Engaged Couple Feted At Cookout

A cookout honoring Kim Smith and Jeff Fleming was held Saturday, June 20, at the home of Jerome and Rose Jackson in Middleburg. Entertaining with the Jacksons were Glenn and Dawn Coleman, Chuck and Geri Curtis, Sidney and Ann Fleming, Eddie and Edith Hurdle, Duke and Edith Mabry, and Millard and Becky Paschall.

Upon arrival the honoree was presented a corsage of miniature pink carnations and baby's breath tied with pink ribbon. The couple was remembered with a natural wicker picnic basket lined with blue and white checked gingham.

Summer Fun Day Set

"A Day of Summer Fun at King's Dominion" was the main discussion of the Best Better 4-H Club at its regular meeting held on June 22 at 7 p.m. at Mariam Boyd School.

After a social hour guests were served barbecued chicken, boiled potatoes, slaw, bread, pound cake, brownies and iced tea. Tables, covered with white cloths, held pink begonias in white baskets.

A chartered bus for the trip in Virginia will leave the Warren County Agricultural Bldg. at 8 a.m. on Friday, July 3, and will return at 9 p.m. Space for the trip will be assigned on a first-come-first-served basis at a cost of $26, which covers transportation and the admission fee to King's Dominion.

Interested individuals should contact Mrs. Portia Barnes at 257-3519 or Mrs. Rebecca Solomon at 257-2349.

Big or small. If it's a diesel, it deserves Amoco Premier Diesel Fuel.

It's specially formulated to treat your diesel equipment just right. It's high in cetane for fast starts, and low in sulfur for reduced deposits. And it's blended for the kind of flow and burning properties that give smooth power and less smoke. It also contains D-Guard, an exclusive additive combination to help protect fuel injectors.
