will be performed are Stephen Foster (1826-1864) and contemporary composer Aaron Copeland.

Ms. Dease and Moses, both frequent soloists in North Carolina, have been heard most recently in Bach's "Magnificat" with the North Carolina Symphony and his "St. Matthew Passion" with the Charlotte Symphony. They also sang in "The Medium," an opera by Gian Carlo Menotti and presented at the Duke University celebration "Winterfest."

In 1983, Ms. Dease was a prize winner at the Franz Schubert Institute in Baden-bel-Wein, Austria, for her excellence in performing German art songs. She is a native of Raleigh.

Moses is a member of the music faculties of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, the North Carolina School of the Arts, Winston-Salem, and the Classical Music Seminar at Eisenstadt, Austria.

Admission to the Cherry Hill concert is $5. Reservations must be made in advance and may be obtained by calling 257-4432.

Cherry Hill, an antebellum plantation home, is located on Route 58 at Inez in Southern Warren County.

Your HEALTH TIP

FROM WOODY KING

'HALT SALT'

Americans consume 10 to 20 times more salt than they need, which may result in excess weight despite strict dieting. Numerous studies have all shown that too much salt causes both overweight and high blood pressure. The sodium in salt acts to retain water in the body. The average American diet contains all the salt a normal person requires, so put away the salt shaker and enjoy better health!

ings, including Jurors Choice Award, first place for Six Inches Square Division, and MIGRATION '85 Award, in which Mrs. Rodwell's work will tour galleries throughout Montana for six months.

Juror for this international event was Frank Webb, member of the American Watercolor Society and Audubon Artists. He has selected several of Rodwell's works for participation in previous national exhibitions.

Mrs. Rodwell's selected entries each depicted rural Warren County scenes, rendered in opaque watercolor.

The Warren County Community Schools program will sponsor Mrs. Rodwell in painting sessions in July. For further information on class schedules, contact Mrs. Mary Hunter, Warren County Community Schools Program director, at 257-3184.
