BOY BITTEN BY MAD DOG.

Ten-Year-Old Son of W. M. Rhoades, of Wilkes County, Brought Here in Search of Mad Stone.

Mr. W. M. Rhoades, of Cane Creek, Wilkes county, arrived here this morning with his ten-year-old son in search of a mad-stone.

The father stated that his son was bitten on the left side last Saturday by a rabid dog and that the physician advised Mr. Rhoades to bring his son to Winston-Salem and have a mad-stone applied to the wound. The father said that while the wound inflicted by the animal's teeth gave the boy no pain, he preferred not to take any chances.

The stone owned by Squire Lehman was secured and applied.

Mr. Rhoades told the reporter that the dog that bit his boy was shot and killed on Sunday.

Adoption of Modern Ideas.

We have recently systematized the way of handling transactions between customers and salesmen in the stores of E. W. O'Hanlon, the White Star Co., the Forsyth Hardware Co., Fred N. Day and J. L. Lashmit, all good representative business men of the city of Winston-Salem, N. C. They all say that the modern systems are good paying investments for them, and that the returns are satisfactory. Is it not possible that a new system would pay you equally as well as it is paying these merchants? Talk it over with them. Ask them about the benefits derived and write me and I will come and systematize your store. J. A. Bouscaren, Sales Agent, National Cash Register Co., Trust Building, Charlotte, N. C.
