

AGITATION IN PHILIPPINES

Nationalistic Movement Continues To Cause Trouble There.

This movement now being to campaign against English language in primary Philippine schools. It is fostered by Manila teachers.

11.—The nationalistic movement in the Philippines is now directing its forces against the teaching of English in primary schools. It is fostered by native teachers which appeals to parents and children to become estranged from the language of the mother tongue. The movement is now directing its forces against the teaching of English in primary schools. It is fostered by native teachers which appeals to parents and children to become estranged from the language of the mother tongue. The movement is now directing its forces against the teaching of English in primary schools. It is fostered by native teachers which appeals to parents and children to become estranged from the language of the mother tongue.

SEVERAL TALKS TO THE FARMERS

A Number Of Addresses Are Delivered Before N. C. Farmer's Convention.

Secretary of States Grimes Among Those Who Have Spoken on Practical Topics.—Officers to Be Elected Tomorrow.—Convention Will Close With Barbecue And Brunswick Stew.

Special to The Sentinel. RALEIGH, July 11.—The Farmers Convention here which convened yesterday for a three days session is proving eminently successful. There are more than five hundred farmers in attendance, the majority of them making their headquarters at the college barracks. Technical farm topics are being considered, tobacco growers, cotton planters, dairy farmers and others having sessions separate for the consideration of these special topics. Then at intervals there are joint sessions when addresses are heard. Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes delivered an address on "Ten Years' Progress in Agriculture." Dr. E. B. Wilcox, of the United States department of agriculture, spoke on "Mule Raising; State Veterinarian Tait Butler on the Elimination of the Cattle Tick, and Mr. Ed. H. Webster, of the United States Department of Dairy- ing.

The convention will elect officers tomorrow and there will be a big barbecue and Brunswick stew as a closing feature of the convention. A resolution has been passed calling on the next legislature to appropriate $1,000 for defraying the expense of these annual conventions of the farmers at the college, also a resolution urging the necessity of appropriations by the state and the United States for road building.

TO BUILD HANDSOME VAULT AND MONUMENT

The Consolidated Granite Company, of this city, has just closed a contract to erect at once a beautifully designed vault in the Salem cemetery. It will have two handsome dark columns of blue pearl granite. A four-foot vestibule will be lined with marble. The remainder of the material will be of Mt. Airy granite.

This company has just completed a handsome monument for Dr. S. J. Montague, to be erected shortly in the Salem cemetery. It also has an order to build an especially handsome monument to be erected in the lot of Mrs. V. O. Thompson in the cemetery. In addition the company will furnish the granite for an agricultural building to be erected at Blacksburg, for the Virginia Polytechnic Institute; also granite for the new Planters' Bank at Rocky Mount, N. C. The company has orders from about 15 states for their blue pearl granite.

NOT A CANDIDATE SAYS SECRETARY TAFT

DETROIT, Mich., July 11.—"Don't ask me about it. I am not," was Secretary of War Taft's reply to the question, "Are you a candidate for the presidency?" here this morning. Taft is on his way to Put-in-Bay to address the Ohio Bar Association.

Judge United States Supreme Court.

ONE WORKMAN KILLED ANOTHER

Man Dies In Raleigh Hospital From Injuries Sustained Near Aberdeen.

Both Participants in Fight Employed in Re-Railing Seaboard Track Below Aberdeen.—One Man Attacked Other, Crushing in His Skull Terribly.—Details of the Affair.

Special to The Sentinel. RALEIGH, July 11.—A young man thought to be named John Phillips, died in Rex Hospital here this afternoon from injuries received in a fight near Aberdeen yesterday and considerable indignation is felt on the part of those here who know of the treatment received by the injured man at Aberdeen after he was injured. He was in the employ of a contractor re-railing the Seaboard track below Aberdeen and an associate employe attacked him, crushing in his skull terribly. An Aberdeen physician went to the scene on a special engine and brought the man to his office. The Seaboard authorities were wired for orders to have the man cared for, but declined on the ground that the track work was being done by contract and they had no relation whatever with the wounded man. There being no one to vouch for the expense of treatment the injured man was carried down to the baggage room at the depot, and left there without care for four hours or more when a state officer arrived and interested several citizens in a purse contributed to defray the expense of bringing the man to Rex Hospital here.

So far as can be ascertained here the man who dealt the fatal injury to Phillips has made good his escape. W. W. Gass, after attending the funeral of his mother, returned to Maydan this afternoon.

WOMAN WITNESS IS NOT FOUND

Effort of Detectives To Serve Summons On Mrs. Beatrice Schwartz Futile

She is Wanted to Furnish Evidence for Prosecution in the Thaw Murder Case.—Thaw's Attorneys Refuse to Make Statement About the Case.

By Wire to The Sentinel. NEW YORK, July 11.—Detectives with subpoena servers after an all night vigil at Hotel Pierpont this morning received definite information that Mrs. Beatrice Schwartz, whom they are seeking as a witness in the Thaw murder case, was at Atlantic City. The district attorney's office has secured a grand jury subpoena for her but it cannot be served as long as she remains out of the state.

The fact that Thaw did not take his usual exercise in the jail yards yesterday gave rise to reports that he was ill. As a matter of fact he was busy with his lawyers at the time. His counsel still refuse to talk about the line of defense. They are awaiting the arrival of Mrs. Thaw Saturday.

Sturgis Heard From. Assistant District Attorney Garvan this morning received a letter from William Sturgis, who is at Berlin, Conn., in which the writer states he has no intention of changing his present address and that he can be found any time he is wanted. Sturgis says in the letter he will willingly tell anything he can of the case or of the Thaw family to the district attorney or his representative if he will meet him at his counsel's office in Hartford.

END OF GRAND JURY HEARING

Inquiry Into Standard Oil's Connection With Railways Adjourns Temporarily.

Postponement of Further Hearings at Cleveland, Ohio, Probably Due to Inability to Secure Certain Standard Oil Officials as Witnesses in the Investigation.

By Wire to The Sentinel. CLEVELAND, July 11.—The federal grand jury here investigating relations of oil trust and railroads will adjourn today until next week. United States District Attorney Sullivan is to go to Washington to consult the attorney general on developments in the case. It is said one of the causes of adjournment is the failure to secure the presence as witnesses of Treasurer Vilas and other officials of the Standard Oil Company.

JEWELERS OF THE STATE ORGANIZE.

The North Carolina Retail Jeweler's Association was organized in Greensboro yesterday afternoon. The following officers were elected: President, R. C. Bernau, of Greensboro; vice-president, H. E. Vogler, of Winston-Salem; secretary and treasurer, A. F. Staley, of High Point; directors, J. T. Burke, of Wilmington; C. N. Brown, of Winston-Salem. These five officers will also constitute the executive committee for the next year. The various committees will be appointed by the president later.

Messrs. R. C. Bernau, of Greensboro, and A. P. Staley, of High Point, were elected delegates to the National Retail Jeweler's Association, which meets in Rochester, N. Y., August 2d. Twenty jewelers were present and letters were read from thirteen other jewelers in the State stating that they would join, but that it was impossible for them to be present yesterday.

"CHILDREN'S HOUR" AT THE LIBRARY FRIDAY

The first "Children's Hour" will be held in the auditorium of the Carnegie Library Friday morning at 11 o'clock. The "Bird's Christmas Carol" will be read to the children by the librarian, Mrs. Mary Prather. Children under twelve years of age are invited to attend.

Among the new additions to the library are: "Silas Strong, Millionaire Love Story, The Phil of Light, The Climax, The Earth Trembles, ten volumes of Six Thousand Years of History, map of North Carolina, Webster's unabridged dictionary and stand, donated by Meyers-Westbrook Company, and the University of North Carolina annual, the "Yackety Yack." In the reading room visitors will find the Charlotte Observer, News and Observer, Industrial News, Munsey, Scribner's, Everybody's, McClure's, Life, Success, Harper's Weekly and Monthly, Collier's, Southern Home Journal and Ladies' Home Journal.

The grass and flowers in front of the library help to give the library lot a very pretty appearance. Donna Henry went to Madison this afternoon to visit Mrs. Elizabeth Troglan.

TRIED TO KILL VICE-ADMIRAL

Russian Naval Officer Barely Escaped With His Life This Morning.

For Some Time There Have Been Threats to Kill Vice Admiral Chukney Because of His Severity.—Attempt This Morning Believed to Have Been Made by Authors of Some of the Threats.

By Wire to The Sentinel. ST. PETERSBURG, July 11.—Vice Admiral Chukin, whose assassination was attempted at Odessa, is hailed by sailors and revolutionists because of his severity. The matter of last June and July on the battleship Peterkin, was attributed to his harshness in dealing with the men under his command. He has been marked out as a victim of terrorists for some time. February 9 last a woman tried to kill him. She gained access to his office and shot him four times. When he signed the death sentence of the mutineers from Peterkin he was warned that terrorists were only waiting a chance to kill him. The attempt today is laid at the door of men who had threatened his life before.

ANNUAL MEETING OF A. F. MESSICK CO.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the A. F. Messick Grocery Company was held yesterday afternoon.

Last year's business was reported to have been the most profitable one in the history of the company. The old board of directors was re-elected and Mr. John W. Brown, secretary and treasurer of the company, was added to the board. After the stockholders' meeting the directors met and re-elected the old officers. They also declared the annual dividend of 6 per cent.

The board of directors is composed of Messrs. A. F. Messick, D. H. Blair and J. W. Brown, of this city; Charles K. Messick, of Charlotte; John L. Ashby, of Mt. Airy, and J. R. Marton, of Sileam. The officers of the company are: A. F. Messick, president; J. R. Marton, vice-president, and J. W. Brown, secretary and treasurer. This prospering company was organized six years ago yesterday and their business has grown to four times its original size. The company's main store is situated here, while they have branches at Charlotte and Mt. Airy. The out of town directors were present at the meeting.

TOBACCO MEN DEMUR.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Demurrers were filed in the United States district court today against the indictments found by the federal grand jury against the MacAndrews & Forbes Company, of New York, and J. S. Young Company, of Baltimore, subsidiary companies of the American Tobacco Company; Carl Jungbluth, president of the MacAndrews & Forbes Company, and Howard E. Young, president of the J. S. Young Company, charging them with violations of the interstate commerce law in restraint of trade.

The demurrers allege that the acts charged in the indictments do not constitute a crime in the meaning of the statute; that the facts therein are not set forth with sufficient particularity, and that the defendants are improperly joined.

PLANT FUNDS PAID TO CREDITORS

In the hands of Maj. J. Under review in bankruptcy, under the sale of the Dumask Lumber Company's plant at River, Wilkes county, was held among the creditors. Alexander, in a hearing last this case, rendered a decision that the plant was sold in bankruptcy. It was not filed until after the sale. This meant that parties who furnished land and put up the plant were to be before the men holding mortgages.

CHURCH CORNER STONE.

Robbery in Reidsville.—It contained Collection. A robbery occurred in Reidsville, Va., last week when some parties removed the corner stone of the colored Methodist church and made way with it and its contents. The stone was valued by the congregation because it was in use in their old church and recently it was sent to Reidsville and made over for the new church which has recently completed. In due time the corner stone was laid and some of the members of the congregation assembled to witness the exercises. Some old coins were found in the stone, the amount $1.11, and a collection was made for the church and something was realized. It is supposed that some one in the audience that the collection was put in a bag. At any rate, the following night the stone was prized from the wall and since that time all who have been there.

NEW ENTERPRISES CHARTERED

Number of New North Carolina Enterprises Are Chartered Today.

Others the Elks' Home Company of Greensboro, received a charter. Names of the Different Enterprises With the Amount of Capital of Each.

Montgomery Construction Co., of Point, capital of $100,000, and $100,000 subscribed by W. Montgomery and others. Pritchett Granite Co., of Lexington, chartered with capital of $25,000, subscribed by Zeh, Deaton and others. Oneida Co., of St. Paul, capital for general lumber.

MAN IS ARRESTED.

Was Starting To Sagamore Hill To See President Roosevelt.

Said He Wanted to See the President About an Important Matter.—He Will Be Detained Pending an Investigation Into His Sanity.

By Wire to The Sentinel. OYSTER BAY, July 11.—A man who at first claimed to be a secret service man and then said he was a seaman on the battleship Kentucky was arrested here this morning when trying to hire a rig to drive to Sagamore Hill. He gave his name as Edward Moore and said he came here from New York last night to see the president about an important matter. He will be detained pending an investigation into his sanity.

MAYOR SCHMITZ GIVES POLITICIANS A SHOCK

By Wire to The Sentinel. SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Mayor Schmitz gave the politicians a shock last night when he announced that he had asked for the resignation of the police commissioner and is determined to clean up the entire city government.

A HORRIBLE CRIME

Fiendish Murder In Large Hotel In City of Minneapolis, Minn.

Man Beats Girl's Head to a Pulp, Then Pours Kerosene On Her And Sets Fire to It.—Murderer Has Thus Far Eluded Officers.

By Wire to The Sentinel. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 11.—One of the most shocking murders in the history of Minneapolis was committed last night in the National Hotel here. H. B. Wilson, said to live in Milwaukee, killed Gladys Moore. The motive is believed to have been jealousy. Wilson pounded the girl's head almost to a pulp, then poured kerosene over her clothing and set fire to it. The body was almost consumed before the crime was discovered. Wilson escaped and so far has eluded the authorities.

New Advertisements.

Rosenbacher & Bro.—White goods and linens. Geo. L. Andre, editor Southern Home Journal.—Announcement. Mrs. Charles Sisk, of North Wilkesboro, is spending a few days here with friends. W. C. Bain and G. V. Pickett, of Greensboro, and H. C. St. Clair, of Salisbury, were among today's visitors. David Petty went to Hills this afternoon.

ARE FINED $60,000

Chicago and Alton Railroad And Two Former Officials Fined.

Were Convicted of Giving Rebates to a Packing Firm and Fine Was Imposed by Federal Judge Landis in City of Chicago Today.

By Wire to The Sentinel. CHICAGO, July 11.—The Chicago and Alton Railroad Company and two of its former officials, John N. Fairborn and Fred Weist, were fined the aggregate sum of $60,000 today by federal judge Landis. Fairborn was vice president and Weist general freight agent of the company in May when they are alleged to have paid $13,466 to the meat packing firm of Schwartz, Child and Sussberger, of Kansas City.

The Contract Not Let.

The building committee of the Masonic Temple did not let the contract this afternoon. John Releh has gone to Moore's Springs for a week's stay. He is not sick—just off to thoroughly test his new .22-caliber rifle. L. C. Crouch and negro clerk were yesterday fined $25 and costs in two cases for keeping open the store on Sunday. An appeal was taken. Miss Mary Belle Smith, of Rural Hill, is the guest of Misses Mamie and Eulo Wall.

ARE DISSATISFIED.

Russian Soldiers Show Increasing Signs of Great Discontent.

There Have Been a Number of Mutinies Among Members of Russian Army Recently And That Organization Is in Bad Shape in Many Places.

By Wire to The Sentinel. ST. PETERSBURG, July 11.—A bold robbery of the admiralty paymaster's office was accomplished today by three young men who pillaged the place after shooting the treasurer and two watchmen and made their escape. They took a bag containing 24,000 roubles.

Mutinies on account of dissatisfaction of troops in various parts of the empire are becoming very common and outbreaks which occurred where soldiers have offered violence to officers or resisted attempts to make them obey orders are significant as showing the general unrest which prevails in the army. Ten serious mutinies have been reported from as many different districts.

Quite a neat sum was realized at the ice cream supper given by the Ladies Aid Society of the West Salem Methodist church last Saturday evening. The ladies wish to thank their patrons for their attendance. $42 was cleared. J. H. Clowell, Jr., who has been attending Lehigh University, at Bethlehem, Pa., came in this afternoon.

ROOT PARTY SAILS.

Leaves San Juan, Porto Rico, For a Short Trip To The Country of Brazil.

Secretary of State And His Companions on Present Extended Ocean Trip Much Interested in Porto Rico And People of That Country.

By Wire to The Sentinel. SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, July 11.—The United States cruiser Charleston, with Secretary Root aboard, sailed from this place for Para, Brazil, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Root was taken for an automobile ride about Porto Rico.

THREE LADIES HURT IN A RUNAWAY

News was received here today of a bad runaway, which occurred yesterday between Rural Hill and Wade Meem. Three ladies were in a carriage or hack when the horses became frightened and ran. Miss Fannie Cozart, of Durham, was thrown out and left limb was broken. Miss Hale, of Greensboro, sustained a broken or sprained hand. The third, whose name was not learned, received painful bruises. Miss Cozart was carried to Wade Meem. She was reported to be resting comfortably today. The other ladies are at Moore's Springs.