A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a link in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous breach, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth Meyer, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to the life of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life. Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at V. O. Thompson's drug store, 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

DOUMA'S MANIFESTO HAVING EFFECT

(By Publishers Press.) ST. PETERSBURG, July 27.—The Duma manifesto adopted by demand for dissolution with the keynote: "Not a Kopeck to the throne or soldier to the army" is beginning to sway the people throughout the empire. The effect is already visible. The articles received today show that in several villages where the manifesto has been distributed through revolutionary underground channels people have voted to refuse paying taxes. This action was taken quietly but villagers have shown they are determined. Calm spirit of the people has been shown in voting to oppose the government at weakest point. The villagers have made provisions to care for their own public needs without depending on government. Local schools, hospitals and public institutions will be supported by voluntary contributions.

CUBANS RELEASE AMERICANS.

End of Isle of Pines Imprisonment Incident.—Miss Brown's Mother insists on Paying Fine.

HAVANA, July 25.—President Milla this morning pardoned Miss Lillie Brown, L. C. Ginner and William Augustus, Americans residing in the Isle of Pines, and a message as immediately sent by wireless telegraph ordering their release. The pardon is the outcome of the efforts of a Charge d'Affaires Sleeper, who obtained the promise of Secretary of Justice O'Farrell to recommend clemency if the trio would promise not to again violate the American military order prohibiting private telegraph lines. Mr. Sleeper communicated with the prisoners by wireless telegraph and all replied: "Certainly we authorize you to secure our pardon and promise not to violate military order No. 50."

Upon the presentation of this reply Secretary O'Farrell prepared an order for the pardon which was discussed at this evening's cabinet meeting with the result that President Palma gave it his signature.

In the meanwhile the mayor of Nueva Cerecena telegraphed to Havana that he had extended the hospitality of his home to Miss Brown, but that she had declined pending the arrival of her parents tomorrow from Havana. Her mother, who arrived here this week from the United States, said tonight that she would insist on paying the fines imposed on Miss Brown, on the ground that she would not permit her daughter to be used by American revolutionists for the purpose of creating sympathy with their cause.

PRAYERS ALONE DID NOT AVAIL

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.

My experience at the Keeley Institute and the cure following the treatment I received there, have been everything to me and my poor wife and children. Before I took the treatment I was a miserable wretch, good for nothing at all; I had drunk up all that I had worked for all my life; I had lost all of my will power; I could not resist anything like strong drink. Sometimes I would take a firm stand against whiskey, and would say that I was done with it; but, when that old disease would begin its gnawing, I would yield again. Often I would pray to Almighty God to deliver me, and I have cried over my habits, but I had lost all will power and could not do my part. I had got so low down that friends and relatives had forsaken me. I would stoop to almost anything in order to get whiskey. This gives you only a little idea of a part of my drunken life. One day in 1893 I was out at the store and some of my former friends told me if I would go to the Keeley Institute they would give me so much to pay my way. They made up a purse and I started for the Keeley Institute. When I got there and met the kind attendants I thought they were the first friends I had seen in twenty years. They treated me kindly and I began to realize that I was somebody again. I was completely cured and when I came home my wife and children were glad to see me, knowing that they would have a father and husband any more, for I was a new man. Everything brightened up, my neighbors were glad to see me, and they would greet me kindly. It has been nearly eleven years and I have not taken a drop.
