FARMERS ARE BUSY IN DILLARD SECTION

(Special to The Sentinel.)

DILLARD, Oct. 29.—Farmers have been rushing their tobacco to market the past season as fast as possible in order to prevent it from damaging on their hands.

Mr. Frank Morris, of Salem Chapel is visiting friends in the neighborhood.

The county and legislative candidates were here Saturday and spoke to a small crowd. This was their last appointment and they were weaned out.

Governor R. B. Glenn was here on Friday, 26th inst., and delivered one of the finest adresses that has ever been heard at this place. He spoke for two hours to a crowd of about 800 people. It was said by both Democrats and Republicans to be the best speech they ever heard. His explanation of the tariff was plain enough for anybody to have understood. He made an earnest appeal for the people to turn out on election day and elect a force of Democratic officers and especially a good coroner to hold an inquest over the Republican party on November 7th, as it would most surely be dead. He left at 3 o'clock for Mayodan, accompanied by Maj. F. H. Kemp.

CANDIDATES TALK

Democratic Nominees for County and Legislative Offices at Court House Last Night.

Much Enthusiasm Manifested By the Audience—Candidates Make Good Speeches That Are Calculated To Win Votes For The Cause of Democracy.

The Democratic county rally [illegible] at the courthouse last night in a fairly good audience which made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers. Every candidate was heartily applauded and enthusiasm was a most notable feature of the evening.

The candidates for county offices announced themselves with merely announcing their candidacy and asked for the full support of the Democrats of this township on election day. Each pledged himself to do his utmost to make a competent and faithful officer and was well received, hearty applause.

Sheriff Alspaugh set the ball to rolling with a short talk in which he thanked the Democrats of Winston-Salem for the handsome vote they have given him in the past and said in retiring from the office he looked back with pride upon his record; that every cent due the county would be in the hands of the county treasurer and that he had saved the county from $1,200 to $1,500 each year on the insolvent list collecting more taxes than any preceding sheriff and that he hoped each man on the present ticket would receive every Democratic vote in these cities.

Mr. J. C. Buxton, candidate for the senatorship, made a speech of an hour's length. He reiterated his views on the road question, the Waddill bill, freight and passenger reduction, scored the Republican leaders in this county and State and closed with a strong appeal to the Democrats to elect their entire ticket. During the course of his speech Mr. Buxton mentioned the name of Mr. M. D. Bailey and it was heartily cheered.

Mr. Carter, for the House, followed Mr. Buxton, discussing the Democratic and Republican positions on schools, State institutions, county affairs, Confederate soldiers and county matters. He said he would go to Raleigh as the representative of all the people, that he would be in favor of every measure that has for its object the upbuilding of the county and State and in concluding urged upon the young men of the city to vote the ticket of their fathers and not let personal feelings deter them from voting the straight Democratic ticket.

Mr. R. M. Cox the handsome young farmer, who is a candidate for the House, closed the speech-making with a speech that put every one in good humor and won for him many admiring friends. He went after the Republicans with gloves off and time and again his audience broke into cheers. Notwithstanding Mr. Cox had been sowing wheat all day he was as full of energy and oratory as college graduate on commencement day and after his speech his fellow candidates and many of his hearers crowded about him and congratulated him upon his effort.

DECISION SOON AS TO TELEPHONE RATES

(Special to The Sentinel.)

RALEIGH, Oct. 31.—The corporation commission will make their ruling in the suit by Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes against the Southern Bell Telephone Co. to fix rates for local and long distance service [illegible] as soon as Col. Grimes files his written arguments in the case. The Bell Co. [illegible] has filed its argument and Col. Grimes is delayed on account of [illegible] being just now out in the [illegible]. The rates demanded by Col. Grimes are $24 a month for business [illegible], $12 for residences and five cents per minute for the first five minutes and two and a half cents for each minute in excess of five. The commission will probably allow somewhat lower rates.

(By Publishers' Press.)

PARIS, France, Oct. 31.—Crappi opened the Castellane divorce proceedings today by asking for an absolute divorce for his client and custody of the children. After rehearsing the [illegible] of the meeting and marriage of the Count and Miss Anna Gould he plunged into a story of the wrongs the countess suffered at the hands of her titled husband. It was the count's practice, he asserted, when trying to extort money from his wife to strike and slap her. Crappi said it was the countess intention to remain in France after a divorce was secured and to rear her children here.

BIG BOOM ON NOW IN SOUTH DAKOTA

(Special to The Sentinel.)

YANKTON, S. D., Oct. 31.—The oldest and most seasoned boomers are amazed at the manner in which towns are springing up, like mushrooms in a night, in South Dakota. They are being planted by the Milwaukee and Northwestern Extension and the Minneapolis and St. Louis railway companies. A field of wheat was inspected last spring by T. A. Way, townsite agent of the W. and St. Louis. It belonged to Chris Stemwedee. Stakes were driven to show where the streets were to be located and the building of the town immediately commenced. Now the town of Florence, as it is called, has its handsome brick buildings, its newspaper, and all the other appurtenances of a full grown municipality. The same thing occurred at Wallace, Brentford and Crasbard. A new town built, also in a wheat field is to receive its name today. The lines are being rapidly pushed forward and it is expected they will be completed to La Beau, the western terminus, by January 1st.

WHO WILL GET THE DEMOCRATIC BANNER?

The magnificent banner offered by Mr. E. H. Wilson to the township outside of Winston-Salem making the largest per cent. of Democratic gains over two years ago, will be presented after the election. No county in North Carolina has such a splendid insigna of honor. It is worthy of emulation. It bears in letters of gold "Democratic Government and White Supremacy in North Carolina Forever."

DAMAGE TO COTTON CROP IN THE EAST

(Special to The Sentinel.)

GREENSBORO, Oct. 30.—J. E. Latham, formerly of this city but now located in New York, was here last night. He says that great injury has been done the cotton crops by the unfavorable weather in eastern North Carolina and the outlook is very discouraging. The heavy rains followed by the frost cut the crop short, perhaps one-half in sections. Farther west and with the conditions are [illegible]

HALL CASE ARGUED IN SUPERIOR COURT

(Special to The Sentinel.)

RALEIGH, Oct. 27.—The famous Salisbury lynching case of State vs. Geo. Hall was the most important called for argument in the Supreme Court today when the appeals from the Tenth District were taken up. This is the case in which the prisoner was sentenced to fifteen years for taking part in the lynching of the negroes who murdered the Lyerly family at Barber's Junction. In the midst of the trial the point was raised that Governor Glenn had issued the order for the special term of Rowan Court while out of the State at Atlantic City, the commission for the court having on it the signature of the Governor signed by Private Secretary Arrington instead of the Governor himself. Judge Long overruled the exception and the appeal is principally on this point. The argument for the State will be by Walter Clark, Jr., in the absence of Attorney General Gilmer. He will contend that even if the court was called with the Governor out of the State it was a de facto court in which the sentence was imposed and that there is abundant precedent for the contention that the findings of de facto courts are valid. Hall, the lyncher, will be represented by Walter Murphy and ex-Congressman Klutz.

The other cases on the calendar for the week are State vs. Garner, State vs. Adams, Carlton vs. Railroad, Mott vs. Telegraph Company, Thaxton vs. Insurance Company, Eames vs. Armstrong, Harrison vs. Telegraph Company, Tysinger vs. Furniture Company, Barrett vs. Brewer, Miller vs. Railroad, Typewriter Company vs. Hardware Company, Marable vs. Railroad, and David vs. Kleen. The counties composing this district are Montgomery, Iredell, Rowan, Davidson, Randolph, Davie and Yadkin.

DID FAULTY BRIDGE CAUSE THE DISASTER?

(By Publishers' Press.)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 31.—A sensation is expected when the coroner's verdict is returned and responsibility for the wreck of the electric train which plunged into the sidewater stream "Thoroughfare" Sunday afternoon. The examination of the running gear of the cars has shown there was fault here and there is the best reason to believe the company will be held responsible for the disaster and that faulty bridge will be proven the cause. One car still remains in the water. Divers are working today in an effort to raise it. It is expected that once this is accomplished and thorough search of the stream made possible other bodies now weighted down by pieces of wreckage will be found. It seems today as though the total list of dead will be within one or two of sixty.

A FIGHT EXPECTED

Ute Indians and U. S. Cavalry Forces May Meet at Any Time Now.

(By Publishers' Press.)

SHERIDAN, Wyoming, Oct. 31.—Fighting between renegade Ute Indians and cavalry forces pursuing them is expected at almost any hour. Troops have about succeeded in rounding up the Utes and as the latter declare they will fight rather than return to the reservation, where they claim they cannot get enough to eat, bloodshed seems unavoidable. To make the situation worse 500 Cheyenne braves, equipped with modern rifles and well supplied with ammunition, are ready to join the Utes, if they have not already done so.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING AT DALTON TODAY

(Special to The Sentinel.)

DALTON, N. C., Oct. 31.—What was one of the prettiest home weddings ever celebrated at this place was that at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Flay Coe, today at 12:30 o'clock, when Miss Mayola Coe became the bride of Mr. C. Reed Tuttle, of Lynchburg, Va.

Quite a number of invited guests were present and the home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

LAWSON SAYS THAT HEARST WILL WIN

(Special to The Sentinel.)

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 31.—Hearst will win in New York and Moran in Massachusetts, both by good majority, according to the statement of Mr. Thomas W. Lawson. Mr. Lawson makes this prediction in a circular in which he advises stockholders to prepare for a drop between now and election. He declares Tammany will give the word, "Elect Hearst at any cost;" that Hearst will get the benefit of the backing that was last year against him. Another reason he gives is that the Republican machine is determined to down Hughes.

RALEIGH, Oct. 30.—J. H. Kerr received a confirmation from Governor Glenn as solicitor in the Second Judicial district today, to succeed W. E. Daniel, who has tendered his resignation, effective Nov. 5. He resigns on account of his candidacy for the State senate in his district. Mr. Kerr is also the Democratic nominee for solicitor in the Second district, which is composed of Halifax, Northampton, Warren, Bertie and Hertford counties.
