PERSONAL NOTES.

C. A. Hege went to Washington today to look after some business.

Dr. E. Polp, of Polp, and D. R. Hoover, of Concord, were here today.

Mrs. Phoebe King returned to Greensboro today, after spending a few days in the city.

W. M. Watson, of Eagle Springs, spent Sunday and Monday here, leaving today for home.

Miss Alice Artman, of New York, will arrive tonight to visit her cousin, Miss Blossom Traxler.

Manager E. H. Wilson, of the Bell Telephone exchange, made a business trip to Kernersville today.

W. D. Sutton, who has been in declining health for several weeks, left this morning for Summerfield to spend some time with his parents.

R. L. Doughton, of Alleghany county, was here today enroute to Durham and Raleigh. He was accompanying a car of beef cattle, shipped by him to each place.

Mrs. Chas. Hamsher, of New York, who has been the guest of Mrs. C. R. Traxler for a few weeks, left today for home. She was accompanied as far as Greensboro by her niece, Miss Blossom Traxler.

Mrs. J. H. Sutfenfield went to Greensboro this morning to meet her brother, Shirley Anderson, who has been in California for some time in the interest of his health. Failing to improve, he decided to return to his home at Madison.

Death of Mr. R. A. McGehee.

Many relatives and friends in this city will regret to learn of the death of Mr. R. A. McGehee, of Madison, which occurred at the home of his uncle, Col. John R. Webster, in Reidsville, at 7 o'clock Monday morning, where he had been under treatment of his brother, Dr. John McGehee. His remains will be carried to Madison and his aunt and cousin, Mrs. H. W. Barrow and daughter, Miss Florence, left for Madison yesterday to attend the funeral and burial. Mr. McGehee had been in bad health, caused by heart trouble, some time. He was one of Madison's best business men and will be sadly missed in that town and community.

Not Wanted Here.

The Sentinel received the following message yesterday from New York in its Publishers' Press report: "In the arrest of Graham Farrar, a negro, the police of White Plains believe they have the murderer who fled from Winston, N. C. Farrar is said to have made a confession to the police admitting having killed a man in a Winston dance hall. The Winston police will come for the negro." The officers here know nothing about such a murder. No negro by the name of Graham Farrar is wanted here.

Now in New Plant.

J. H. Phillips, the lumber, door and sash manufacturer, is now occupying his new building. With the exception of a few pieces all the machinery has been placed. The building is to be equipped with automatic sprinklers and every method of fire protection will be installed. In addition to the lines carried and manufactured by Mr. Phillips before he was burned out will be added a line of mantles of all grades from the cheapest to the best. An office building for Mr. Phillips will be erected at once on his lot on the east side of Chestnut street.
