NEWS ITEMS REPORTED FROM RALEIGH TODAY

(Special to The Sentinel.) RALEIGH, Nov. 15.—Mrs. R. S. Tucker, of this city, has presented to the State a life-size painting of Henry Clay. It will be given a place on the walls of the representatives' hall in the State capitol along with Washington and Vance. In speaking of the movement that has started afresh in this State for the establishment of a State reformatory for youthful criminals, State Auditor H. F. Dixon said today that he is decidedly opposed to the reformatory idea but that he believes the general assembly should pass an act authorizing the judges to turn over to the North Carolina Children's Home Society, head office at Greensboro, all such children as would otherwise be eligible to the reformatory so that this organization could find homes for them where they would be looked after just as homeless children are now provided for by the society, which now has almost two hundred children in good homes who would otherwise be homeless. Major Dixon says that besides many objections to a reformatory he fears the results in this State of one that would require a reformatory for negro children and this would be overruled in a little while by great numbers of negro children many caused to commit some offense by their parents so that the care of them may be shifted to the State. Maj. Dixon thinks too that juvenile courts are not at all needed in this State at this stage of the population condition, there being scarcely a town in the State that could show conditions requiring such an institution. State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner went to Graham this morning to attend a district meeting of county superintendents of public schools in session there this week. It is the West Central district and consists of about fifteen counties of that section.

WHO WILL BE APPOINTED JAILER?

Sheriff-elect James Ziglar was asked today if he had named his deputies. He replied that he had not and would not make his appointments until after he was sworn in on the first Monday in December. There is some speculation as to who will be jailer. The position is a good one—paying, it is estimated, $1,500 or $2,000 a year. Mr. O. W. Hanner, son-in-law of the new sheriff, has held the place under Sheriff A. Spaulding for two years and it is said that he is an applicant for re-appointment. Constable Hutchins and perhaps others would like to have the job.

JUDGE WARD'S RULING UPHELD BY HIGHER COURT

The Supreme Court sustains the decision of Judge Ward, of the Superior Court, in the case of Jones et al. vs. the Commissioners of Stokes county. The case was argued before Judge Ward in this city and according to his ruling Sauratown and Meadows townships in Stokes, can hereafter use the tax voted to the building of the old Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley railroad for road and school purposes, but the tax voted to the Roanoke & Southern road, now owned by the Norfolk & Western, must continue to be paid to the owners of the railroad bonds.

WARRANT FOR ROCKEFELLER.

Head of Standard Oil Trust Indicted With Other Prominent Men For Alleged Violation of Valentine Anti-Trust Law. FINDLAY, O., Nov. 15.—The grand jury made its report today with several indictments which will not be made public until tomorrow. Sheriff Groves left Findlay today and it is understood he took with him warrants for the persons indicted.

The clerk of the court admitted that indictments had been returned against several prominent men. He refused, however, to give names, saying that information could not be made public until tomorrow. Prosecutor David stated that the grand jury had voted an indictment against John D. Rockefeller on the charge of violating the Valentine anti-trust law. Mr. David stated, however, that no attempt would be made to compel Rockefeller to come to Ohio at this time because his attorney had already entered appearance for him in the probate court in a previous action against the Standard Oil Company.

Mr. David added: "Some other prominent oil men against whom indictments have been voted, who he brought into court with a few hours."

FIGHT AGAINST STANDARD OIL

Suit for Dissolution of Trust Begins Today in Federal Court at St. Louis. Oil Trust is Charged With Numerous Violations of Sherman Anti-Trust Law—Suit of Government to Be Prosecuted Under Direction of Attorney General Moody. (By Publishers' Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The federal government today began action in the United States circuit court at St. Louis under direction of Attorney General Moody to have the Standard Oil trust dissolved. The government presents an array of violations of the Sherman anti-trust law, including conspiracy, coercion, intimidation and restraint. Roosevelt's intention is to make this proceeding the crowning achievement of the administration's trust-busting campaign. Criminal prosecutions will probably follow today's action. Moody says: "The question of whether any action of a different nature should be taken is reserved. The controversy is now pending in the courts."

The operations of the trust are reported to be such that it is charged that since August, 1906, the Standard has refused to transport oil of other companies except in such quantities as completely prevent independents from selling the service. Further it is charged that the trust forced sixteen refiners in Pennsylvania and Ohio, which carried their crude oil through the Standard's pipe lines, to sell to the Standard thus eliminating competition.

It is charged that the Standard sells substantially all lubricating oils to the railroads at 5 to 100 per cent more than the independents ask, but the railroads pay it willingly to get the trust's business. This amounts to rebating.

The second annual meeting of the Farmers' Protective Association will be held in this city Friday, and may continue into Saturday. Col. J. S. Cunningham, the president, and Prof. J. M. Sharpe, the secretary, have made every effort to make the meeting a success. Special rates over the railroads and at the hotels have been secured. It is proposed to have a number of tobacco storage houses similar to those used by cotton growers' association, in which to store the tobacco and the farmers be loaned money on it instead of selling at a time when the price is low.

George Wilson, the negro who was shot last Friday by Policeman Skeens, is in a serious condition at the hospital, where he was carried immediately after the shooting. The negro was shot in the back and as a result his body and limbs below the hips are paralyzed. The physicians think his recovery is doubtful. The negro's health are very much increased over the shooting. The negro had been arrested on some charge and was being carried to the calaboose when the negro attempted to escape. The officer shot at the fleeing negro, bringing him to the ground with a hole in his back.

The members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the city have a movement on foot to erect a handsome public fountain to the memory of Mrs. C. C. Gorrell, who at one time was president of the State association of the W. C. T. U. It will cost a hundred dollars or more and will be a handsome fountain in every way. The board of aldermen will be asked to select the site.

A meeting of those interested in a State reformatory was set for last night in the county courthouse, but on account of the inclement weather the meeting was postponed until a later day. TUBERCULOSIS IS FULLY DISCUSSED

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—"Whiskey and consumption follow the American flag and the Bible." This statement from F. W. Daniel, of Austin, Texas, electrified the international Congress on Tuberculosis, which is meeting here, today, to devise means for eradicating the Federal government in fighting the White Plague. "Consumption is not contagious but is communicative," Daniel said, "and a feeble constitution is liable to any disease that may be inherited, but tuberculosis can never be transmitted from parent to child."

SPENCE DAVIS KILLS A MAN

Hugh Weaver Shot Three Times on Road Side Near Clemmons. The Men Had Some Misunderstanding Over Some Slabs—Davis Accosted By Weaver Who Had a Shotgun And Fired Upon Davis, Who Dodged The Load—Davis, Who Has Not Been Arrested, Begged Weaver Not To Shoot—Weaver Dies in His Own Yard. (By Publishers' Press.)

Hugh Weaver was shot and killed by Spencer Davis at the latter's saw mill, near Clemmons, yesterday afternoon. It appears that the killing was the result of a dispute over some slabs. Davis had not been arrested this morning. A citizen of Clemmons reported that he was hauling lumber to the depot at that place. The officers here were advised last night that a man had been killed near Clemmons, but they were not requested to go out and make an arrest. This caused them to believe that the murder was committed in Davidson county, just across the Forsyth line.

Later Report. This afternoon information came to The Sentinel to the effect that Weaver stated to a friend yesterday that he proposed to kill Davis before sunset. The party to whom he made the threat reported it to Davis, who was hauling lumber via Weaver's home. Davis thanked the party who gave him the information, but said that he proposed to continue hauling lumber. As Davis passed the house of Weaver in the afternoon he discovered Weaver sitting down on the road side holding a shotgun. Davis rolled off his wagon, on the opposite side of Weaver and begged the latter not to shoot. Weaver fired, but Davis dodged and the load missed him. Davis then drew a pistol and shot Weaver three times. Weaver arose and started to the house, but fell in his yard, where he expired.

The deceased leaves a wife and one son. Davis is also a man of family.

BLACKBURN EXPECTED A MAJORITY OF 1,700

Spencer Blackburn, who is in Washington, tells his troubles to a reporter of the Baltimore Sun. Hear him: "The Democrats made a systematic steal of the election from me. They started in three weeks before the election to transcribe the registration books and voted Democrats indiscriminately, regardless of whether they had paid their poll tax, while many Republicans who had paid their poll tax were not allowed to vote. The Constitution of North Carolina provides that no one in North Carolina may vote until he has paid his poll tax, and the law of the State requires that the tax must be paid before May 1 of each year. There are other allegations that will be made in connection with the contest that I intend to make. In one district in which I had seventy majority they stuffed the ballot box so as to make all the votes in that box illegal. It is claimed that my opponent was elected by about 700 majority. If the election had been conducted fairly, I would have had at least 1,700 majority."

DOUBTS STORY OF RELIEF FUND GRAFT

(By Publishers' Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Washington officials of the American National Red Cross are ignorant of the misappropriation of funds at San Francisco. They doubt the story. Miss Mahel Baedman, secretary of the society, says about $5,000,000 was collected by the society for the relief of San Francisco sufferers and that about $1,000,000 of this sum had been spent. Every dollar of the expenditure has been accounted for through receipts and vouchers at the war department where the accounts are audited, she says.
