FEDERAL COURT IS IN SESSION AT GREENSBORO

Entire Morning Session Occupied With Judge Boyd's Charge To Grand Jury

Some of the Alleged Revenue Fraud Cases Will Probably Be Tried at This Term of Court.—Winston-Salem Lawyers in Attendance On Court.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

GREENSBORO, Oct. 1.—Federal court convened this morning at 10:30 o'clock with Judge Boyd presiding. The charge to the grand jury consumed all of the morning session.

This is the regular October term and a large number of people are here to attend the session. All of the famous revenue fraud cases that have not been tried during the special terms this year have been continued to the regular term and it is probable that some of these cases will be tried at this term.

District Attorney Holton, J. E. Alexander and Clement Manly are among those here attending court.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Rev. J. K. Pfohl went to East Bend today.

W. A. Dummett, of Greensboro, was here yesterday.

A Nance, of Charleston, is visiting his son, D. A. Nance.

Rev. F. H. Jones, of Reidsville, was in the city today.

Dr. D. Clay Lilly went to Charlotte this afternoon. He will return tomorrow.

Mrs. J. Rosenstock, of Danville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Carrie Rosenbacher.

Joe Jacobs, who has been in New York for several weeks, arrived in the city this morning.

D. A. Sheaf, of Lexington, who travels for the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., was here today.

Dr. J. L. Mott, the Republican "boss" in Iredell county, spent Sunday in the city, stopping at the Phoenix.

Miss Nellie Cowles, of Wilkesboro, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. V. Horton, went home today.

Postmaster C. A. Reynolds went to Mocksville this evening. He will address the Republicans of Davie there tomorrow.

Jas. A. Gray, Jr., was here this morning between trains enroute to Chapel Hill from Charlotte, where he attended the football game played Saturday between the University and Davidson College teams. The score was 0 to 0.

THOSE MENTIONED AS DR. MIVER'S SUCCESSOR

(Special to The Sentinel.)

RALEIGH, Sept. 30.—The impression grows here that the successor to the late Chas. D. Miver as president of the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro will be Mr. J. V. Joyner, now state superintendent of public instruction. As this talk increases the number of candidates for state superintendent of public instruction to succeed Mr. Joyner multiplies, too. Among those who are known to be active candidates or being urged by their friends are Prof. J. B. Catlett, of Wake Forest College; Prof. J. A. Holt, of Oak Ridge Institute; Mr. R. D. W. Connor, of the state department of education, and even Mr. C. H. Mebane, who was state superintendent under the Republican administration in 1898 is known to be in the field.

New Discoverments.

Huntley-Hill-Stockton Co.—Some of the leaders that identify this store.

Meyers-Westbrook Co.—In an attractive full page ad call attention to autumn exhibit of women's fashionable fabrics and apparel.

Rosenbacher & Bro.—In a page ad announce fall opening and first anniversary of Busy Store.

Notice to K. of P.'s.

All members of Salem lodge No. 57 are earnestly requested to meet at the lodge room at 7:30 tonight to consider funeral arrangements of our late brother, M. L. Moore.

J. H. EARLY, C. C.

Sheriff Aispaugh has just purchased a very fine horse, which he intends to beat the world's record with tomorrow.

The Sentinel is authorized to state that no charge will be made to the grand stand at Piedmont Park during Governor Glenn's address at the fair tomorrow.

Gov. R. B. Glenn made a political speech at Mocksville today, this being the opening day of Davie court. He was expected here this afternoon at 2:45, but missed his train. He will arrive tomorrow morning and while in the city will be the guest of Mr. J. C. Baxton.

PROMINENT DEMOCRATS ENTER CAMPAIGN

(Special to The Sentinel.)

SALISBURY, Sept. 29.—Senator Lee S. Overman, whose home is in Salisbury, is spending considerable time stamping a part of the eighth congressional district in the interest of the Democratic ticket and urging voters to cast their ballots for him.

Mr. R. N. Hackett for congress. This week he has been in Rowan and Stanly counties where he has been greeted by large and enthusiastic crowds. Yesterday he spoke at Albemarle and today at Lenoir. Level E. Starns, today addressed the voters of Iredell county at Mooreville. John M. Julian, candidate for the legislature from Rowan, and Walterhead Klutz, nominee for the state senate, are each stamping Rowan county in the interest of Democracy.

"Dick" Hackett Given An Ovation.

Mr. R. N. Hackett, Democratic candidate for Congress in the eighth district, was given an ovation at the Democratic convention in his home county (Wilkes) Saturday. Dr. J. M. Turner was nominated for representative in the legislature and N. E. Parlier for county commissioner. A. M. Vanhook was endorsed for sheriff and everybody urged to support him regardless of party.

Mr. Hackett addressed the convention and his speech was received with great enthusiasm. At the close of his speech he was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers by the ladies present.
