

INDIANS BEING PURSUED

Number of Men Searching for Those Who Committerrible Atrocities in Mexican Town.

To The Hills After the Eight People a Few Carrying Three Captured Indians—Efforts To Locate Them—Have Proved Unsuccessful.

OF SALEM SUNDAY SCHOOL

Program was rendered at Christmas enter-tainment at the Salem Methodist Sun-day school.

Song of the Angels—Reading—Pastor—The Christmas Bells—Hail the Day of Peace—Christmas Morn—By Lily Ziebar.

Ye Waiting Larks—Holly Wreaths—By The Little Town of Salem—A Song of Snowflakes—Sweet—By Pauline

The Stars That Shine at Night—By May Miller—The Prodigal Girl—By Ye Bells—By the Little Missionaries—By Autumn—By Eugene

Song of Gladness—By Lift Up Your Eyes—By Praise Him!—By

CELEBRATE ON JANUARY 1

Anniversary of the... will be celebrated... for the parade, which... are asked to... forming near... and Linden... the colored cornet band... the courthouse, to... the parade, will be as... Berry.

NEWS ITEMS REPORTED FROM GREENSBORO

(Special to The Sentinel.) GREENSBORO, Dec. 29.—Before adjournment last night the National Association of Colored Teachers of Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges, Secondary Schools and Schools of Higher Education issued two strong appeals—one addressed to the people of the country and the other to the colored teachers of the South.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, R. R. Wright, Georgia State Industrial College, Savannah, Ga. First Vice-President, James B. Dudley, A. & M. College, Greensboro, N. C.

President Roosevelt, Secretary Wilson and Commissioner Harris are to be invited to address the session. The Messrs. Cone, proprietors of the Proximity and White Oak Mills last night gave a most elaborate year-end banquet in the dining room of the Guilford-Benbow, to which a large number of superintendents, overseers and other men employed with the mills and several prominent men of the city had been invited.

At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the board of aldermen last night it was decided to hold on March 12 a special election to vote on the question of issuing $30,000 bonds for school purposes.

SUING TO COLLECT PENALTIES FROM ROADS

(Special to The Sentinel.) RALEIGH, Dec. 29.—The corporation commission today instituted suit against the Southern & Atlantic Coast Line Railway Companies for penalties for failure to properly bulletin trains, the Southern at Greensboro, Gastonia and Raleigh and Whittier's and the Atlantic Coast Line at Fayetteville. The penalty in each case is $500.

Family Reunion.

J. L. Warner, of Greensboro, was here today en route to Lewisville to visit his father, J. I. Warner, who will celebrate his 80th birthday tomorrow by holding a family reunion.

Frank C. Brown—Announces continuation of great slaughter sale for ten days more. The Busy Store—Twenty per cent. reduction throughout entire men's clothing department.

Thompson's Drug Store—Physicians prescriptions given special attention. A. Day & Co.—Thanks for liberal patronage. A happy new year to all. White Star Co.—Breakfast menu. Newman's Variety Store—Thanks for patronage throughout the year just closing.

WINSTON-SALEM MANUFACTURES TEN PER CENT OF ALL TOBACCO IN U. S.

This City Also Manufactures Nearly Ninety Per Cent of All Plug and Twist Tobacco Made in This State—Report of Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The report of the United States commissioner of internal revenue contains some extremely interesting statistics relative to the manufacture of tobacco in the United States. It reveals the fact that in the city of Winston-Salem alone there is manufactured one-tenth of the entire amount of plug, twist and smoking tobacco manufactured in the whole United States.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICES AT OLD HOME CHURCH

The annual watch-meeting will be held at the Home Moravian church next Monday night. The beautiful custom of watching the old year die and extending a welcome to the new year has been faithfully kept by the Moravians for more than a hundred years.

CIVIL STRIFE IN PARTS OF POLAND

(By Publishers' Press.) LODZ, Poland, Dec. 29.—Civil war exists here on account of lockout of 21,000 factory hands as result of violent socialistic agitation among the workmen. The troops are patrolling the streets, red flags are flying from many houses and numerous clashes between the troops and workmen have taken place.

Family Reunion.

J. L. Warner, of Greensboro, was here today en route to Lewisville to visit his father, J. I. Warner, who will celebrate his 80th birthday tomorrow by holding a family reunion.

"PILLAR OF LIGHT" IN SERIAL FORM

The Sentinel begins on Tuesday, January 1, the publication in serial form of "The Pillar of Light," one of the most popular novels of recent years. When the book appeared it was hailed by critics as a great work of fiction.

SECRETARY STRAUS NAMES COMMITTEE

(By Publishers' Press.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Secretary of Commerce and Labor Straus appointed a committee today to begin an examination of passenger act of 1882, in its relation to storage accommodation and of laws of other nations on the same matter, and to examine actual storage conditions on ocean steamers bringing immigrants here.

ABOUT WINSTON AND MOORESVILLE DIVISIONS

Capt. Dugan, who has been conductor on the Southern yard here for more than a year, will go to Danville tomorrow to meet General Superintendent Coapman and receive his official appointment as trainmaster of the new Winston division.

Family Reunion.

J. L. Warner, of Greensboro, was here today en route to Lewisville to visit his father, J. I. Warner, who will celebrate his 80th birthday tomorrow by holding a family reunion.

3 WHITE MEN ARE IN TOILS

One Accused of Murder. One of Assault With Intent to Kill, and Third Assault With Knife.

John Gordon, To Answer Charge of Killing Gilt Brandham; Claude James, Shooting Negro Men and Woman, and Doss Wheeler, Carving Negro With Knife—Two of Defendants To Be Given Hearing Before Mayor Eaton Monday Afternoon.

PRESIDENT CASSATT DIES IN PHILADELPHIA

(By Publishers' Press.) NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—"He died of a broken heart," is the statement of friends of Alexander J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania railroad. The sensational disclosures during investigation of the road by Interstate Commerce Commission that officers of the company enjoyed profits of coal companies in exchange for favors is held responsible for Cassatt's death.

OLD WILKES GOOD ENOUGH FOR HIM

"No more West for me," says Mr. R. N. Garner, a native of Wilkes county, who left North Carolina in 1883. Mr. Garner spent the night here, leaving this morning for Wilkes where he expects to remain.

MESSRS. DEVIN AND BONAPARTE CONFERRING

(By Publishers' Press.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Discussing his mission here United States Attorney R. F. Devin, of San Francisco, said today: "I have met Attorney General Bonaparte regarding the so-called Japanese school question, the treaty between the United States and Japan and the rights thereunder of Japanese subjects in this country."

Chief of Police Thomas is congratulating his men upon their success in capturing three parties who will be called upon to answer serious charges in the courts.

TROUBLE AHEAD FOR THE KAISER.

The Kaiser—if the re-election for the Reichstag does not get off of that box there'll be trouble coming. News item—it is stated that a serious crisis is threatened in Germany in case the new election for the Reichstag should prove adverse to the Kaiser.

LOST—Open face watch with green back, fob on it, between Shapiro's store and corner of Main and Fifth streets. Finder please return to this office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Nunn, who were married at New Castle, Pa., on the 19th inst., were here this afternoon, returning to New Castle from a visit to Mr. Nunn's parents at Ridgeway, Va.

T. L. Rawley returned this afternoon from a visit to his former home at Reidsville.

Miss Margie Smith returned this afternoon from a visit to New York.

The county officials have decided to close their offices on Tuesday, New Year's Day.

Miss Johnnie Dickson, of Charlotte, arrived in the city this afternoon and will be the guest of Misses Norbert and Watkins for some days.

TROUBLE AHEAD FOR THE KAISER. The Kaiser—if the re-election for the Reichstag does not get off of that box there'll be trouble coming. News item—it is stated that a serious crisis is threatened in Germany in case the new election for the Reichstag should prove adverse to the Kaiser.