ROMANCE ATTACHED TO MARRIAGE IN WILKES

The marriage of Mr. Aubrey L. Bury, of Newark, N. J., and Miss Lois Phair, of North Wilkesboro, was happily celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Phair, at high noon yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Bury passed through the city last evening enroute to Newark, where they will reside.

A pleasing little romance is connected with this union. The groom went to Wilkes a few weeks since to visit a friend. He met Miss Phair and became infatuated at once. He did not hesitate to tell his intimate friends that he was in love and that he had decided to win the heart and hand of Miss Phair. He pressed his suit and won out.

BOSTON NEGROES ARE ENRAGED BY MESSAGE

(By Publishers' Press)

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—Negroes here are furiously over Roosevelt's message justifying the discharge of the negro troops. The Suffrage League met hastily as soon as the message was made public and adopted resolutions to be sent to all negro organizations throughout the country, denouncing the President as an instigator of race hatred and mob violence. They call him a tyrant and say he is "not the friend to peace to be by mere hand" set out to the race in advance of his election of a few paltry leaves and fishes, thereby showing himself to be more of a politician and not a great statesman."

IS ATTEMPTING TO DISSOLVE ICE TRUST

(By Publishers' Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Attorney General Mayer began suit in the Supreme Court today under the Domestically anti-trust law to dissolve the ice trust. The complaint charges company with restricting harvesting of ice in Maine, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and New York. This restriction enabled the trust to sell ice costing $1.90 a ton for fourteen dollars a ton. It is alleged that sales in New York show a profit of 71 to 84 per cent. It is further alleged that $35,000,000 of the company's $46,000,000 capitalization is water.

CENSUS REPORT OF THE COTTON GINNED

(By Publishers' Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The census bureau cotton reports gives 11,029,000 bales compared with 9,297,829 for 1905. The number of active ginners this year is 28,322 compared with 28,737 for 1905.

PARTY TO MAKE EFFORT TO GET TRIP TO PANAMA

Some Pacific Coast Senators and Representatives Will Start Tomorrow.

They Go In Order To Get Information At First Hand Relative to the Employment of Coolies on the Canal—Western Congressmen Opposed To Employing Coolies.

(By Publishers' Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—A party of senators and representatives from the Pacific coast leave tomorrow for Panama on a tour of investigation. They are seeking information regarding employment of coolies on the canal. Western congressmen are opposed to hiring coolies and hope to show that the employment of negroes from the Southern States would be more profitable.

(Special to The Sentinel) RALEIGH, Dec. 20.—Since the visit of Charles Rasmussen, of Minnesota, to Raleigh, in the interest of the attracting of Scandinavian settlers to North Carolina, State officials and the members of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce have become considerably interested in the matter.

Governor Glenn has intimated that he will recommend that a special appropriation be made to the legislature for advertising in the Northwest with a view to attracting these settlers to the State. There is also talk of sending a special car exhibit of North Carolina resources and advantages to the various points in the Northwest where these people have settled and are now destined of coming South to a better climate.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR POLICEMAN SKEENS

(Special to The Sentinel)

GREENSBORO, Dec. 10.—Upon complaint of relatives of George Wilson the negro who was shot and seriously injured by Policeman Skeens a few days ago, a warrant has been issued for the officer, charging him with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill. The hearing in the case will be held in a few days. Broadhurst and Stern will appear for the prosecution and Col. J. A. Barringer for the defendant. An investigation of the shooting was held before the board of aldermen Tuesday night and the officer exonerated, but the relatives of the negro, who are now in the hospital, are not satisfied with that.

(Special to The Sentinel) RALEIGH, Dec. 20.—Committee is just completing its examination and will next formulate a report for the Governor and the General Assembly—Books Found in Good Shape.

(Special to The Sentinel)

RALEIGH, Dec. 20.—For the past four days, the special legislative committee for the examination and comparison of the books and vouchers of the State Auditor and the State Treasurer has been at work on its semi-annual task and is just finishing it up. The committee finds that the total balance in the State Treasury for all purposes is $105,000, the best showing in the history of the State. The committee finds that the various funds correspond closely with the statement given by the Auditor in his report to Governor Glenn for the legislature and widely published. Members of the committee will return to their homes just as soon as they can formulate the report for the Governor and the General Assembly.
