Traveling Tourism Is Topic Of Talk Before Clubwomen

"Traveling Tourism of North Carolina" was the topic discussed by a United Telephone System representative at the Nov. 1 meeting of the Norlina Woman's Club.

After being introduced by Mrs. Alice Robertson, Wayne Lewis used slides to illustrate many places of interest in eastern North Carolina. He is affiliated with the Winston-Salem/Raleigh district of United Telephone.

The nine members attending the meeting hosted at the Norlina Woman's Clubhouse by Mrs. Mildred Grissom and Mrs. Lou Traylor were welcomed by Mrs. Eleanor Hayes, vice chairman. Mrs. Alice Robertson led the devotion, using "A Bundle of Sticks," a reading from the N.C.F. book of devotions. Mrs. Alice Stultz led the pledge to the flag.

The minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as read by Mrs. Pattie Brauer. The treasurer's report was accepted as read by Mrs. Lou Traylor. There were no committee reports. A decision was made to remember two members who are ill. A sweet course was served by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be a covered dish meal on Dec. 6 at 6 p.m. hosted by Mrs. Allison Hundley and Mrs. Mary Ann Hill. Guests will be the husbands and friends of members.

Connection Fee Hiked

The Norlina Town Board held their monthly meeting Monday night in the Norlina Town Hall and took the following action:

- set the leaf pick up dates from Oct. 15-Jan 15 each year. Residents are asked to have leaves only raked to the street ditch line. Town personnel will not enter any yards to pick up leaves.
- raised the water reconnection fee to $20 from $5. In addition, Norlina residents will have to pay a $50 charge if their meter has to be disconnected. A $40 deposit is required for those residents who rent their homes or live in mobile homes. The new rates go into effect January 1.

Nine Million Pounds Sold On Local Market In 1989

By DIANE DAVIS
Staff Writer

The Warrenton Tobacco Market closed with an average nearly six and a half dollars higher than that of last year, but tobacco companies didn't buy as much of the golden leaf as anticipated by local farmers.

Mrs. Alice R. Robertson, sales supervisor for the local market, reported that the market closed this year with an average of $168.31, $6.42 above last year's closing average of $161.89.

Total pounds sold during this year's market were 9,026,277 for an amount of $15,192,004.99.

The Flue-Cured Tobacco Stabilization Corporation claimed

753,147 pounds of tobacco, or 8% of this year's leaf.

Mrs. Robertson said only 41,301 pounds, or 1% of the 1988 market's leaf was taken into Stabilization stocks.

"Last year, the tobacco companies purchased more tobacco," she said.

Sold on Wednesday of last week were 146,232 pounds of tobacco for a value of $245,530.39. An average of $167.90 was calculated, with 14,319 pounds of leaf falling under the federal support price level.

The final sale day brought in $103,462.07 to local farmers, with 62,792 pounds being sold. An average of $164.77 was figured for that day, with 430 pounds going to Stabilization.

There were 25 sales days on this year's market. Mrs. Robertson said that because of the low poundage at the end of this season, there will not be much carryover leaf when the 1990 Warrenton Tobacco Market opens.

Two Are Baptized

Hawfield Regains Mayor's Post In Littleton Voting

Littleton Mayor Offa Lou Jenkins lost her re-election bid to former mayor Mason Hawfield on Tuesday.

Hawfield, who was beaten by a single vote by Mrs. Jenkins two years ago, claimed victory by a 196-118 margin.

Meanwhile, a non-incumbent, Robert Thorne, was the top vote getter as nine persons ended their race for five town board seats. Thorne garnered 222 votes as two newcomers were declared victorious.

Joining Thorne on the board will be William Crawley, who polled 176 votes. They will be seated alongside incumbents Allene Alston (193 votes), Sabina Gould (176 votes) and Roger Gup-ton (184 votes) when the new board takes office.

Unsuccessful Littleton board candidates were incumbent James Kearney (133), Billy Collier (151), Matt R. Johnston (105) and Betsy Hart (84).

Commissioner Catherine Clark did not file for re-election.

Deadline Is Given

The deadline for entries into the 1989 Warrenton Christmas Parade is December 1. Interested persons may contact Aubrey Hines, 257-3181, Diane Davis, 257-3341, or Ruth Haymore, 257-1052, to enter.

The parade is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 9 at 11 a.m.

Pimientos are mild, spicy red peppers.

John W. Thompson, superintendent of Warren County Schools, purchases the first ticket to the upcoming NCAE "Scholarship Ball" from Elizabeth Reid, teacher at John Graham Middle School. The semi-formal dance will be held on Saturday, Dec. 9 from 9 p.m.-1 a.m. at the Warrenton National Guard Armory. Music will be provided by the Eve Cornelius Band. Tickets are now on sale for $25 per couple, $15 single, and may be purchased by contacting any NCAE faculty representative, Mildred T. Williams or Kathy Allen at Norlina Middle School or Elizabeth Reid of John Graham. Proceeds from the dance will be used to fund scholarships for graduating students who are children of NCAE members.

Man Concealing Identity Remains In Warren Jail

There is a man who has been held in the Warren County Jail since October 27—all because he will not give his name to law enforcement officials.

Sgt. Lawrence E. Harrison of the Warren County Sheriff's Department is the complainant in the case of John Doe, who was charged Oct. 27 with defrauding an innkeeper.

Harrison reported that a man who dined at Anne's Kountry Kitchen said he didn't have any money with which to pay the bill. When the owner of Anne's called the sheriff's department, Harrison reported to the scene. But neither could he get the man to tell his name.

He was placed in the Warren County Jail, and his court date was Nov. 1. He was found guilty of contempt of court for refusing to tell his name to the judge and was ordered confined to the Warren County Jail until he tells his name.

Harrison said Tuesday afternoon the defendant is still in jail—and still will not tell his name.

Norlina's Heritage Club Is For The Young...

NORLINA 456-2776

It's been said that youth is far too wonderful a thing to waste entirely on the young. And at Peoples Bank, we couldn't agree more.

Our Heritage Club is designed to give people 50 and better a variety of banking privileges and membership activities. The local office of Peoples Bank has named a Heritage Club Director, who will be responsible for your banking needs and organizing quarterly activities and seminars of interest to you. The Director will also plan local outings, even trips out of town.

And because we believe age should have its rewards, you'll receive special consideration on your banking relationship. You can earn bonus rates on Certificates of Deposit and there is no penalty for early withdrawals from C.D.'s. You will receive free specially designed Heritage Club checks and unlimited check writing privileges. And, if you maintain a minimum monthly balance of $1,000 in your checking account, you'll earn interest on those funds. There are also special annual percentage rate and annual fee privileges on your Peoples Bank MasterCard or Visa.

The Heritage Club offers special loan rates .25% lower than the current rates in effect. And you get all of these services, simply by maintaining a minimum balance of $3,000 in a Statement Savings, a Money Market Investment Account, a C.D. with term of six months or longer, or in The Heritage Club account itself.

Stop by and see your Heritage Club Director, because the way we look at it, you're as young as you feel.

Your Heritage Club Director is Lucy Holtzman.
