ADAMS-BLACKBURN CONTEST.

Lively Fight Expected in Guilford County Republican Convention Tomorrow.

Special to The Sentinel. GREENSBORO, July 6.—As the date for the holding of the Republican county convention to send delegates to the State convention approaches the rivalry between the Blackburn-Adams factions becomes more intense and rumors of all kinds of "dirty work going on" on the other side are flying thick and fast.

Blackburn, with his family, is here and for several days has been directing the campaign in Guilford. Adams claims that he has introduced Wilkes county methods in Guilford primaries, and is preparing to perpetrate all manner of frauds upon the voters, by having primaries called for a certain hour and before the time arrives holding a meeting of gathered Blackburn forces and selecting delegates ahead of time to the fraud of the uninitiated.

One of Blackburn's men this morning in speaking of the acquisition of Bynum by the Adamsites and that of Glenn by the Blackburnites remarked with every evidence of actual glee at the "swap" that Blackburn as usual had got the best of the trade because Bynum was one of the best men but sorriest politician in the Republican party, while Glenn was a good man with the addition of being just as smart in politics as Butler. Glenn had formerly been Blackburn's chief thorn in the flesh, and if the report of his somersault to Blackburn is true, it is said to come from the fact that he hates Blackburn personally less than Adams.
