Wedding Vows Are Exchanged

Ruby Dolores Seaman of Norlina and Joseph G. Taylor of Wilson were united in marriage on Saturday, August 10, in a 7:30 p.m. double-ring ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Ridgeway. The Rev. H. Douglas Rathjen officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter P. Seaman of Norlina. She graduated from Warren Academy and attended Vance-Granville Community College in Henderson. Before her marriage, she was employed as a secretary at Rose's Buying and Executive Offices in Henderson.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Buna T. Buchanan and the late Jack Taylor of Elk Park. He graduated from high school in Elizabethton, Tenn. and is employed by Roses's Stores, Inc.

Mrs. Alma Mathews, organist, of Henderson, and Miss Doris Bender, vocalist, of Ridgeway, presented a program of wedding music.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of ivory taffeta designed by Eve Muscio for Milady. The gown was fashioned with an open Queen Anne neckline outlined in Alencon lace beaded in pearls and iridescent sequins. The fitted bodice was overlaid in beaded Alencon lace. The long Edwardian sleeves were fashioned of taffeta and English net embellished with appliques of Alencon lace centered with pearls. The full skirt and attached cathedral length train were bordered in Alencon lace. She wore a waltz-length veil of illusion with Alencon lace held in place by a caplet overlaid in beaded matching lace.

Mrs. Joyce S. Bratton of Winterville served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Linda S. Allen of Raleigh, Miss Elaine C. Bender and Mrs. Lynn T. Stone of Norlina and Mrs. Earline F. Newton of Oxford.

Flower girl was Miss Cassandra L. Bratton of Winterville and ringbearer was Wayne A. Seaman of Manson. Bret Taylor of Wilson served as best man.

Other groomsmen were Leonard J. Kilian of Norlina, Charles A. Seaman of Henderson, Raymond J. Seaman of Manson and Robert D. Melvin of Wilson.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Ruby K. Seaman.

After a wedding trip to the island of Barbados in the Caribbean, the couple will reside in Wilson.

Reception Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the Norlina Woman's Club.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Seaman and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seaman.

After the bridal couple cut the traditional first slice, wedding cake was served by Mrs. Brenda Seaman and Ms. Dolly Woodruff. Punch was poured by Mrs. Elda Seaman and Mrs. (Continued on page 8B)

Henderson Firm Makes Purchase

Mrs. Wilma T. McCracken, president of McCracken Oil Company, has announced the recent purchase of Warren Ice and Fuel Company and John Dore's Amoco Service in Norlina by McCracken.

She noted that McCracken Oil Company plans to continue operating the newly-purchased business out of the present location and with the same personnel, John Dore, Harold Robinson and Seward McKinley. She stated the intention of the company to give the same prompt and courteous service that Mr. and Mrs. John A. Dore have given for many years.

Mrs. McCracken stated that the company is looking forward to expanding operations in Warren County. McCracken Oil Company has served the people of Warren County with Amoco and Quaker State products for nearly a half-century.

McCracken's home office is in Henderson, with bulk plants in Louisburg, Oxford, Wake Forest and Franklinton.

Taylor Given Post With Accountants

Norlina native Robert W. (Bob) Taylor has been admitted as a principal with Holden, Moss, Knott and Co., P.A., regional firm of certified public accountants with offices in Henderson, Oxford and Eden.

Effective July 1, the firm's name has been changed to Holden, Moss, Knott, Clark and Taylor, P.A., according to a recent announcement from the firm.

Taylor is a 1980 graduate of North Carolina State University and a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the North Carolina Association of CPAs. He serves on the committee of governmental accounting and auditing for the N. C. Association.

Active in the community, Taylor is second vice president and secretary-treasurer of the Henderson Lions Club. He serves on the board of directors and as co-chairman for the commercial division for

TIGHT GAUGE?
People in the carpet business often refer to a piece of goods as a tight gauge carpet. This is a term used to describe carpets which are often used in commercial applications, such as those put down in stores, apartment buildings, motels, etc.

The yarn fibers are woven or tufted, close together in tight gauge carpets to give the fabric more ounces of yard per square yard. Tight gauge carpet can withstand tremendous amounts of abuse.
