Four-Fold Gospel Revival.

Reported for The Sentinel. Last night, in the Four-Fold Gospel church, a large congregation listened intently to every word of Rev. A. B. Crumpler's sermon. On Saturday night he had spoken on heaven. His subject at this service was hell. The discourse brought out the facts that hell exists in the form of a place of conscious torment, that it will be the final abode of the sinner and the ungodly; that the wicked will remain in hell as long as the righteous will in heaven, and that the idea of hell is not inconsistent with God's love, because God has provided an abundant way of escape through Christ.

At the close of the service several more were added to the growing list of professions. Mr. Crumpler will speak twice every day this week, at 3 and 8 p. m. Everybody cordially invited.

Revival at First Baptist Church.

Rev. C. A. Jenkins preached his first sermon at the First Baptist church last night to an appreciative audience. His theme was "Genuine Revivals and Our Need of Them." TO PLAY HERE SATURDAY.

Y. M. C. A. and Mocksville Teams To Contest for Honors at Fairview Park—A Good Game Is Promised As There Are a Number of Good Players on Both Teams.

The recently organized baseball team of the Y. M. C. A. will play the Mocksville boys at Fairview Park next Saturday afternoon. This promises to be an interesting game.

There was a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. team at the Association last night when several matters of importance in regard to the team were discussed. It was decided to purchase uniform of the color to be gray with the letters "Y. M. C. A." on the front of the shirt. N. Smith was elected advertising manager for the season.

While the game in no sense will be a professional contest, yet each team has a number of good players in the line-up and a good exhibition is promised all who attend. Clement and Call will probably compose the battery for the visitors and if Clement is given good support he will make it interesting for the locals. It will be remembered that Clement was the first pitcher of the Trinity College team the past season and among the mighty swatters that fell before the southpaw's curves was the Harvard aggregation.

The battery for the locals has not been definitely decided upon as yet, though it is probable that Kilbuck, who pitched for the Clemomna School team this spring will be on the firing line for Winston.

Tickets for the game will be on sale Wednesday and can be purchased from any of the players. It is to be hoped that the ball cranks will give the newly organized team good support, and in return the boys promise to furnish the Twin-City a number of good games during the summer.

SITUATION IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Only Frame Buildings Being Constructed—Extracts from a Private Letter.

The Sentinel has been shown a private letter written June 3 by a resident of San Francisco from which the following extracts are taken: "Conditions are improving some, but very slowly. The only buildings being put up are one-story frame affairs and not very sightly. I have my doubts of the city ever being anything like it formerly was. The people are afraid to erect brick buildings on account of the earthquakes and afraid to build frame ones on account of the danger of fire."

"We have not had any quivers for a week or more and the people are beginning to go to bed with their clothes off. For quite a while I slept with my clothing on and had a pocket flash light and revolver under my pillow in case anything happens. Nearly every night for the first week or so we would be awakened by a shake."

"We are having the most disagreeable weather that I have ever seen in June. It is colder than it was at any time during the winter and we have had several hard rains which is an unheard of thing for this time of the year in California."

This committee is composed of Aldermen Casper, Lipfert and Cranford, but it is understood that they will not be ready to report tonight.

HACKETT CHOSEN.

Eighth District Democratic Congressional Convention Names Him. Wilkeboro Man Received Every Vote—Hackett Makes Speech Which Produces Tremendous Enthusiasm Among Delegates to the Convention.—Convention Entirely Harmonious One.

STATESVILLE, June 12.—The Democratic congressional convention of the eighth district today nominated Hon. R. N. Hackett, of Wilkeboro, for Congress by a unanimous vote, amid the greatest enthusiasm.

H. P. Greer, of Iredell, called the convention to order, naming John S. Henderson, of Rowan, as chairman.

After organization was effected Chas. H. Armfield, of Iredell, arose and in a neat speech that caught the crowd placed Mr. Hackett in nomination. He said that he withdrew because the people wanted Hackett, for with him "the voice of the people is the voice of God." W. N. G. Wetborn, of Asheville, seconded the nomination. Lawrence Wakefield, of Caldwell, on behalf of Hon. W. C. Newland, also seconded the nomination. Upon a roll call the entire 306 votes were then recorded for Hackett.

Being escorted to the platform Mr. Hackett started to speak but choked up while the tears filled his eyes. The large audience warmed up to him and in a few minutes he had them cheering to echo. He arraigned Balkburn in severe language, described way he had sacrificed his friends, and wound up with a description of how he had ascended the ladder and was going to make a final jump at the state convention for chairman, according to the old "ugger" story of Uncle Joe climbing the ladder. "When he makes the jump he is going to fall, but will not hit the bottom until November 6," said the speaker. His speech set the crowd wild and they shouted with hats in the air and standing on chairs.

OYSTER CULTURE IN N. C.

Report Dealing With This Matter Has Been Recently Issued.

There has recently been issued by the North Carolina Geological Survey a preliminary report on oyster culture in North Carolina. The main object of the present paper is to answer, as far as practicable, certain questions that have been raised regarding oyster cultivation in North Carolina. The questions that are discussed in detail in this paper are:

1. Can oysters be profitably cultivated in North Carolina waters? 2. Is oyster cultivation now an industry of any importance in North Carolina? 3. Can the State by investigation or legislation encourage the development of this industry.

The first question is answered in the affirmative, although this preliminary report does not go into a detailed description of the experimental plantings of oysters that have been made in various parts of Pamlico Sound. In a later report there will be taken up the results obtained from those experimental beds that have been kept under observation and visited at intervals of a few months, regarding the set of "spat," rate of growth; expansion of bed; and other biological and physical conditions.

The second question would have to be answered negatively, not because the oyster cannot be profitably cultivated, but because the planted is protected. The third question, answered in the affirmative, is treated at some length and the fundamental legislative conditions that seem necessary for the building up of the oyster planting industry are indicated.

The cultivation of the oyster offers employment and profit to individuals who will undertake planting. It will be not only a source of direct revenue to the State, but indirectly through the resulting increase of taxable property, should cause a large revenue. At no time in the history of the State has there been such a good opportunity as at the present time for the building up of a remunerative industry in the cultivation of the oyster and this should, within the next few years, become a profitable business throughout many districts along the coast of North Carolina.

There will be published later in the fall a more exhaustive report on oyster culture in North Carolina, which will describe in detail the results of the experiments made during the past three years.
