IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, Catherine Jefferies.

Another year has come and our hearts are sad, but we all know the love you had shared with all of us.

We miss you, Mama, and as our next generation comes, we will teach and tell them about the life, love and understanding you shared with us.

We all know you love us, but God loves you best and one day we will have a family reunion on the other side.
THE CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN

"Precious Memories" was sung at your funeral that day.

For on February 2, 1988, the Lord took you away.

You were my grandmother and I loved you so.

You were ninety-eight years old - it was your time to go.

The Lord you always put first in your life.

The Bible you read daily until your lost some of your sight.

Even then each day you asked someone I heard.

To come to your room and read from God's word.

You reared eighteen children, the oldest of yours was my day.

You said the day you lost him was the worst you ever had.

You talked about my daughter, Kim, she was the apple of your eye.

She took my daddy's place in your heart - that is the reason why.

You loved all of your children, your step-children, too.

They showed their love for you in all they tried to do.

God gave you thirty grandchildren, that sounds like a lot!

But there were fifty-six great-grandchildren, believe it or not!

The Lord blessed you with five great-great-grandchildren, Most too young to understand.

Someday they can be told about you and that you live in a better land.

Your memory was as sharp as could be, even through the last days.

Everyone would just stop and listen, they seemed to be so amazed.

We will miss you very much, Your loved ones that are left.

We have suffered a great loss and are affected by your death.

I know God will comfort us and ease the pain we bear,

For you are in your heavenly home and you'll be happy there.

"Precious Memories" of Alma T. Lynch - is love that could never be measured.

This kind of love comes once in a lifetime and will always and forever be treasured.

I love you,
BARBARA STALLINGS
Granddaughter

The following is written in memory of Anthony Alston, Jr. who died May 4, 1983. May is the saddest month since God called you home to be with him in heaven and leave us all alone.

It's sweet to know we'll meet again where parting is no more;

And that the one we loved so dear has only gone before.

Beside your grave we stand with heart both crushed and sore.

But in the wind the sweet words come not dead, but gone before.

God knows how much we miss you, He counts the tears we shed,

And whispers "he's only sleeping." "Your loved one is not dead."

We know that you have gone to rest, your work on earth was through.

But only God in heaven knows how much we all still miss you.

Time and years roll swiftly by but loving memories never die.

Still loved, still missed, still very dear.

As we come to the end of five long years.

Your Son,
PREVIS ALSTON & FAMILY
