PETITION ASKING FOR ELECTION IN RALEIGH

By Wire to The Sentinel. RALEIGH, April 13.—Petitions asking the Raleigh aldermen to call an election on the question of "dispensary" or "prohibition" were started in circulation about the city this morning under the direction of Rev. S. J. Betts, the well known Baptist minister who has for the past week or more been preaching by special permit of the mayor, each evening to the patrons of the dispensary who go there between 5 and 6 o'clock. Rev. Betts said the time is passed when liquor will ever be sold in saloons in Raleigh again and it only remains now to fight it out as to the issue of dispensary and prohibition. He thinks that he will secure enough signatures to require the calling of the election within the next few days and present the signed petition to the aldermen on the night of the first Friday in May.

AGRICULTURAL EXPORTS MAY PASS BILLION MARK

By Wire to The Sentinel. WASHINGTON, April 13.—The bureau of statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor announces that agricultural products are now making the highest record in exports of the United States and should the present rate continue during the remainder of the fiscal year the total exportation of such products will in 1906, for the first time, cross the billion dollar line. In the first eight months ended with February the value of agricultural products exported amounted to seven hundred million dollars, which is a total considerably in excess of figures for a similar period of any preceding year.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO RECENT ABUSES.

By Wire to The Sentinel. WASHINGTON, April 13.—When the senate met yesterday it passed a concurrent resolution including every member of congress, in a law prohibiting government officials from prematurely divulging certain secret information. The crop leaks, scandals of agricultural department made this action necessary.

SIX PERSONS KILLED BY TEXAS TORNADO.

By Wire to The Sentinel. WICHITA, Kas., April 13.—Six were killed and many injured and great property damage done in the trail of a tornado which swept through northern Texas across Kansas during the night. Most of the damage is reported from the village of Briggs, which was completely wrecked. Stafford and Busston, Kansas, suffered from the storm.

HEAD-ON COLLISION ON WESTERN ROAD.

News was received here this afternoon of a head-on collision between two freight trains early this morning, two miles west of Elmwood, between Asheville and Salisbury. Two or three trainmen are reported to have sustained painful injuries. Both engines and about eight freight cars were practically demolished. The track was torn up for some distance and it is thought that trains will not be able to pass before tomorrow. It is said that the collision was caused by one of the engineers getting mixed up in his orders.

SECOND CONFERENCE AT HAGUE IS POSTPONED.

By Wire to The Sentinel. ST. PETERSBURG, April 13.—It is officially announced that the second Hague conference has been adjourned until September in view of opposition of the United States to holding the meeting the first two weeks in July as originally suggested by Russia.

Miss Louise Siddall, who is teaching music at Statesville, came in this afternoon to spend Easter with relatives and friends.

SLIGHT HOPE NOW.

Continuance of Strike In The Anthracite Coal Fields Appears Inevitable.

Formal Reply of Operators This Afternoon May Offer Some Hope of Amicable Settlement Although It Is Known Reply to Miners' Proposal Will Be Unfavorable. Mitchell Will Reply to Operators' Answer Next Week.

By Wire to The Sentinel. NEW YORK, April 13.—While the outlook for peace in the anthracite region seems hopeless because of flat rejection of miners' demands by operators Mitchell has hopes today that the formal reply of the operators will leave some way open by which there may be a continuance of joint negotiations, looking to adjustment. A formal reply will be made by Mr. Mitchell in a letter next week.

W. H. Truesdale, of the Lackawanna, says that the formal reply of the operators will contain nothing more than informal reply made by Barr at the conclusion of yesterday's meeting.

The operators all unite this morning in saying they have gone as far as they will go in the matter of concessions.

Mitchell leaves after this evening for tomorrow for Indianapolis to attend a meeting of the national executive board which meets Tuesday.

RAISING A FUND FOR VAN SCHAICK'S DEFENSE

By Wire to The Sentinel. NEW YORK, April 13.—Within the last two months $1000 has been subscribed to a fund for the defense of Captain Van Schaick, master of the ill-fated excursion steamer General Slocum. His case will come up on appeal next October, and the pilots throughout the United States are determined he shall have ample funds to fight against the sentence of ten years imprisonment which has been imposed upon him.

An appeal for funds was sent out to the pilots of every important harbor of the United States by the Grand Harbor of the Masters' and Pilots' Association, and returns are coming in rapidly. Captain Luther B. Dow, president of the local harbor of the American Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots of steam vessels, is treasurer of the fund. Like many others the pilots believe that Captain Van Schaick was made a scapegoat and that the persons really responsible for the Slocum disaster were shielded when sentence was imposed upon Captain Van Schaick.

President Roosevelt Will Deliver the Principal Address at the Exercises, His Subject Being "The Man With the Muck Rake."—Large Crowd Is Expected.

By Wire to The Sentinel. WASHINGTON, April 13.—Following in general detail laying of the cornerstone of United States capitol by President Washington in September, 1793, the corner stone of the new office building for members of the house of representatives will be laid tomorrow afternoon. President Roosevelt will be the central figure in the event, which will be under the auspices of the Grand Lodge A. F. and A. M. of District of Columbia. The federal lodge of Masons, which had charge of the ceremony of more than a century ago, will take a conspicuous part.

The Masonic services as provided by the ritual will begin at 2:30. Grand Master Walter A. Brown will speak briefly. Then the president will make the address of the day.

His topic is to be "The Man With the Muck Rake." A brief address will also be made by Speaker Cannon, Representative Hepburn, of Ohio, Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, who were members of the building commission.

The new building, when completed, will cost $3,100,000. The sum of $2,000,000 has been appropriated for an office building for the senate, which will be ready for the corner stone laying in a short time.

GOOD FRIDAY OBSERVED IN NEW YORK CITY.

By Wire to The Sentinel. NEW YORK, April 13.—Good Friday was generally observed here today. The churches of all denominations were open to worshippers and, particularly in the Roman Catholic and Protestant Episcopal churches impressive special services were held in commemoration of the crucifixion. Impressive ceremonies were conducted at the St. Patrick's Roman Catholic cathedral, at which Archbishop Farley officiated. During the mass of the Presanctified "The Passion" was sung by students from St. John's Seminary. At the conclusion of the ceremony, Archbishop Farley, holding aloft the host and attended by four Christian brothers, who held over him a canopy, led a procession of the clergy in the Catholic aisles and back to the sanctuary.

In all Roman Catholic churches a three hours' devotion was held between noon and three o'clock, in memory of the hours of suffering Jesus was obliged to endure before death came. Similar devotions were held in the Protestant Episcopal churches throughout the city. Nearly all the churches were filled with worshippers.

Business was to a great extent suspended. The stock exchange remained closed, but the banks kept open to accommodate their customers. Tomorrow will be Holy Saturday, when in the Roman Catholic churches the holy water, to be used during the year, will be blessed. During the afternoon the funeral decorations in all the churches will be transformed into bowers of beautiful spring flowers, to be ready for Easter Sunday.

Two Marriages.

Ernest L. Dalton and Miss Rosella Witte were married last night at 7 o'clock in East Winston at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. H. A. Brown performed the ceremony. Mr. Clinton Spainhour and Miss Pearl Dungan, both of this city, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents on the Boulevard at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Don't Want the Office.

Postmaster Tyre Glenn, of Greensboro, was here this afternoon enroute to his farm in Yadkin county. "What is the situation in regard to the fight over the postmastership in your town?" the reporter asked. "I don't know anything about it; I do know that I don't want the job any more," replied Mr. Glenn.

—We are requested to state that the Young Peoples' Union of the First Baptist church will not meet tonight.

—We are requested to state that all of the wholesale grocery stores will be closed on Monday.

DAVIDSON TO PLAY WAKE FOREST HERE TOMORROW

The game of ball to be played at Fairview park tomorrow afternoon, will be of special interest to Winston-Salem people.

Wake Forest has a superb team, having defeated A. & M. by a good score and holding down Carolina, 6 to 5, on their own diamond. Turner, the twirler for Wake Forest though young is good, and will make things lively for Davidson.

Although Davidson has lost Vail, Putzer, Morrison and Corrie, she still has a team that can play ball, and with "Bill" Bailey as captain, is sure to give the Twin-City a good exhibition of the national game.

The game will be played at Fairview park tomorrow afternoon and will be called at 4 o'clock.

FULLY 3,000 ARMY AND NAVY OFFICERS TO GO

Special to The Sentinel.

NORFOLK, April 12.—The James town Exposition promises to be the great social event of the century. Blue cloth, red cloth, green or buff, white or orange, dull khaki or still duller nankeen, each has its strong adherent when ornamented with brass buttons.

It is only when he wears a uniform that man vies in beauty of decoration with the fair sex. Especially in America, man's conventional clothes are sombre, and the more formal the occasion the less color appears upon the male person, evening wear having been for years dead black and white. The few sporadic attempts to interject color into man's garments for dress occasions have failed signally.

The soldier or the sailor does not share the disabilities of his fellowman. His gold lace and brass buttons make him a shining spectacle, and perhaps accounts largely for the strange fascination which the military have for womankind. It is a known fact that in England, carrying this argument to an absurd reduction, musketeers and other domestic subsides the petty officers of the British army to walk with them in the parks, and actually pay the soldiers for doing so.

We have not arrived at that stage yet in this country, but girls seem never so proud as when clinging to the arm of a uniform wearer. Military balls, hops aboard ship, entertainments at barracks or navy yards, are usually attended to the full number of invitations sent. Those who decline are generally unattached men, who are not philosophic enough to stand before overshadowed by their better decorated brothers.

Not less than three thousand commissioned officers, naval and military, will be in constant attendance at the Jamestown Exposition. The United States, as host, will plan many social and spectacular entertainments for its visitors. These courtesies will, to a certain extent, of course, be returned by the foreign guests, and as a consequence the harbor of Hampton Roads and the quarters of the officers at the military encampment will be scenes of successive entertainments from the beginning of the exposition to its conclusion.

No special effort will be made by the Exposition Company to have single men detailed for duty during the celebration, but a large proportion of the wearers of Uncle Sam's uniforms, especially those on the sunny side of thirty years, are unmarried, and if no discrimination is made in regard to selection for exposition duty, 1907 will offer a remarkable and unique occasion for American girls to see Uncle Sam's fighters en masse, become acquainted with them, and decide whether they prefer the humdrum life of a business or professional man's consort, or the more glittering outlook as an officer's bride.

White Boy's Narrow Escape.

A white boy, about 12 years old, had a narrow escape from being run over by the incoming passenger train from Charlotte. The boy was walking across the trestle over Fifth street. The engineer saw him just in time to apply his brakes and stop the train, giving the boy a chance to jump off the trestle.

Fred B. Hinshaw, who has been in West Virginia for the last five years, came in last night and is at his father's, W. M. Hinshaw, on Pond street.

Mrs. Andrew Joyner, of Greensboro, is here for the Easter services, the guest of Mrs. F. M. Bohannon on West Fifth street.

TO REPORT SOON.

Senator Burrows Wants To Take Up Smoot Case Finally Tomorrow.

Desires That Report of Committee be Finished at Once.—Attorney Worthington Speaks in Behalf of Smoot Today.—Mrs. Smoot Present at Session of Committee Today.

By Wire to The Sentinel. WASHINGTON, April 13.—Senator Burrows, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, which is considering the Smoot case, will attempt to have a meeting of the committee tomorrow to take up the case for final consideration and report.

This morning Attorney Worthington argued in behalf of Smoot. There was the usual crowd of spectators, mostly women. Mrs. Smoot, who has been conspicuously absent during the hearing, was present this morning for the first time.

BLACKBURN CASE MAY BE SOMEWHAT DELAYED

Special to The Sentinel.

GREENSBORO, April 13.—Owing to the probability now that the bankruptcy case now being tried may not terminate until some time next week, speculation as to what will be the effect on the Blackburn trial is rife. It is not known whether Judge Boyd will agree to move over to the county court house or not in the event that the Wilkes case is not concluded before Tuesday, the day set for the beginning of the Blackburn trial.

That court will be a special term of the circuit court, presided over by Judge Goff, of West Virginia. It is more than probable that the case now in progress will be concluded by Wednesday at least, and it may be that Blackburn case will simply be postponed until then.

Judge Boyd is due in Statesville to open court Monday and that term will certainly be delayed.
