Pretty Wedding At Waughtown. Reported for The Sentinel.

One of the pretriest home weddings of the season was that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wear, in Waughtown, on Christmas evo, at 6 o'clock, when Miss Sue Wear and Mr. John L. Swalm were unlied in marriage, the ory Heltman. Mess Ada Brimlie was aid of honor, while Mr. Arthur Clodfelter was best man. The other attendints were Miss Lottle Crowder and Mr. Rosco Long. The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Wear was attractively decorated for the occasion with Ivy and chrysamhemums, while the parlor was in green and waite. The dining room was decorated with potted plants. A wedding supper was served immediately after the marriage. The bride and groom are very popular young people, which fact was very fittingly demonstrated by the large and handsome display of wedding gifts received.
