MAY TRY TO OUST HOLTON.

Rumor That Rollins Is Slated For District Attorneyship—Report Discussed Here.

The publication in the Charlotte Observer of a rumor current in Greensboro that Butler, Rollins and Adams held a caucus Tuesday night, after the Republican State Convention adjourned and decided to have District Attorney Holton removed, caused some discussion among the politicians here today. The friends of Holton say that a fight against the district attorney has been going on for two years and they refuse to believe that any effort, even by the organization, to oust him would prove successful.

According to the Observer's report Thos. S. Rollins wants the job and is slated for it. Doubt is expressed whether the ex-State chairman could "pass muster" and secure the endorsement of the department at Washington. It is argued by Republican and Democratic lawyers that Mr. Rollins is not the man for the place. They go so far as to say that he is not in the same class with the present district attorney, so far as ability goes.

Another Republican said that the platform adopted by the Republican State convention endorses the enforcement of the laws by the Federal officers in this State. It is talked that Congressman Blackburn had promised his forces to see that Holton was put out in six weeks after his (Blackburn's) election as State Chairman.

SPLENDID ATTRACTION.

"Wonderland" With "Little Chip" and Mary Marble to Be Presented Here During Coming Season.

The celebrated actress, Miss Mary Marble, and the equally famous comedian, Sam Chip, better known as "Little Chip," will appear here next fall in that great success, "Wonderland." The following is taken from advance notices: One of the first high-class attractions of the season will be the gigantic New York-Chicago-Boston success, "Wonderland." Julian Mitchell made this great scenic musical spectacle the effort of his life, while the story from Glen MacDonough is beautiful in purity and originality, and Victor Herbert declares his life effort is in the music. Sam Chip who created the original comedy role, will head the company and Mary Marble will be one of the features.

There are seventeen original musical numbers by Glen MacDonough and Victor Herbert in Julian Mitchell's great scenic production "Wonderland." This attraction is one of the high grade offerings of the season, and will bring the original scenic equipment, and will be headed by the principal comedian Sam Chip, and in the company will be Mary Marble and the best of all the original cast, together with the group of beautiful girls.

Julian Mitchell eclipsed all his great successes, even "Babes in Toyland" and "Wizard of Oz," when he created "Wonderland," and his co-workers, Glen MacDonough and Victor Herbert, have shared in the wonderful success of spectacle in New York, Chicago and Boston. Jos. M. Galtes will personally direct the tour this season, and many of the original cast, including Sam Chip, the comedian who created the principal comedy role, Mary Marble and other popular entertainers are in the company.

Three sixty-foot baggage cars, a corps of skilled stage carpenters, property masters, electricians, scenic artists, and wardrobe mistresses travel with the "Wonderland" Company that is to go over the circuit this season.

PRAISE FOR FIREMEN.

Chief Taylor and Meinung Speak in Appreciative Manner of Winston and Salem Fire-Fighters. And the Impression They Made at the Tournament.

To the Editor: Never before in the nineteen years they have attended the state tournaments have the firemen of our cities made as favorable an impression as they did in Asheville this week. Having the largest number they were given the prominent place in the parade that they justly deserved, and the seventy-five strong men with their attractive uniforms made a good impression upon the thousands that saw them that will long remain vivid in their memory. As evidence of this fact they were cheered all along the line of march as were no other companies in line. Each wore badges bearing the name of our city and as the shouts of Winston-Salem rang out it made us proud of the boys we claim as ours.

A more orderly, well-behaved crowd was never seen, and their gentlemanly manner won for them words of praise and commendation from all who came in contact with them. In the words of the proprietor of the Battery Park Hotel, "Chief, you have a right to be proud of your firemen; we have never entertained a body of men who gave us so little trouble, and who conducted themselves in a better manner."

Let us add that Winston-Salem has a body of firemen equalled by few and excelled by none. They serve us faithfully at home, and are a great credit to our city when seen by thousands as they were this week.

R. C. TAYLOR, F. C. MEINUNG, Chiefs Winston and Salem Fire Departments.

Firemen's Parade.

The following is from the Asheville Citizen of yesterday: Today's firemen's tournament events were featured with the grand parade shortly after nine o'clock this morning. The passing in review of the visiting and local firemen with gorgeously decorated apparatus and prancing steeds was an imposing scene. The handsome uniformed, well-groomed laddies were on their mettle. They were in high spirit and graciously acknowledged cheers and smiles that greeted them along the line of march. The parade was witnessed by thousands of residents and visitors and excited much favorable comment. In the language of President McNeill, North Carolina's quota of American heroes were on parade today. Intermingled with the marching firemen and the fire apparatus came many carriages with handsome trappings and drawn by spirited horses. From carriage and brake daintily gowned, charming young women smiled their pleasure and joy and all of Asheville went on a lark while the band played and the people cheered.

The parade was perhaps the loveliest that Asheville has ever witnessed. It stretched along several blocks and was watched with interest and animation. The parade formed at the corner of Haywood street and Montford avenue. With the First Regiment band playing spirited tunes and to the beating of drums the column wound its way through the principal streets. Mayor Barnard, Alderman Randolph, Alderman Fitzpatrick, President McNeill, the fire chiefs of the various towns, distinguished visitors and a number of ladies occupied carriages following close to the heels of the band. Then came the long line of fire apparatus gaily decorated firemen on foot and many carriages containing the sponsors and maids of honor of the fire companies. A number of livery turnouts, with gay streamers and profuse decorations found place in the parade and added to the gaiety of the occasion. The weather man again favored Asheville this morning and a more pleasant day could not have been selected for the parade. The fire laddies enjoyed the parade as much as the curb and street corner, and by day's event will go down in fire history as one of the most pleasant in the annals of the North Carolina State Firemen's Association.

DEATH OF CAPT. GEO. MATHES.

Former Editor of Western Sentinel Dies in Florida.

Capt. Geo. M. Mathes, who edited the Western Sentinel in this city for a number of years, died at his home near Turkey Creek, Florida, June 17, after an illness of some three weeks and was buried the following day at Pleasant Grove Cemetery. The services were held at the Pleasant Grove M. E. church and were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Roberts, assisted by Rev. Mr. Evans. A very large gathering of friends and neighbors was present. The singing was rendered by friends and the Pleasant Grove choir. The floral offerings were especially beautiful.

Captain Mathes sold his paper here to Mr. Edward A. Oldham and moved to Florida in 1883. The Metropolis of Jacksonville, Fla., has this to say of the deceased: "In the passing away of Capt. Mathes another participant in the stirring history of the past is gone. His family history was closely interwoven in that of Eastern Tennessee. His father's family were among the sturdy Scotch settlers of early colonial days, and his mother's family, the McCowns, were the owners of a royal land grant of several hundred thousand acres and one of the large slave-holding families of that section. His father was a prominent physician, a graduate of Princeton University. Capt. Mathes was born in Sevier county, Tennessee, August 11, 1837. His father dying while he was yet a lad, he came under the care of his maternal uncle, Gen. John C. McCown, who was a classmate of Grant and Lee at West Point. Through his uncle's influence he was appointed to Annapolis, where he was educated. His love for adventure led him to resign his commission and travel in Mexico and the far West. He was one of the one hundred young men who volunteered in Walker's filibustering expedition to Central America. When the Civil war broke out he was made a captain in his uncle's regiment, and he afterward told with great pride that he captured the first flag in this war. At the close of the war he took up the profession of journalism. For nearly twenty years he was proprietor and editor of the Winston Sentinel, of Winston, N. C., and for the greater part of that period he took a prominent part in the politics of that State, being a most zealous and unwavering Democratic leader. On account of bronchial trouble he came to Florida in August, 1884. He was at one time editor and proprietor of the old Tampa Tribune. For several years past he had been in poor health, having sustained two strokes of paralysis, and had been gradually failing until his final illness seized him three weeks ago. Capt. Mathes was a most interesting and graphic raconteur, and those fortunate enough to be numbered among his auditors when a reminiscent mood was upon him were more than pleased. Capt. Mathes leaves a wife, Mrs. Lena B. Mathes, so favorably known as one of the best instructors in the state, and two promising sons, Yorick and Coke, and also a brother, Capt. Ben Mathes, of Tallahassee.

By Wire to The Sentinel. NEW YORK, July 12.—Mrs. Mary Schwarz, intimate friend of Mrs. Harry Thaw, who has been under subpoena to appear before assistant District Attorney Garvan to tell what she knows of the case, was still too ill today to appear. It is now said that she never met Thaw and that all she knows is what Evelyn Nesbit told her.

Mrs. Thaw called at the Tombs again today to see her husband and remained with him until after twelve.

NOT ENOUGH EVIDENCE.

Government Not Yet Ready to Proceed in Case Against Certain Railroad and Other Corporations.

By Wire to The Sentinel. WASHINGTON, July 12.—More than a year ago the Receivers and Shoppers' Association of Cincinnati, petitioned Roosevelt to proceed through the Department of Justice against the Southern Railway Company, Southeastern Mississippi Valley Association, Southeastern Freight Association and others who are alleged to have combined in restraint of trade to monopolize commerce and discriminate against the commercial interests of northern and western in favor of eastern states in trade relations with Southern states. The department of justice decision has now been reached that the government cannot proceed in the courts unless the case presented by the Cincinnati complainants shall be materially strengthened. Assistant Attorney General Purdy, who has charge of the case, has not definitely dropped it but correspondence is going on between Department of Justice and R. B. Smith of Cincinnati, representing petitioners, the purpose of which is to call attention to weak spots and securing of such evidence as will convince Assistant Attorney General Purdy that he would be justified in taking the matter before the courts.

N. C. RAILROAD MEETING.

Stockholders Held Semi-Annual Session in Greensboro Yesterday.

Special to The Sentinel. GREENSBORO, July 12.—Yesterday afternoon the board of directors of the North Carolina Railroad on the part of the State and the private stockholders held their regular semi-annual meeting here, declaring a semi-annual dividend of three and a half per cent.

The report of Treasurer Eller showed that during the year the Southern Railway, which leased property, had made many improvements in road bed, rolling stock, buildings, bridges and had paid all rentals promptly.

The private stockholders re-elected Bennehan Cameron, R. F. Hoke and W. L. Holl as their members of the board of directors.

The board was waited on by a delegation of citizens and business men from Burlington asking that some arrangements be made in transfer of property or release of the Southern Railway Company from its lease obligations, so that a stock company could become possessed of the property on which stood the Burlington hotel burned three or four years ago. In order that a hotel costing twenty-five thousand dollars be built by them. The board has several times ordered the Southern Railway to rebuild the hotel, but it has not been done. Burlington people desire now to have a better building than the replacement of the one burned would give. No action was taken on this proposition, a committee being appointed to look into the legal phase of the matter. It is now said by many lawyers that the Southern cannot be compelled to rebuild the hotel, since the State is receiving full value each year in rents as if the building had not been destroyed, the only obligation of the company being to return the property in as good condition as they found it on the expiration of the ninety-nine year lease. The promoters of the new project say they will not risk investing so much money in a building on a sub-lease from the Southern Railway, fearing that the lease to the Railway may some day be declared void, and they want the State to accept a release of that property from the Railway, and give a deed in fee simple to them for the hotel site.

The directors on the part of the State by appointment of Governor Glenn who were present were: L. Banks Holt, Graham, S. C. Penn, Reidsville; J. W. Lambert, Thomasville; W. T. Brown, Winston; W. H. Williams, Newton; T. H. Vanderford, Salisbury; J. Allen Huffman, Hillsboro, and Hugh Chatham, president of Elkin, P. D. Pope, of Greensboro, was re-appointed state proxy by the governor.

TO OPEN OFFICES HERE.

Mr. R. S. Smith, a Well Known Architect of Asheville.

Mr. R. S. Smith, of Asheville, an architect of wide reputation and experience, has decided to open an office in Winston-Salem. Mr. Smith is an exceedingly pleasant and affable gentleman. For several years he has drawn the plans for all of the largest and costliest buildings erected in Asheville and Blomire. He designed many of the handsome structures owned by Mr. Vanderbilt.

Mr. Smith will have offices in the new Tise building on Main street. Mr. W. C. Northrup, one of Mr. Smith's pupils and an artist in his line, will be in charge during Mr. Smith's absence. Until the offices are completed Mr. Northrup can be found in the offices of Col. J. L. Ludlow, in the Peoples' bank building.

The Sentinel welcomes Mr. Smith and his associate to the Twin-City and predicts that they will get their share of business.
