WENT AFTER WOMAN WITH A SHOT GUN.

A negro named Hence Mitchell created consternation in a section known as "Monkey Bottom," near town, last evening. With a double-barreled shot gun, heavily loaded, Hence went after two negro women, Martha Cobb and Henrietta Stamps. He demanded of the women that they stop all laundry work and then proceeded to pour out two tubs of water. The frightened women remonstrated with Mitchell, who pointed the gun at them, telling them to "move on." It is needless to say that Martha and Henrietta lost no time in going after an officer. Hence was arrested, tried before the mayor and bound over to the Superior court. In default of bond he is in jail. The officer who made the arrest measured the loads in the barrels of Hence's gun by means of the ramrod and found that they contained loads of about two and a half inches. Hence declared at the trial that he had to have his gun to scare away the boys, who had been pestering him.

REVENUE OFFICE TO REMAIN IN ASHEVILLE

Congressman J. M. Gudger, of the Tenth district, wires the Asheville Citizen from Washington that the internal revenue office for this district will be retained at Asheville and that the efficient clerks now in office will be protected.

It was generally believed that the new collector would move the office to his home town, but judging from the telegram sent by Mr. Gudger the powers at Washington have heeded the pleadings of Judge Pritchard and other Asheville citizens to keep the office in that city.

CARD FROM POSTMASTER REYNOLDS.

Editor of The Sentinel.

The article in your issue of recent date may be construed to mean that some action on the part of Mr. J. T. Benbow lost us the chance of getting the collector from this place. In justice to Mr. Benbow I want to say that while some friends of his had mentioned his name for collector this was done without his knowledge or consent, as he told me at the time, and before he would give his consent for his name to be used, he had a talk with me and I told him I would be glad to see him appointed.

While the waters were muddied, as you state, it was not by Mr. Benbow.

C. A. REYNOLDS.

Rev. J. H. Rich spent the night here returning to Greensboro today.

DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL EVENT IN HONOR OF GRAND VICE-CHANCELLOR CRIST

Attended By 300 Members of the Order and Their Friends—Inspiring Address by Mayor O. B. Eaton and Rev. E. S. Croiland—Delightful Music—Refreshments Served on the Academy Campus.

Three hundred Pythians, with their friends, including a number of ladies, attended the reception at the Salem Academy chapel last evening given by the four local lodges in honor of Mr. W. C. Crist, recently elected to the second highest office in the gift of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

The weather was ideal and the exercises were thoroughly enjoyable—in keeping with the way the Pythians do things.

Mr. E. A. Ebert was master of ceremonies and well did he perform the duties assigned him.

The Salem Boys' Band, under the direction of that splendid gentleman and thoroughly qualified instructor, Mr. B. J. Pfohl, captivated the large audience. The organization rendered a number of selections to the delight of the large assembly.

The Pythians and their guests after entering the chapel were first escorted to the front, where they were greeted with hearty handshakes by Mr. Crist and the four chancellor commanders of the local lodges.

It was after 8 o'clock when the exercises opened, the first number on the program being a selection by the band.

This was followed by an address by Mayor O. B. Eaton, who spoke for ten minutes or more. He spoke of the honor that had come to Pythianism as well as to the community by the elevation of one of Winston-Salem's excellent citizens to the office of Grand Vice Chancellor of the Domain of North Carolina. Mr. Eaton's address was a gem. He briefly discussed the principles of the order—Friendship, Charity and Benevolence,—and said that the Grand Lodge recognized that Mr. Crist stood for these principles and for this reason and the fact that he was always loyal to the order he was honored by the grand body. The speaker concluded by urging his hearers to always endeavor to bring happiness to others while laboring to achieve success in life.

PYTHIAN RECEPTION

Delightful Social Event In Honor of Grand Vice-Chancellor Crist

Attended By 300 Members of the Order and Their Friends—Inspiring Address by Mayor O. B. Eaton and Rev. E. S. Croiland—Delightful Music—Refreshments Served on the Academy Campus.

The speaker concluded by urging his hearers to always endeavor to bring happiness to others while laboring to achieve success in life.

A male quartette, composed of Messrs. E. A. Ebert, J. D. Newton, William Woolen and Robt. Lichtenhauer, sang "My Old Kentucky Home." The hearty encore which followed this number gave evidence of the audience's appreciation.

Rev. E. S. Croiland made a happy address. He said that Pythianism could not be defined; that it means more than words can tell; that Pythianism needs no defence, because it stands for truth, purity and benevolence. "The order in North Carolina is composed of men who do things and the Grand Lodge did well when it elected W. C. Crist Grand Vice Chancellor," continued the speaker, who added that no truer and more faithful Pythian could be found in the State than Will Crist, who was the originator of the district meetings, which had proven so beneficial to the order. Turning to the man in whose honor the reception was given, Mr. Croiland said: "You have served the order well; I congratulate you; we are all with you and when you wear the ermine of Chancellor Commander we will still be with you, heart and hand."

Rev. Mr. Croiland's address was followed by a beautifully rendered duet by Miss Gertrude Dean and brother, Mr. Jasper Dean, of the First Baptist church choir.

Representatives of the four local lodges spoke briefly, in which they congratulated Mr. Crist upon the honor that had come to him as well as to the order and Winston-Salem. Mr. A. B. Bynum spoke for Damon Lodge; Mr. Luther Snyder for Forsyth Lodge; Rev. J. F. McCusiston for Salem Lodge and Mr. H. O. Sapp for Wachovia.

At the conclusion of the interesting exercises in the chapel, the entire audience, by invitation, marched to the beautiful campus, which was attractively decorated for the occasion. Here elegant refreshments were served, the ice cream being made in Pythian colors—blue, yellow and red. During this part of the program the Boys' Band rendered several selections.

The Pythians are to be congratulated upon the success that attended their reception. Every member of the order appreciates the courtesy extended by Dr. Clewell in the use of the chapel and campus for this event, which proved most delightful.

LONDON PAPER ON MEAT PACKING MATTER

By Wire to The Sentinel.

LONDON, June 23.—The Saturday Review, usually anti-American, in an article today points out that slaughtering diseased carcasses in the small slaughter houses of England is a common thing. It advocates the construction of public abattoirs and says: "There are small places where food is prepared in London quite as bad as any in Chicago and where the materials used are filthy in every respect."

The queerest thing is how many places a rocking chair can be in a dark room at once to scrape your shins.

There is mighty little fun in paying for it after you have had it.

BIDS FOR TWO NEW BATTLESHIPS OFFERED

Special to The Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Bids were opened by the navy department today for construction of two first-class battleships, the Michigan and the South Carolina. Bids were submitted under two clauses, first on department's plans and specifications for hull and machinery. The preference is given the turbine type. It is probable the navy department will accept the two lowest bids. Among the bidders are Cramps, of Philadelphia; New York Ship Building Co., of Camden, N. J.; Newport News Ship Building and Dry Dock Co., Newport News, Va.; Pure River Ship Building Co., Quincy, Mass., and the Union Iron Works, San Francisco.

OBJECT OF CHAIRMAN ADAMS' VISIT HERE.

In local political circles it is being whispered that when Republican State Chairman Adams was in Winston-Salem last Saturday he held a conference with several of the faithful. It is said that a few of the boys who had not lined up with the organization walked up like little men and pledged their allegiance, thereby forsaking their former associates who persist in standing by and with the Blackburn adherents. A Republican is authority for the statement that if Chairman Adams had delayed his visit a few days he would have received the "marble hand." It is also argued that it will be necessary for Mr. Adams to visit Winston-Salem again in order to get all the opposing forces in line.

MR. J. O. ROBISON GOING TO FRIES, VA.

John O. Robinson, who has held the position of baggage-master and express messenger for ten years, his run being between this city and Roanoke, has resigned and accepted a position in the office of the Washington Mills, at Fries, Va. Mr. Robinson made a fine record while in the service of the N. & W. and the express company and regret was expressed by the officials when his resignation was sent in.

Mr. Robinson will go to Fries the first of the week, probably Monday, to enter upon his duties. His family will probably remain here until fall.

PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

My father, Mr. Robert A. McCray, carried three thousand dollars insurance on his life in the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. of Newark, N. J. He died on the 21st day of May, 1906, and on June 18th, I was advised by Mr. H. W. Foltz, local agent for the company, that check was in his possession ready for delivery in full settlement of the claim. This was the first company to settle for insurance on my father's life, and the prompt and obliging manner in which it was done is very highly appreciated by me.

Respectfully,
W. L. McCRARY.
