TUCKER NOT EXECUTED.

Man Condemned To Death For Murder of Mabel Page Gets Respite Until Tomorrow.

By Wire to The Sentinel. BOSTON, June 11.—The execution of Chas. L. Tucker for the murder of Mabel Page, did not take place this morning as was expected. Respite of a day was made by the prison warden so Tucker could be baptized, which ceremony took place this morning in the death cell. Tucker still maintains his innocence and will declare so till the last. Gov. Guild has received a telegram from Roosevelt in which the latter says he will not grant the request of the petitioners to interfere in the execution. Tucker probably will be executed tomorrow.

"THIS IS SO SUDDEN."

Thus Spoke Bryan When Informed That Several State Democratic Conventions Had Endorsed Him For President.

By Wire to The Sentinel. BERLIN, June 11.—"This is so sudden," said William J. Bryan with a laugh when told today of his endorsement by the recent Democratic conventions for the presidency in 1908. "This is the first announcement of the news to me," Mr. Bryan continued. "I have been off the main caravan route for some time and have been absorbed in what I have seen and have been doing." As to the possibility of his nomination he had little to say, declaring it is too early to speak of that question.

DEATH OF REV. B. F. CARPENTER.

End Came Sunday Morning at the Hospital—A Good Man.

Rev. B. F. Carpenter, pastor of the Salem and Southside Methodist Episcopal churches and a member of the Western North Carolina M. E. Conference, passed away at the Twin-City Hospital at 5:15 Sunday morning after three or four weeks' illness, caused by meningitis and fever.

The deceased was about 35 years old and had been in the ministry for several years. He was a faithful and popular pastor and an earnest expounder of the Word of God and his congregations are deeply grieved on account of his death.

Rev. Mr. Carpenter was appointed to the Salem and Southside churches at the last session of the Annual Conference and his work here was proving highly satisfactory as well as successful. He came to this field from Concord.

The remains were sent to Durham for interment, the funeral service being held in that city this afternoon. They were accompanied by the bereaved widow and three children, two sisters of Mrs. Carpenter, Revs. E. E. Williamson and J. F. Kirk.

PLUCK SAVES GIRL'S HONOR.

Miss Pearl Jones, Night Telephone Operator Put Bullet Into Negro Who Premeditated An Assault Upon Her.

A special from Selma to the Charlotte Observer says that Miss Pearl Jones, telephone operator at that place, about 11:30 Saturday night, shot and perhaps fatally wounded Bud Richardson, a negro, who, by his own confession, had premeditated an assault upon her.

Four negroes were arrested, but at the preliminary hearing Sunday afternoon two were released. In his confession Richardson swore that he and Jim Merritt went into the back lot of the telephone office for the purpose of criminally assaulting Misses Pearl Jones and Jessie Hunt, the night operators.

Subscriptions are being taken for the purchase of a handsome gold mounted revolver, a gift from the citizens and visitors to the young lady. The telephone operators along the line are contributing money to purchase a gold medal for her.

BROAD STREET REVIVAL CLOSES.

Resulted in Ten Accessions to the Church—Rev. W. H. Wilson Goes Home.

The revival which has been in progress at Broad Street Baptist church for two weeks, closed Sunday night. The meetings were well attended and resulted in ten accessions to the church—seven by baptism and three by letter. Rev. W. H. Wilson, who preached the Word earnestly and effectively, returned to his home at Madison today. Mr. Wilson is a strong and interesting speaker and his work here the past two weeks increased his already large number of friends.

GOVERNOR IS UNWELL.

Will Probably Not Be Able to Attend to Any Official Business for Several Days.

Special to The Sentinel. RALEIGH, June 11.—Gov. Glenn is again too unwell today to be in his office. He will probably not be able to attend to any official business for several days. In consequence he directed his private secretary this morning to extend respites in the cases of G. W. Samuels and J. W. Hasty from June 15 to July 2, by which time he hopes to be able to hear the applications for commutation of sentence. They are the revenue officers under sentence in Wilkes county to serve terms on the roads for cowhiding Editor Deal, of the Wilkesboro Chronicle, for publishing charges against them of corruption in office.

NEGRO RESISTED ARREST.

Abe Johnson, a had negro, was arrested near the union passenger station yesterday afternoon by Policeman Penry. Johnson had threatened to use a knife on several parties at the depot and when placed under arrest resisted the officer. He was finally landed in the lock-up. His mother, who became very impudent concerning the matter, was also given a berth in the lock-up. Johnson declares that just as soon as he obtains his liberty he will kill Officer Penry and Station Master Jackson, who assisted the policeman in getting him to the station. Johnson will be given a hearing before Mayor Eaton this afternoon.

BUILDING LOT FREE.

The Metropolitan Land Co., which is conducting the big auction sale of lots on Southside, has decided to continue sale two days more in order to give those who have been unable to attend on account of the inclement weather an opportunity to do so.

A handsome lot is to be given away free. For particulars see large ad. in this issue.

COMMITTEE ON AGRICULTURE

Considering Proposed Laws.

Especially With Inspection of Packing Houses and Stock Question As To Who Shall Cost of Inspection.

The Sentinel. BOSTON, June 11.—The committee went into executive session this morning to consider proposals to correct evils complained of in packing houses.

Three distinct measures were proposed, the Beveridge committee, which places the cost of inspection on the packers, the Wadsworth committee, which provides inspection at the expense of a commission embodied in a bill by Judge Cowan, representing the interests of the packers. The position is that the government should appropriate two million dollars for inspection and that next year the amount is not apportioned to the secretary of agriculture on the packers.

ST. PAUL'S SUNDAY.

Music Rendered by the Choir at Both Services.

Program at St. Paul's church yesterday was fine, and the choir rendered it with great effectiveness.

To Demm with Stainer's hymn, "I am Alpha and Omega," a stirring composition, was sung with pronounced individuality. "Holy, Holy, Holy, Almighty," was sung throughout in a thrilling manner.

Miss Houston accompanied the choir services on the organ. The St. Paul's choir in an "Evening With Stainer," at which some work of "Crecifixion," will form a composition. At such a short life of Stainer, consisting of anecdotes of his life.
