

The Warren Record

Wednesday, August 27, 1980 • 5th Year • 35

Leggett Says Store Closing Is Definite

By MARY J. HARRIS
Staff Writer

Warren County Commissioner James Leggett said today that the closing of the Warren County store is definite. Leggett said the store has been operating at a loss since it was opened in 1974. He said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use. Leggett said the store was built on a site that was not zoned for retail use.

Rehabilitation Planned Quick City Project Wins State Funding

Warren County Commissioner James Leggett said today that the Quick City project has won state funding for rehabilitation. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area.

Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area.

Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area.

Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area.

Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area.

Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area. Leggett said the project is a major development in the Quick City area.

Dr. William P. Johnson, III, and his son, Matthew Ransom Johnson, III, are shown in a photograph. Dr. Johnson is a prominent figure in the Warren County community. He is shown with his son, Matthew, in a photograph.

No Bids Are Received On College Satellite Work

Architects who submitted bids for satellite work on the Warren County campus were disappointed. The Warren County Board of Commissioners announced that no bids were received for the work.

The Warren County Board of Commissioners announced that no bids were received for the work. The Warren County Board of Commissioners announced that no bids were received for the work.

Four Drug Counts Are Lodged Here

A total of four drug counts were lodged in Warren County today. The counts were against individuals who were suspected of drug possession. The Warren County Sheriff's Office announced the counts.

The Warren County Sheriff's Office announced the counts. The Warren County Sheriff's Office announced the counts. The Warren County Sheriff's Office announced the counts.

Pledges Of Local Funding Made For Perdue Project

Public and private efforts to help finance a $138,000 water and sewer project at Perdue's proposed $3 million Soul City hatchery were pledged last week. Local officials and citizens have pledged their support for the project.

Local officials and citizens have pledged their support for the project. Local officials and citizens have pledged their support for the project. Local officials and citizens have pledged their support for the project.

TIME TO DESIGNATE

Farmers wishing to designate or redesignate a tobacco warehouse for the sale of their tobacco should come to the ASCS office on any work day from Aug. 29 through Sept. 5.

Expansion Slated By Local Concern

Warrenton businessman Eddie Clayton announced last week plans for enlarging the services of Tar Heel Tire Sales and Service in expansion to the former Randy Curran Chevrolet property across E. Macon Street from Clayton's present location.

Terry Completes Camp

Reginald Terry, son of Carlton J. and Hilda M. Terry of Rt. 2, Macon, has completed training in fundamental military skills at the Army ROTC Challenge camp, formerly Basic camp, at Fort Knox, Ky.

Williams

Some 3,100 students are expected before registration is completed, Williams added, noting that many students will not enroll until after Labor Day. The schools will be closed Monday for the Labor Day holiday.

Rezoning Bid Denied Commissioners OK Increase in Sales Tax

Warren County commissioners Wednesday night voted 4-2 to deny a rezoning bid and to approve a 1/2-cent increase in sales tax. The vote was taken after a public hearing in which no opposition was expressed.

Commissioners OK Increase in Sales Tax

The new tax, which will bring the sales tax to five cents on the dollar, will become effective Oct. 1. It was approved with commissioner Francis Alston making the motion, seconded by Commissioner George Shearin.

Expansion Slated By Local Concern

Warrenton businessman Eddie Clayton announced last week plans for enlarging the services of Tar Heel Tire Sales and Service in expansion to the former Randy Curran Chevrolet property across E. Macon Street from Clayton's present location.

Four Drug Counts Are Lodged Here

A total of four drug counts were lodged in Warren County today. The counts were against individuals who were suspected of drug possession. The Warren County Sheriff's Office announced the counts.

Expansion Slated By Local Concern

Warrenton businessman Eddie Clayton announced last week plans for enlarging the services of Tar Heel Tire Sales and Service in expansion to the former Randy Curran Chevrolet property across E. Macon Street from Clayton's present location.

Pledges Of Local Funding Made For Perdue Project

Public and private efforts to help finance a $138,000 water and sewer project at Perdue's proposed $3 million Soul City hatchery were pledged last week. Local officials and citizens have pledged their support for the project.

Expansion Slated By Local Concern

Warrenton businessman Eddie Clayton announced last week plans for enlarging the services of Tar Heel Tire Sales and Service in expansion to the former Randy Curran Chevrolet property across E. Macon Street from Clayton's present location.

TIME TO DESIGNATE

Farmers wishing to designate or redesignate a tobacco warehouse for the sale of their tobacco should come to the ASCS office on any work day from Aug. 29 through Sept. 5.

Expansion Slated By Local Concern

Warrenton businessman Eddie Clayton announced last week plans for enlarging the services of Tar Heel Tire Sales and Service in expansion to the former Randy Curran Chevrolet property across E. Macon Street from Clayton's present location.

Terry Completes Camp

Reginald Terry, son of Carlton J. and Hilda M. Terry of Rt. 2, Macon, has completed training in fundamental military skills at the Army ROTC Challenge camp, formerly Basic camp, at Fort Knox, Ky.

Williams

Some 3,100 students are expected before registration is completed, Williams added, noting that many students will not enroll until after Labor Day. The schools will be closed Monday for the Labor Day holiday.

Dexter Davis, Jr., Eric Bartholomew and Todd Bolton, kindergarten students at Mariam Boyd School, await with anticipation their assignment to a class on the first day of school Monday. Warren County's public schools enrolled 2,810 students on opening day, according to Superintendent Mike Williams. Some 3,100 students are expected before registration is completed, Williams added, noting that many students will not enroll until after Labor Day. The schools will be closed Monday for the Labor Day holiday. (Community Schools Photo by Mary Hunter)