GOV. GLENN SPEAKS OF ENCAMPMENT

(Special to The Sentinel.)

RALEIGH, Aug. 2.—Governor Glenn said this morning that he found the North Carolina national guard camp ground at Morehead in very good fix and that the only drawback to the complete success of the encampment was the excessive rains which interfered with the manoeuvres of the troops and robbed this feature of the camp life of much of its pleasure for both officers and men.

He regards the new rifle range established at the Morehead camp ground as second only to that at Sea Girt.

The Governor will be in his office the remainder of the week.

FORMAL OPENING OF COLORED ORPHAN'S HOME

The officers of the colored Orphan's Home have purchased a six-room home and 17 acres of land from Mr. Alfred Sides on the Waightown road between the Lexington and the Thomasville road and 14 1/2 acres from Mr. Clement Manly on the same road adjoining the Belo land, and will operate a home for the negro orphan children of this section.

The committee is arranging for a formal opening of the home on Sunday, August 5, at 3 o'clock. Dr. Lilly has consented to preach on that occasion. Everybody is invited. A collection will be taken up for the benefit of the Orphan's Home.

GOVERNMENT EXHIBIT AT JAMESTOWN FAIR

(Special to The Sentinel.)

WASHINGTON, August 4.—The preliminary meeting of government board to supervise installation of exhibits of government at Jamestown exposition will be held next Thursday. The board consists of a chief clerk of the various departments, and it is understood that the president himself, because of the interest he has in the Jamestown project, has urged their early meeting. The purpose is to discuss the character of the exhibits to be made and consult with supervising architect of the treasury upon the design of building to be erected and amount of wall and floor space that will be available. It is understood an effort will be made to duplicate the government exhibit which was a grand success at the Portland, Oregon, exposition.

SALEM COMMISSIONERS.

Business Transacted at Regular Monthly Meeting of Board.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Salem commissioners last night Chairman H. E. Fries, of the finance committee, reported that an offer had been made for the water works bonds, recently voted by the town, but that a sale had not been made.

The ordinance regarding shut off cocks from gas pipes passed final reading. This implies that all new gas pipes placed in buildings in the future shall be equipped with this feature. The penalty for violation of this ordinance is $25. Winston has a similar ordinance.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the water and light committee to place an order for pipes to run an extension from Belew's Creek street to Forsyth Furniture Company, an extension of the water supply which has long been contemplated.

The following special police were appointed: Albert Peddicord, Levi Everhart, A. B. Windsor and Charles Bryan. The question of electing another policeman was discussed and it was decided to employ Mr. John W. Yow for night duty, thus enabling Officer McGee to devote his entire time to day work.

NO NOMINATIONS MADE YET BY THE COUNTY CONVENTION

Up to the time of going to press no nominations had been made by the county Democratic convention in session here today.

The county Democratic convention met here today. A large crowd was present and much interest was manifested.

Chairman Elliot called the convention to order and requested Secretary Hauser to call the roll of townships, every township being represented.

Mr. Jas. K. Norfleet was named as temporary chairman, while Messrs. J. J. Norman, Albert J. Hauser, G. H. Hasten and members of the Democratic press were named as secretaries.

In taking the chair Mr. Norfleet made a short speech, urging harmony in the ranks.

On motion of Mr. C. H. Watson the temporary organization was made permanent.

Mr. Eller introduced a resolution adopted by the executive committee this morning. It gave in substance the method to be followed in nomination of candidates. It recommended that the various townships meet and vote for their candidates separately, each township having a room in the court house to take the vote in. The same was adopted.

FOR ROAD COMMISSION.

Mr. C. B. Watson was recognized by the chair and introduced the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Democratic party of Forsyth county favors energetic and active work in the construction of permanent roads for the county, but at the same time the interest of the public requires that the ordinary roads of the county should be kept and maintained in a reasonably good and passable condition.

Resolved further, That the party favors the placing of the road fund and the expenditure thereof in the hands of a public road non-partisan commission to the end that the work of road building and road maintenance may have more careful and more effective supervision."

In presenting the resolution Mr. Watson made a short speech explaining provisions of the resolution and urged its adoption on the ground that it was the best way to solve the road problem.

Mr. W. M. Hendren supported the resolution in a short speech, saying that he believed this resolution was the remedy that was needed and he urged the Democrats present to think it over.

Dr. R. H. Jones moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. E. E. Gray took the floor and opposed the non-partisan commission idea, saying that the Democrats were capable of looking after this road work and it would establish a bad precedent.

Mr. P. H. Hanes started to speak from the floor but the crowd cheered him and insisted on his taking the rostrum. Some of the delegates yelled that he was the best road builder in North Carolina. Mr. Hanes thought it would not be well to adopt the resolution as introduced. He thought the county commissioners should have some "say-so" in the road question.

Mr. Watson again took the floor and

ITALIAN EMBASSY MAY BRING SUITS

(Special to The Sentinel.)

RALEIGH, Aug. 4.—Five of the Italians on trial all the week at Raleigh, N. C. for alleged conspiracy against Superintendent Cross, of the South and Western Railroad, and in which the Italian government took a hand, have been acquitted. A not pros has been entered in the cases of two others indicted on the same charge. Future complications are likely to result in the way of suits brought by the Italian embassy at Washington. They will be not only for damages against the railroad and county or state but criminal action for ill-treatment of Italians.

Card from M. D. Bailey, Jr.

To the Editor: Noticing John D. Waddill's article this morning in the Journal and noting that he does not call any name when he refers to a little man, being a small man myself and having written something about Mr. Waddill's bill I want to say that he could not have possibly referred to me, though he has left that impression. I challenge Mr. Waddill to name his man. I do not see cover or try to cloak myself under some fictitious name and would like Mr. Waddill, if there is really a man to whom he refers to name the man. I request this for fear some people would think that he means me.

Respectfully,
M. D. BAILEY, JR.

One Convict Escapes.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 4.—Sixty negro convicts attempted to escape from the convict camp at midnight last night. When a guard was passing his rounds he opened the door of a room in which the men slept. He was knocked down. The negroes then started for the roof. The first one was shot dead by another guard. One caused the convicts to cool down. One, however, escaped, and Atlanta is having another man hunt, the second this week.

Misses Margie and Helen Smith went to Wilmington today. They will visit Norfolk before returning.

MUTINY STARTED OVER ARREST OF A STUDENT

(By Publishers' Press.)

LONDON, Aug. 3.—A news agency dispatch says a party of mutineers left the Pampat Azova the other day in a small boat to visit Sveaborg fortress with the object of inciting the garrison to mutiny. The party, consisting of eight sailors and one civilian, leaders of the mutiny on warship, were arrested on reaching land and the other mutineers have been weakened. Loyal sailors attempted to retake the ship and after a hard fight drove the mutineers into the forecabin. During the outbreak five officers, a doctor, an engineer and a subaltern were killed. Two officers were wounded, one mortally. About fifty seamen were killed or wounded. Over 2,500 of the mutineers were taken ashore as prisoners.

A later dispatch to a news agency in describing the mutiny which occurred yesterday on board the Russian cruiser Pampat Azova says the outbreak on the part of the sailors began when a student, disguised as a sailor, arrived on the warship. An attempt was made to arrest him but some of the sailors prevented this and shot four officers who ordered the man's arrest. Three other officers escaped from the cruiser in a small boat. Mutineers sank the boat with shot but the officers reached the shore by swimming. The mutineers commandeered the torpedo boat No. 106 to join the mutiny, but it refused and steamed away.

YADKINVILLE CAR LINE.

Meeting of Representatives of Winston-Salem and Yadkinville to Be Arranged Soon.

The Yadkin Ripple prints the following letter from Winston-Salem, which explains itself:

"We are just in receipt of a marked copy of the Yadkin Ripple and note you have designated July 31st as the time for meeting a committee from the Winston-Salem Board of Trade to discuss the matter of building an electric line to your county."

"This is first notice we have had of the date for this meeting and we regret that we were not apprised of the same in time to secure a representative committee to meet with you on this date. However, our president as well as a number of other members who are very much interested in this proposition are now absent from the city and it will be well high impossible on this short notice to get in touch with them. On this account we think it will be well to defer this meeting for a week or ten days until we can secure a committee of representative members to confer with you. We will advise you as to when this can best be done and then arrange an early date which will be mutually agreeable. In the meantime we wish to assure you that we have not been idle as plans are on foot which we think are favorable for an early connection by rail with your county."

RICHARDSON'S WATCH FOUND.

Sold to Negro by Negroes Who Are Thought to Have Killed Him.

From the Roanoke World.
When the body of Brakeman A. B. Richardson was found on the track near Ferrum last Monday morning his watch was missing. Yesterday the watch was found in the possession of a colored man at Boone's Mill. He stated that the watch was sold to him by the two negroes who found the body. His story was believed, and he was not arrested.

Baldwin detectives are now hunting for the negroes, who had not been located yesterday afternoon.

Mr. J. E. Richardson, father of the dead brakeman, showed the World man the watch. It is a handsome open face gold watch. The ring was broken out when it was jerked from the chain, which was found intact on the body.

It is believed that the two negroes were on the train and threw Richardson off. The fact that his lantern was on the train would indicate that he set it down and went after the men, who threw him off. It is argued that if he had fallen off his lantern would have gone with him.

Mr. Richardson, the father, says that it was plain that the negro who had the watch was innocent, and as he had traded his watch and $6 for the watch, he had decided to send him a time-piece that was valued at $10.

Miss Mary Hynum, of Pittsboro, is visiting her cousin, Miss Annie Hynum, on Spruce street.

Rev. C. A. Ritchie, pastor of the First Lutheran church at Binghamton, N. Y., and former pastor of the Lutheran church in this city, is the guest of Mr. G. L. Dull on West End. Mr. Ritchie will be the officiating minister at the McDowell-Dull marriage next Tuesday.

Mrs. George Tate and little son left today for Phospho Lithia Springs after visiting Mrs. Tate's mother, Mrs. R. F. Gray.

Miss Mabel Spangh left today for New York to visit Miss Grace Leslie, formerly of this city.

Rev. B. K. Mason went to Summerfield today to assist in a protracted meeting at that place.

H. C. Eccles, of Charlotte, and sister Mrs. J. W. Gray, of Statesville, who have been visiting Mrs. C. J. Watkins, went to Raleigh today to visit relatives.

BOHANNON CAUGHT

Negro Wanted for Murder Is Arrested in City of Danville, Va.

When Arrested Bohannon Confessed That He Was the Man Who Shot Foreman Beachman But Stated That He Did Not Know Beachman Was Dead.

Frank Bohannon, the negro who on Tuesday last shot and killed J. T. Beachman, a Southern Railway foreman, employed with the double tracking force near Jamestown, was arrested in Danville last night. He was taken into custody at 10:30 o'clock and after being questioned for some time admitted that he was the man who shot Beachman, but stated that he did not know that Beachman was dead. There was a reward of $100 offered for his capture.

Bohannon has been a resident of Winston-Salem for several years. An officer here was advised early this morning that Bohannon's "sweetheart" left Martinsville yesterday, going toward Danville.

A message received from Greensboro this afternoon stated that it was not known when the negro would be brought to Greensboro. It is said that Bohannon agreed to go back to Greensboro without requisition papers.

The two negroes, Ki Crutchfield and his son Oscar, in jail at Greensboro as co-conspirators in the murder, have employed counsel who is pressing for a hearing before a magistrate, but there will be none until Bohannon is given a preliminary hearing. Men from the double tracking force in Greensboro today say that old Ki is really the one who incited Bohannon to the crime, and was overheard Monday night telling Bohannon how he could arrange to have two of the overseers killed. For some reason there are several of the double track force in Greensboro today, and Sheriff Jordan is keeping them as to when Bohannon will be brought back.

JEWISH PREACHER HERE.

Rev. A. Lichtenstein, Christian Jew, to Speak at Three Twin-City Churches Tomorrow.

Rev. A. Lichtenstein, of St. Louis, superintendent of the Jewish Christian Mission, is at present in this city and will preach three times tomorrow, occupying three different pulpits. At 11 a. m. at Centenary M. E. church; in the afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Baptist church and in the evening at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. The subject for the afternoon will be of especial interest, as he will preach on the theme, "The Returning of the Jews to Jerusalem in Connection with the Second Coming of the Messiah."

Mr. Lichtenstein was converted seventeen years ago while a business man. A few months later he laid down his business that he might preach to his own people. He spent some time in theological training and went directly to New York where he preached seven years as a missionary among the Jews. He has been for eight years superintendent of the Jewish Mission work in St. Louis, where his work has been greatly blessed and heartily endorsed and supported by the leading pastors and churches of that city. Those who fail to hear him while in this city will miss a most interesting opportunity to learn something of the Christian work among the Jews.

HAD A HIGH OLD TIME.

400 Jay Birds Get Beastly Drunk on Cherries.

Atlanta Journal.
Four or five hundred jay birds got on a beastly drunk Tuesday morning at 753 Glenn street.

The cause of the scandal which has outraged all respectable nests for miles around is a large wild cherry tree standing in the rear lot of Chas. A. Britton, at the number mentioned. Shortly after sunrise Mr. Britton heard an hilarious chattering in his garden. On looking out he saw the limbs of the tree, the walks, and the fence rails lined with staggering jays. They were still picking madly at the cherries, that is, as many as could keep on their feet, were doing so. Hundreds of them were keeled over kicking their toothpick legs and beating the air with their toes. One extraordinarily big old jay, evidently the Falstaff of the flock, was trying to lead 60 or 70 of his mates in a dance-like hobble around a tomato vine. But they all reeled over and began clawing each other. This started a general hurly-burly and in less than five minutes the roisterers were in a bloody fight, while clouds of feathers fell to the ground. All this while the birds were chattering, jabbering, squeaking and hispering so noisily that everybody who passed the yard stopped to have a laugh at them.

The orgie, it is said, lasted late into the day, until a heavy rain came and sobered up the drunken crowd.

Mrs. L. M. Swick returned this afternoon from a visit to Salisbury.

Mrs. H. D. Lindsay, of Rockford, spent the day here.

D. C. Crutchfield went to Richmond, Va., today.

Rev. Sam Hall, of Pinnacle, who attended the Pilot Mountain Association, returned home this afternoon.
